On the Nineteenth day of September 1767. At the request of Mr. Silvanus Grove of London Merchant I William Tudman Notary and Tabellion Publick Dwelling in London duly Admitted and Sworn Went with the Original Bill of Exchange above Copied to the house of Mr. John Birde to whom the same is directed there to demand and procure payment thereof (the time limited for payment of the said Bill since its first presentation by me the said Notary being expired) where having exhibited the said Bill to his Wife and demanded payment of its contents she answered that the said John Birde was not within and had not left any Orders for payment of the said Bill. Whereupon I the said Notary at the request aforesaid have and do hereby Solemnly Protest against the Drawer of the said Bill and all others concerned for all Change Rechange Costs Damages and Interest already Suffered and to be suffered for want of Payment of the said Bill. Thus Done and protested in London aforesaid in the presence of Benjamin Hammatt and James Sharpe Witnesses. p —
