SIDE ONE

Sir,

I am very sorry to find there is not Pilling enough for the wamp, a man told me that size would run better than a yard to the pound, from which I lent Mr Galloway what Pilling I had of for, to make out a piece for the people. but if Mr Galloway will please to find as much as will finish the piece, I will replace it as soon as I can.

As to the Cow house, as nails are so dear, and hard to be got. if agreable to Mr Galloway when Tom comes up I wise mak him cover the House in the same way that the Stable is done which will save nails, and answ the same purpose. I enclose the list of Mr D. Galloway Shep &c — I am Sir Yr Obt Servt

J. Williams

P.S. Miss Holliday will make Mr Galloway the Shirts by the last of next week, if Stain, B. & Auf. 29/6
