Sam Galloway

Dear Sir Maryland Novr 19th 1773

I hope this will find you in London very happy with your friends and that every Difficulty will be over.

The Two Sisters is at last in ear sailing if you calculate what we shall fall short by the neglect of Anchors and Seven pounds of Iron instead of Eight the time of his Lying here you will find it very considerable.

I sent you an Invoice by Capt. Nanneck inclosed was a copy with a few articles added which I meant to allend to. Inclosed is a small bill of Exch. which will be paid a dont doubt please to credt my account with it.

The Assembly are sitting and an Inspection bill in the upper house but I fear will not pass. I hope to hear from you soon and am with my best Compliments to you self and good Lady

Your most Obedt Servt S. G.

The Bill of Exchange drawn by Bennett Chew on James Anderson for £10. 10. 3

PS. I have 14 hdds Tobo on board this Ship please to make out separate Acct Sales for the Tobo of different marks as my Owners have there Shares in part of it

For Mr James Russell
Mercht in London

Dear Sir Maryland May 4th 1774

I have your favour of the 1st Decemr and 7th Janry I under you 6th March Capt Coulson has made very little progress in his Loading yet such a dry season no tobo could be got ready but when that can be done she will be soon dispatched altho I fend many people are in hopes the price of Tobo will rise here in consequence of an Inspection Law and will be backward in Shipping the one part of the year and as Captain Coulson was in Patuxent we found our new Ship could lie there the fall before she could load therefore we set about another and will
