THE NEW STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.

Oh, saycan you see, by the far Eastern light,
What so proudly is hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, after many a fight,
In lands near and far, is so gallantly streaming?
And the thanks in our prayers, rising high in the air,
Give proof to the World that our flag is still there;
Oh, say, let that star-spangled banner be waved
O'er the lands we have freed and the peoples we've saved!

Oh, thus be it always, whenever we stand
Between the oppressed and a King's desolation!
Blest with victory and peace, may the Heaven-rescued land
Praise the power that has made us a powerful nation?;
And onward we must, for our cause it is just:
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust;"
Let the star spangled banner in triumph be waved
O'er the lands we have freed and the peoples We've saved!

LETTER FROM MISS MINNIE L. CHASE.

:o:

MR. EDITOR:

We left Baltimore Wednesday, August 29, about 4 P. M., via Merchants and Miners' steamer Dorchester.

The steamboat people are glad to have you go by their line and are very corteous and attentive.

It had been so hot at home that we anticipated a much cooler night on the Bay than it proved to be. The moon was about first quarter, and toward the South a storm threatened. The water was very smooth and we glided along rapidly enough to make a pleasant breeze which cooled our heated anatomies. We embarked expecting to go to Norfolk, but found we would make the same connection at Newport News and much earlier. When we left the boat to go to the R. R. station the wharf was crowded with negroes waiting to go to work. They were polite and respectable, and a careless happy lot.

The ride to Richmond was very pleasant and much shorter than we anticipated.

When you go to Richmond be sure to take lunch at the cafe in connection with the station. They give you every attention, the fare is good, prices reasonable, and it is so convenient.

A hackman had his eye on us, and when we came out to take a street car ride, invited us to go with him instead, one dollar an hour, meanwhile enumerating the places of interest he could show us in that time.

Strange to say he was as good as his word and we were well entertained the next ninety minutes. First we saw the "Monumental Church" (Presbyterian) built on the spot where a great many people lost their lives in a theatre fire long ago.

A monument is erected to those who perished. The known are named, but a great many are among the unknown dead.

We next saw residence and part of the original wall of Jeff Davis' home. His little son Joe fell from one of the windows "endurin' cf de wah" and broke his neck. (My authority is our driver, please!) The shaft of the Merrimac is placed in the rear of the house which is now a Confederate Museum. The river view from this place is magnificent, as it overlooks a vast stretch of country to the south and east (if my compass didn't vary.) The residence of Alexander Stephens, Vice President of the Confederacy, and Chief Justice Marshall were next pointed out to us. The latter is the next oldest house in Richmond.

The Capitol Square and buildings are very beautiful. A statue of Washington surrounded by others of prominent men, is a fine work of art; another to Jackson, the Governor's House, new City Hall, State Library are all situated here, making a most beautiful and interesting group.

St. Paul's Church came next. I believe the telegram of Lee's surrender reached President Davis while worshipping here (as per driver.)

Gen. Lee's residence, "excusin' the front," is the same as when he occupied it.

Pratt's Castle is a unique structure on Gambrill's Hill. Here many suspicious persons were held until sent to Belle Isle. The latter is now the location of extensive iron works. Prisoners were kept there in war times, and cannon were made there then.

After passing the state prison and penitentiary, comfortable, clean, substantial buildings, entertaining about thirteen hundred guests, we drove into the beautiful Hollywood Cemetery.

Presidents Tyler and Monroe lie here in close proximity; the former with a fine magnolia and modest stone marking the spot, the latter having a handsome monument to his memory. The Davis lot, containing all but two members of the family, was next visited. The monument to Minnie Davis is very beautiful and was unveiled, I believe, with one to her father quite recently.

There are fifteen thousand Confederate soldiers buried in this cemetery. A monument to Gen. Lee in the form of a square pyramid, and almost overgrown with ivy, overlooks this silent army.

The Jefferson Hotel is a magnificent building occupying a whole square and costing one and a half million dollars. It was built by a Mr. Ginter from New York who accumulated a large fortune by manufacturing cigarettes.

Here we arrived at the station and in a short while resumed our journey to Cincinnati.

During one of our stops some colored children came to our car begging for pennies to buy shoes to wear to Sunday School. We told one very bright looking girl that it was very much more comfortable barefooted. That at cur home it was very stylish too. "Is you all bah footed?" she asked, and we thought she had earned the penny.

I am sorry we crossed a greater part of the mountains at night, but it was moonlight enough for us to get fine views, the early part of the evening.

We arrived in Cincinnati one and a half hours late, but found our train to Chicago waiting for us.

This part of the country is beautiful, the towns are numerous, and the valley of the Ohio is lovely. We prefer our Maryland hills to the level country, but the latter is surely a paradise to the farmer. We passed through Indianapolis, one of the prettiest citiest I saw from the train, and arrived in Chicago 5.30 P. M., on Friday, August thirty-first.

Of course this is a very round about way, but one sees a vast area of his native country via this route.

We were in Milwaukee, made famous by its Schlitz beer, for several hours, and had a delightful ride around the lake shore through what is called The Park. Milwaukee would seem to be the home of millionaires from its handsome residences, fine business houses, and palatial hotels.

Our trip is nearing its finis. We arrived in Ironwood, Michigan, Sunday, 8 A. M., and though so many many miles from "Maryland, My Maryland," we felt at home, and found a hearty welcome awaiting us.

This is a very interesting city of about twelve thousand inhabitants, of which I may write you later.

MINNIE L. CHASE.

Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 17, 1900.

Laundry Hints.

