of the Affairs, I make no doubt ~~Mr Maxwell~~ he will concur in any measure that may facilitate it; if it cant be done sooner & it should be convenient I would willingly take to.^o the ensuing Season at market price, I should be obliged for his Sentiments on this proposal by a Line directed as before.

Dear Sir Your very Ob.^t Servt

Benedict

JG

Annapolis Jany 26.th 1769

Gent.^n

Since my last via London I have not been favoured with any advice from you, tho' must say I Expected to have received the accounts before now, without them its impossible to bring any of the persons indebted to the Estate to a Settlement, many of them upon Application making that an Excuse for not paying any thing; Mr. Maxwel in Particular desires to be indulged till next Octb.^r of that he ~~wont~~ can.^t pay before, however I shall make a push Application & press him for a speedier payment, this I have repeatedly done to almost every one but find it hitherto ineffectual, therefore hourly Expect the Acct.^s with great impatience as I shall have it then more in my Power to Compel them to a Settlmt. I am with gr.^t

Bristol Respect Your Ob.^t Hble Servt JG

Capigrus Of Sedgley Hillhouse and Randolph, Estate

Maryland Jany 24.th 1769

Gent.^n

This will be handed you by Gods Permission, by the Randolph Capt. John Weaver Price Master, who now sails with a Cargo of Wheat & flour on freight to Yr. address; the payment of the freight according to Charter Party is to be made immediately on delivery of the Cargo, which you'll please remit if possible by the Vessel in good bills of Exchange to Messrs. William Stevenson & Co. Merchants in Bristol, Herewith you have Copy of the Charter Party for Yr. further Government, I make no doubt all necessary Attention will be paid in Dispatching her, In the mean time if any Freight should offer for any Port in England or Ireland I have Given the Capt. Orders to Accept it, Conforming at the same time to Yr. Advice & direction; he will also apply to you for every Necessary Assistance he may stand in need of, which you'll please be good enough to furnish him with, If the Randolph should unload at Cadiz, Should be Obliged if Your Advice Messrs. Stevenson & Co. of her Further Destination Messrs. Isaac Wilcks & Co. Cadiz or to whom they may order the Ship Randolph to

I am JG.

Maryland Jany 24.th 1769

Capt. Price

You'll proceed without delay to Cadiz in Spain, and on Yr. Arrival, immediately Apply to Messrs. Isaac Wilcks & Co. for direction whether to Unload there or proceed to any one other Port in the Mediterranean, You have a Copy of the Charter Party, by which, and the directions of the above Gent.^n