Mr. Charles W. Tate, a native of Pennsylvania and formerly a well known resident of this city, died at his home near Reese, Wednesday afternoon, very suddenly, of heart disease, with which he was afflicted for a number of years. He was formerly in the receipt of a pension but was dropped from the roll under Mr. Cleveland's second administration. He will receive $8 per month. No doubt exists about his having been legally and morally entitled to a pension at the time it was withdrawn, and it would be a simple act of justice to date his pension from the period when the former one was suspended.

Mr. Ezra L. Shriner, a well known citizen of this county, died at his home, "Linwood Shade," near Linwood, quite suddenly, on Sunday night. Mr. Shriner was a farmer. With a single exception he was the last of his father's children, Mrs. George P. Buckey, of Union Bridge, being now the sole survivor. He leaves a widow and several children, among whom are Mrs. Elsie Griffin, Mrs. Clara E. Englar, Messrs. John, Charles, Clay and Jesse Shriner. His brother, Jasper C. Shriner, died about two years ago. Funeral services were held at his late home at 2 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, after which his remains were interred in the Pipe Creek German Baptist burial ground, Elders Ephraim W. The Baltimore American says: "A third edition of Rev. L. M. Zimmerman's 'Yvonnie,' has been published, the first and second editions having been sold out in a gratifyingly short period. 'Yvonne' is a strong work, with an absorbing and original plot, which develops in a dramatic manner. Besides this, it teaches a good moral lesson, and is one of the most wholesome stories ever written. It is enlivened throughout by touches of genuine humor, while the pathos is well distributed."

It is to be hoped that Mt. Airy, which has become a flourishing place, may not experience the fate predicted because of a change in the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. A tunnel is being constructed for the purpose of lessening the heavy grade now existing on the line over Parr's Ridge at the top of which Mt. Airy is situated. The tunnel, which will be over a half a mile long—to be accurate 2700 feet—will pass under the village of Ridgeville, about a mile south of Mt. Airy. It is said the company contemplates abandoning the old line when the tunnel shall have been completed, and lots are being sold at a point on the new line at which it is supposed a station will be located.

Reifsnider, youngest son of Judge Charles T. Reifsnider, were married on the previous day, at Hagerstown, Mayor Gilbert having received a telegram to that effect, from the couple, on Wednesday evening. No details of the event were given. Hon. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for Vice-President, passed through this city on the 9.51 train going west, yesterday morning. Not more than fifty or sixty people, we are informed, were at the station when the train arrived. Mr. Stevenson stood on the rear platform and shook hands with them. Several Republicans were among those who went to the station to see the distinguished gentleman. It is surprising that so few Democrats turned out to give him a greeting. Our first impression was that they were in ignorance of his presence on the train, but we are informed that his coming was heralded by the newspapers and that numbers of leading Democrats were aware of it.

Miss Harriet Bollinger has returned to the United States after a two-years' sojourn in Europe and is now at the Graduate School of Yale University, Hartford, Conn., taking a course in physics and other kindred branches. In a letter to the editor of the SENTINEL, from which he takes the privilege of making some extracts, under date of the 9th inst., she says: "I have found European travel very delightful and highly interesting, and hope to see more of Europe in the future. During my two years' absence the time was disposed about as follows: Four and a half months in London, after which a year and a half in sunny Italy, which has become almost like a second homeland to me; a tour of five weeks or more, last spring, through Southern Greece, including Athens, Battlefield of Marathon and Delphi; later in the summer another tour, through Switzerland, of one month; then Paris and the Exposition, also several cathedral towns of France; next London and Liverpool, whence to Boston. * * * I have brought with me a large collection—numbering from 800 to 1000—of platinum types and photographs of the paintings and sculpture of the old masters; also of noted buildings and churches, all of which I would be most happy to show many kind friends if I were in old Maryland."

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Maryland Synod Lutheran Church, which convened in Frederick, last week, adjourned on Friday, to meet next year in Waynesboro, Pa. Mrs. G. W. Baughman, of Uniontown, presided over Friday's session, which was devoted to hearing reports from the various committees. Death of Mrs. Arthur Englar.

A telegram received by E. M. Bish, Esq., of this city, on the 11 inst., from Elder David Shorb, residing at Minot, North Dakota, conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Arthur Englar in the hospital at that place on Wednesday, 10th inst., at 9 P. M. Mrs. Englar had been ill for a month or more with what was understood to have been peritonitis. Until very recently favorable reports as to her condition had been received by her parents and friends residing in our county. This sad news therefore is the sadder because of being unexpected. Mrs. Englar, with her husband and six small children, as is generally understood, moved to Dakota in March last, in company with Elder Shorb and family and a number of others from our county. She was well and extremely favorably known; so favorably that her departure for the West was regretted by all who knew her. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. Abraham I. and Mrs. Catharine Geiman, near this place. Her age was about 38 years. Beside her husband she leaves six children. It is not probable that her remains, for the present at least, will be brought home.