An expert laundress says that if sheets and tablecloths are folded so that the selvage edges will pass through the wringer first they will be smoother and less likely to curl. She also sounds a note of caution against the habit of pouring boiling water on soiled clothes. "You know, if you submit anything that is soft to the action of the heat it will bake it hard," she said. "Pour boiling water in the cake dish and it will cook the dough in it. So if you pour very hot water on the clothes it cooks the dirt in. If you are going to soak clothes you will soak them in lukewarm water. I wash all the clothes in lukewarm water. In summer only a little warmer than it comes from the faucet. Some people put all the clothes to soak—the clean and dirty together. This should never be done. It docs not seem quite nice to put table linen with soiled clothes from the bed or body, and, moreover, the dirt from the soiled clothes gets into the clean ones and makes them grimy.

D. 1868, and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County in Liber J. B. B., No. 40, folio 100; a duly certified copy of said deed is therewith filed as part thereof, marked "Exhibit A," and the title in and to the undivided half interest therein to which the said Alfred Parker acquired by mesne conveyances and a deed to him from Joseph N. M. P., No. 7, folio 367, &c.

Third: That by said will the said Nicholas Parker devised the said property as follows:—"First I give and bequeath to my wife Ellen Rebecca Parker my two houses on Union Street, Westminster, Md., Nos. 61 and 63, the properties are to be hers as long as she remains my widow, and if she marries or at her death, I will and bequeath the above named houses, the Shauckner property the house I now live in No. 63 goes to my brothers Alfred and Joseph Parker, my brother Joseph is to pay to my wife One Hundred and Thirty Dollars to lift Mortgage on house No. 61 Westminster, Md.

I also give and bequeath to my wife, Ellen R. Parker all money in my house and Bank at my death, and my house No. 61, known as the Warner property, on Union Street after my wife's death I will and bequeath to my sister Lottie Penn and my brother John Parker," all of which will more fully appear by reference to a duly certified copy of said will, therewith filed as part hereof, marked "Exhibit C".

Fourth: That the said Ellen Rebecca Parker, widow of the said Nicholas Parker, departed this life on or about January 5th, A. D. 1900.

Fifth: That the said Alfred Parker departed this life on or about May 30th, A. D. 1899, intestate, without leaving a widow, child or descendant surviving him.

Sixth: That the said Alfred Parker and Nicholas Parker were brothers of the full blood.

Seventh: That the said Joseph N. Parker refused to pay the said Ellen Rebecca Parker 'One Hundred and Thirty Dollars to lift Mortgage on house No. 61, Westminster, Md.," as in said last will and testament provided, and said "house No. 61, Westminster, Md," was sold under the power of sale in said Mortgage contained.

Eighth: That your Orator and Oratrix, Joseph N. Parker and Charlotte Penn, widow of William Penn, are the only surviving brother or sister of the said Nicholas Parker and Alfred Parker.

Ninth: That your Defendants the said Charlotte Parker, is the widow of John W. Parker, who departed this life intestate on or about July, 8th., A. D. 1900; that said decedent was a brother of the said Alfred Parker and Nicholas Parker, and left surviving him as his only heirs at law your Defendants the said John Parker and Lottie Parker.

Tenth: That Diana Dorsey widow of Allen Dorsey, and a sister of the said Alfred Parker and Nicholas Parker, was a resident of the State of Michigan at the time of her death; that she departed this life on or about June A. D. 1882, and it is unknown unto your Orator and Oratrices whether she left any heirs except your Orator and Oratrix, the said Joseph N. Thirteenth: That the said land, subject to whatever interest therein the said Joseph N. Parker may have as devised to him by said last will and testament of said Nicholas Parker, deceased, has descended to the said Joseph N. Parker, Charlotte Penn, John Parker and Lottie Parker and the Unknown heirs of the said Diana Dorsey, Mary Jones and Charles G. Parker, deceased, as the only heirs at law of the said Alfred Parker, deceased.

Fourteenth: That the said Real Estate is not susceptible of Partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein, as above stated, and that in order to make a division of said interests, it will be necessary that said Real Estate be sold, and the proceeds thereof divided amongst the parties according to their several interests.

The Bill then prays:

(1) That a decree may be passed for the sale of the said Real Estate.

(2) That a distribution of the proceeds of sale thereof, be made amongst the parties entitled thereto.

(3) For general relief:

For an order of publication against Charlotte Parker, John Parker and Lottie Parker, adults, of the State of New York, who are non residents of this State, commanding them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before a certain day to be named therein; to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed and also for an order of publication requiring the unknown heirs of Diana Dorsey, Mary Jones and Charles G. Parker, deceased, to be and appear in this Court on some certain day to be named in said order to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

It is thereupon, this 8th day of September A. D. 1900, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Carroll County aforesaid, once a week in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of October next, give notice to said absent defendants and the unknown heirs of Charles G. Parker, Diana Dorsey and Mary Jones, deceased, of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court, in person or by Solicitors, on or before the 31st day of October next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. Is you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of

WALL PAPER

WINDOW SHADE BUSINESS,

We are under no expense and are prepared to work at the so-called cheap Paper Hangers price to the high priced Baltimore dealers.

Don't let us be reprezented as having a big rent and lots of other expenses to collect from our customers, as that is out of the question now.

We can sell and Hang Wall Paper with any of them. We have on hand a big lot o 50 cent Window Shades at 25 cents per piece, to close them out. Get them while they last. Give us a call.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.

For Sale by all Druggists and Merchants in the Country. PRICE 25 CENTS. feb-24-4t

WANTED.

Having bought the Smallwood Creamery, of Mr. E. B. Arnold, I wish to say to the farmers of the community that I am prepared to handle 10,000 lbs. of Milk daily, and will pay the highest market price therefor, on or before the 15th of each month.

I ask the co-operation of the farmers. I know, from twelve years experience, that I can do you more good than you can have done for your dairy product in any other way. I would be glad to have any of the farmers call to see me to acquaint them with the business. Will furnish cans at wholesale price.
