Baltimore 6th November 1773

Dr Sir

Three Days ago I had the pleasure of Transmitting you Invoice & Bills of Lading for 3000 Bus of Indian Corn Shipped on your Acct in the Restoration Capt Thomas, Who sailed the next morning: Likewise your Acct Curt, The Ballance of which, being £187.8.9 Sterling I then Drew for, in favor of Messrs Stevenson Randolph & Cheston Bristol

I now Inclose you Duplicates of the Bill of Lading I am Dr Sir

Your Very hble Servt
J.G

Mr Joshua James
Distiller. Bristol

A Copy of the above sent to Messrs Samuel Harper & Co
Distillers of Bristol

Baltimore 6th November 1773

Gentn

I have now to advise you the Restoration sailed the Day before yesterday, with a Cargo of Corn Tobacco & Flour & Staves as p duplicate of Bill of Lading inclosed — By her I rem.d you my Drafts on Samuel Harper & Co of Joshua James for £187.8.9 St. each: You have now the Seconds inclosed — Also Jonathan Plowmans first Bill on Silvanus Grove for £86 which is to be placed to the Cr of the General account

I have received none of your favors since my last, therefore am quite at a Loss abt the Isabella, however as Thompson must be in immediately, if ever, I hope to have your thoughts abt her. —

I can't say any thing abt Perkins Buchanan's & Brown's affair yet, having received nothing satisfactory yet from Virginia. Nothing can be done in this province I'll write you the moment I can come to any certainty abt it — I am Gentn

Your Very hble Servt
J.G

Messrs Stevenson Randolph & Cheston Bristol

Baltimore Novr 16. 1773

Gentn

I have now to acknowledge Rect of your of the 23d of Augt p Thompson who arrived at Chester abt 10 Days ago; I was in hopes by her, to have found that you had been able to have fallen upon some feasible scheme for the Isabella from this, for I'll assure you, I am much at a Loss. A Load of Tob.o might be got @ 15/. I dare say, but from the Quantity gone home, the meanness of the Quality, Loss of Weight &c. together with the prospect of the Price being lower when it would get to market, than what you last Quote, I am afraid instead of