The rural free delivery would be a blessing as well as a great benefit to this vicinity and community, who reside within a mile or so from Carrollton Station, Western Maryland Railroad. The delivery comes as far as Mr. Michael Walsh's and he receives the benefit of it. Within a quarter of a mile of him, on the road to Wesley Church, reside Messrs. Benj. Croft, Elias Houck, Jeremiah Blizzard, Geo. Houck, Mrs. E. Leppo, Mr. Levi Valentine and D. Webster Mules, all of whom would be glad to be recipients of the free delivery. They are in a clump and very near each other. Mr. E. W. Shriver said to your corressondent not long ago, while in Westminster, that if six persons reside in the vicinity and wanted the delivery they could get it. Here are seven of us. Now Mr. Shriver please send the rural delivery to us. A drive of five minutes from Mr. Walsh's mail box would give us the daily mail.

Mrs. William H. Blizzard and son Lewis spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday last at Towson, as guests of Mr. August Kelso.

Porter's Items.

On August 29th, 1900, this community lost, by death, one of its oldest and most respected colored citizens, in the person of Mrs. Nancy Ann Cook. As a slave she belonged to Mr. George Davis, an uncle of ex-School Examiner George A. Davis, and gained her freedom when President Lincoln issued his emancipation proclamation. Her exact age is unknown but is supposed to have been about ninety-five years. She was the mother of eleven children, six of whom, five boys and one girl are still living. She was buried at Fairview A. M. E. Church, August 31st.

The farmers have been very busy with their seeding the bulk of grain now having been sown. While we have had but little rain the continued cloudy damp weather last week enabled the farmers to put their ground in very good order for seeding.

The apple crop in this neighborhood will not be up to the average this fall, owing, no doubt, to the dry weather.

The harvest home service held at Messiah Lutheran Church on Sunday night, 30th ult., was a decided success. The decorations of golden rod, grains and fruits showed a great deal of taste on the part of the ladies. Communion services were held at the church on Sabbath morning, 7th inst.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

The Y. P. S. of C. E. of the M. E. Church, at Union Mills, has procured the service of Mr. Geo. W. Yeiser, who will give his stereopticon lecture of his recent tour through Egypt, Palestine, Syria and Europe at that church, on Sunday evening, October 14th. A silver collection at the door will be taken for missions. This is a rare chance to learn much of Bible history and should be largely patronized.

Stone Chapel Sunday School will hold its annual Festival and Oyster Supper, Saturday afternoon and night, October 20th, at the church. All are cordially invited to attend.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed at all druggists.

DIED.

At Patapsco, October 4th, 1900, Wm. L. Chew, aged 17 years, 3 months and 22 days.

Pitying angel, come comfort us now,
In saddest affliction we mournfully bow;
'Tis only in prayer we can lift up our heads,
And ask their assistance—our friend is dead.
We may soon follow him, none can tell when;
In Heaven we'll soon be united again;
May we all in the way of our duty be led,
And again meet our friend, our friend that is dead.
Gone in his life's early morning,
Blighted in boyhood's bloom,
Torn from the hearts that loved him,
To sleep in the silent tomb.
But he turns and waves his hand,
Pointing to the glory o'er us,
In that happy spirit land.

By his friend, Howard W. B.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Benevolent and Aid Society of Benjamin's Reformed Church, held on the evening of October 10th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father in His all-wise Providence has called from our midst Mrs. Ida Shafer Engel, a faithful member of Benjamin's Reformed Church, and one of the organizers of our Aid Society, who, on Sept. 18th, 1900, entered into "the rest that remaineth to the people of God,"

Resolved, That we, her fellow members and friends, do herewith bear testimony to her excellence of christian character, her loyal devotion to and support of the spiritual and temporal interests of her church, and her liberality at all times in contributing toward the work of the gospel.

Resolved, That while she will be greatly missed from her place in the public service of the church and at the meetings of our society, we realize that our loss has been her gain, and that therefore ours is not a "sorrow which hath no hope."

Resolved, That we herewith tender our sympathy to her family in their bereavement, commending them to the love and care of Him who is ready to give strength and grace in every trial.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the society, and that copies be sent to the Reformed Church Messenger and the Westminster papers for publication,

MRS. H. J. MACALISTER, President.
MISS M. STONER, Secretary.
