LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. F. E. Cootes, Pennsylvania Ave., this city, has a chrysanthemum plant 7 feet, 4 inches high, and the stalk reaching this altitude bears the only flower upon the plant.

The Westminster Fire Department will meet next Wednesday night to consider a proposition to invite the Maryland Volunteer Firemen's Association to hold its State Convention in this city, in June next.

Residents of this city were surprised yesterday morning to find house-roofs, grass plats and wooden steps and walks covered with snow to the depth of half an inch. A high cold wind followed, giving a vivid forecast of coming winter.

A very interesting and exciting game of football was played election day on the college grounds, between the Western Maryland College team and Westminster Athletic Club, in which W. M. C. proved victorious. Only one touchdown was made. Score—W. M. C., 5; W. A. C., 0.

The will of Mrs. Margaret R. Poole, formerly of Mt. Airy, was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore, this week. It leaves her estate, principally, to her daughters, Mrs. Alfred Maynard and Mrs. Alfred Jones, during their lives and then to their children. Harriet D. Jones and Poole Maynard, grandchildren of the testatrix, are bequeathed $500 each.

Mr. Harry C. Keefer, while taking a trip through the northern part of Frederick county last week, noticed a huge redoak tree about two and a half miles north of Rocky Ridge. Desiring to ascertain its size he measured the circumference of its trunk which he found to be eighteen feet—nearly six feet in diameter. It is probably the largest tree of that variety in this part of the State.

Mrs. Sarah Hinkle, of Mount Airey, this county, was bound and gagged by three white men, who entered her store Thursday night of last week and robbed the cash drawer of $10. The robbers, after binding Mrs. Hinkle, caught her grandson, a small boy, as he entered the store and gagged him to prevent him from making an outcry. Mrs. Hinkle was handled roughly and one of the men choked her severely.

The Republicans of Taneytown will celebrate the victory of Tuesday last by a torchlight procession and illumination, on Tuesday evening next. Hampstead Republicans will have a torchlight procession and illumination on Thursday night. Frizellburg Republicans promptly celebrated the victory last night (Friday.) Col Wm. A. McKellip, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., and W. L. W. Seabrook were the speakers on the occasion. Westminster Republicans are contemplating an extensive demonstration in honor of the victory also. They will confer at Babylon's Hall, after the SENTINEL goes out to its readers, Friday night, and decide what shall be done in the matter.

The jury in the case of Jeremiah Albaugh, in Circuit Court No. 2, of Baltimore, for the murder of William H. Neville, returned a sealed verdict convicting the accused of manslaughter, and Judge Dennis sentenced him to jail for two months. The sealed verdict was returned "Not guilty of murder in the second degree, but guilty of manslaughter," which was not proper form, and the counsel for the defense not making any exception thereto was allowed to be amended to read "Not guilty of murder, but guilty of manslaughter," after which sentence was imposed. Albaugh had been in Jail since September 20, the day of the homicide. Albaugh claims he was first attacked, choked and then threatened with a brick by Neville, when he picked up a brick and threw it at Neville, striking him on the head. Neville died on September 27. The light sentence indicates the mind of the court as to the gravity of the offense.

Shortly before six o'clock, yesterday morning, Mr. John Lippy, of this city, discovered the lifeless body of Dr. Campbell S. Harstone lying in the alley in the rear of Mr. Jacob Thomson's livery stables. Dr. Harstone was on the second floor of the stables on Thursday evening and probably lay down and fell asleep. It is supposed that, awakening in the night, he became bewildered, walked out of a door through which hay is passed into the building and fell to the ground. It is thought that his neck was broken by the fall. He lay on his face, with his arms outstretched. Dr. Harstone was about forty-three years old. He was born at St. Mary's, Ontario, Canada, and was a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary School. He came here about fifteen years ago and has since been engaged in the active practice of his profession. He was regarded as an excellent veterinary physician and surgeon. He married Miss Emma Rahter, daughter of the late Henry Rahter, a former proprietor of the Westminster City Hotel, who, with two little daughters, survive him. His remains will be interred in Westminster Cemetery.

A Five O'Clock Tea.

On Tuesday afternoon last Miss Jewell Simpson gave a tea, at her home on College Avenue, in honor of her guests, Misses Marian Veasey and Victoria Wailes, of Salisbury, Md. In due time the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a most tempting variety of refreshments was served while they chatted merrily and got the greatest amount of enjoyment out of the affair. In the service the hostess was assisted by Miss Veasey and Miss Wailes, who won much admiration by the easy and graceful manner in which they contributed to the pleasure of the occasion.

Mr. Howard Blizzard, employed in Drechsler's Mill, at Carrollton Station, who has been sick for over a fortnight with nervous indigestion, is much improved, under the care of Dr. Coonan, of Westminster.

It appears as though the chicken cocks in this vicinity gave vent to their feelings this morning by crowing for McKinley. Every man, woman and child in the country should give praise to God for the re-election of our dear President McKinley. "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

Manchester Items.

The battle has been fought and the victory won so substantially that there need be no quibbling about it. Of all elections held at our polls that of Tuesday broke the record for quietness and good feeling. The ideal day brought out a large crowd, many of whom displayed their colors with their badges. There was much complaint in regard to the delays at the polling-place and some even left and went home without voting, as evening approached. I think a majority of the voters of the district are in favor of having two polling places. They seem to claim that 933 registered voters are entitled to two precincts. The banner voter, we think, is Mr. Hann, living at Bachman's Church. He is 86 years old but walked to town, 5 miles and back, to deposit his ballot. It was nearing midnight when the news came: "Go out on your parade; all is O. K." In a few minutes a bonfire was aglow and the whooping in high G began at once. As soon as the horns could be distributed the march was taken up and the sleeping citizens were notified that the country had sent forth its decree that Billy and Teddy should stand at the helm for four years.

Mr. Philip Stoffle, who was so badly hurt by his horse falling on him, has only now recovered himself so as to answer questions asked him. Dr. Preston called in Dr. Weaver in consultation and the Drs. think that he will pull through all right.

A VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, Md.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

A meeting of The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society was held at Grace Lutheran Parsonage, Nov. 5th, 1900, at which the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Hannah R. Hoppe, a devoted member of the Lutheran Church, has been suddenly called from time into eternity, and

WHEREAS, She was an earnest, active member of our Missionary Society, therefore

Resolved, That in her removal from our ranks, The Woman's Missionary Society has lost one of its most faithful, and efficient members, whose active interest in our work showed her devotion to her Saviour and his cause.

Resolved, That we are comforted with the thought that she has only been transformed from the Church militant to the Church triumphant.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with those who have been so unexpectedly called to mourn her departure, and we point them for comfort to him who wept with the sorrowing.

Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded in our minutes, and that we request their publication in our local papers, and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased sister.
