n.d. Samuel Galloway incoming letters SIDE ONE 1944

Pray tell Capt. Tippell I am sorry I could not meet with him while in London, he was very kind and I am much obliged to him for all Favours in the Passage shall take it as a ffticular Favour if you let my Good Friend Hensey go halfs in his Gazette, with a proper Apology assureing [illegible] Impossible I could forget an Old Friend whom I had spent so many Agreeable Days ha! I think I could not tell him more News I have Inserted in yours and I am to give over the letters tomorrow, which straightens [illegible] in the time.

[illegible] nor him suffered by the fright you were in when I left Maryland abt. your Negro's.

Direct for me to be left at Mr. Grover's

Honoured Sir

I have been in Expectation of hearing from you all this Day, and in hope of being informed that he was much better. I have been a good deal indisposed with my fore Throat, till this afternoon it is easier and if it continues so, shall go off for Washington Tomorrow Morning. I send the Bearer to know my Uncles Situation. you will be pleased to give him your letter to Night with Orders to set off by Day break in the Morning. sincerely wishing my Uncle may be in the Recovery in which I am joined by all here I am Hon.d Sir, Yr. dutyful Son

Benj. Galloway

Hemp joins in best Compliments to Mr. & Mrs Ogle, hope Master Ben is better.

B.

Wednesday Evening.

Honoured Sir.

Mr Chew sent up last Evening for us to come down to Fleming Bay this Morning and we are this Moment setting off. Henry is sorry it so happens that she cannot have the pleasure of being at Tulip Hill with Mrs Boardley. begs the favor to offer her best Compliments. I am Sir,

Yr. dutyful Son.

Saturday Morning.

Ben: Galloway