Nearly 5,000 yards of this elegant 10c Percale goes on sale to-day. The styles are all choice, mostly white grounds with neat stripes and figures, in pink, blue and black; such Percale has never been sold before for so little a price. Derr & Lamberd Head to Foot Outfitters

Good 22c Matting 16c.

Only 1,000 yards, splendid Jointless China Matting, good heavy weight and will lay smoothly on the floor, such Mattings regularly sell for 22c yd; large or small designs, all excellent colors. What could we offer that would be more interesting to the average housewife at this season? As an opening special we will sell it for 16c yard.

Easter Millinery Reception.

A feature of this showing is practicalness. The hats are made for wear, not merely for show. We are displaying styles and ideas suited to every particular type of face.

Is it any wonder the "Model" Hats are so famous that increasingly large numbers of the best and most fashionable ladies are easily suited here? Variety is wider, you may pay as little as you wish for a hat, or you may pay a good many dollars, but in every instance the price is relatively cheap.

Flowers, Ornaments, Chiffon and Ribbons are the trimmings now. Most hats are made of straw gimps and net.

The opening days have been very successful from all standpoints. If you have not seen the display, come.

SPRING WELCOME!

Don't put off your Easter buying one day longer. We were never so ready to help you before as now. This new and larger store is completed. You'll be interested principally in the new things, of course—the Hats, the Gowns, the Shoes, the Neckwear, the Trimmings, the Dress Fabrics, the Gloves and whatever else you may need for the Easter outfit, yet this store has been made for your comfort and pleasure. Shopping is easier here. There is particularly good news for you these opening days; read every word we have to say, then come see the rest.

Women's New Tailored Suits.

To know just what to wear in Tailormade Suits you must come here. Thought and hard work have placed this suit store foremost among the leading metropolitan houses.

The stock is much the largest we have ever shown, the styles by far the nobbiest. Season after season we get a larger share of your business in this line.

Dressmakers Welcome: you may find many good ideas here not thought of before; it is our wish to be as much service as possible.

The prices on these handsome dresses are likely less than you would expect to pay for such elegant materials and so much style.

$10.00, $12.00, $15.00 and $18.00 for suits that are truly worth and would usually sell for several dollars more. Colors are mostly black, blue, castor and brown—trimmings are very neat yet exquisitely beautiful.

15C Handkerchiefs For 10c Each.

We've a lot of the newest lace edge and footing trimmed Handkerchiefs, of fine sheer lawn and cambric; you would consider them a big bargain at 15c, but while they last you may pick at only

THE UNITED STATES AND CUBA.

Among the things required of the Cubans, under what is known as the Platt resolution, passed by Congress, is that, in framing their constitution for an independent government, they shall not include the Isle of Pines within the limits of the outlines of Cuba, that island having been ceded to the United States by Spain, in the treaty of Paris; that they shall not cede any portion of Cuba to a foreign power without the consent of the United States; that they shall not give exclusive privileges to any foreign power or pass laws by which this country shall have less privileges than the most favored nation. There are some other conditions, especially in regard to the finances, and also a requirement that such territory shall be ceded to the United States as may be needed for coaling stations. The constitutional convention appears to be disposed to resist these demands which, of course, Democratic politicians generally regard as harsh and unjust, yet, if such conditions had not been imposed these politicians would have been the first to abuse the government for a failure to insist upon its just rights. This government had trouble enough about Cuba, when it was a dependency of Spain, to justify almost any demand looking to the future peace and well being of the island. It cost too much, in men and money, to wrest the great island from the sovereignty of Spain, to risk any future trouble in that respect. Considering the great service this country has rendered Cuba there should be no hesitation on the part of her people to accede to the conditions named. This country will be expected, on her part, to protect the island from spoliation without the consent of its people. It is not too much to ask that they agree not to give such consent.

Self-government by the Cubans is an experiment which may result in failure. This country will lend its assistance and best offices to promote such government, but if, with such assistance, it shall prove a failure, American interests will demand intervention and a protectorate, if not actual annexation. Under American rule the resources of Cuba, which are very great, would be more thoroughly and rapidly developed than they will be under any form of constitutional self-government the people can adopt; but this country stands pledged to give them a fair trial, only stipulating for such restrictions as will assure us freedom from complications with other nations by voluntary Cuban actions. Under all the circumstances these seem to be reasonable demands, but, no matter what course this government may pursue in the premises, only hostile criticism is to be looked for from Democratic politicians.

The one hundred and seventeenth session of the Baltimore Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, opened in St. Paul's M. E. Church, Hagerstown, on Tuesday, 26th inst., and continue at least one week, and probably longer. There will be in attendance about 250 ministers, for whom places of entertainment are now being provided by a committee in that city. The sessions of the Conference promise to be highly interesting as important church legislation will come up for consideration. Bishop Cranston, of Cincinnati, will preside. One of the features of the Conference will be the reunion of Baltimore Conference and the Central Pennsylvania Conference. The latter body will be in session at Chambersburg, Pa., at the same time the Baltimore Conference is being held in Hagerstown. The reunion will be held on Monday, April 1st.

Peter Geiser, the founder of the Geiser Manufacturing Company of Waynesboro, Pa., died in that place, suddenly, Tuesday 19th, inst. He was born near Smithburg, Washington county, Md., and on his mother's side was related to the Singer family which produced the inventor of the Singer sewing machine. Mr. Geiser was the inventor of the Peerless separator and other machinery manufactured by the Geiser shops in Waynesboro. These shops employ about 600 hands. He has not been connected with the establishment for a number of years.

The Western Maryland Railroad is hauling 37,000 cross-ties from Cherry Run to Hagerstown, where they are to be used for the additional trackage in the yards and on the double tracks from Hagerstown to Potomac Valley Junction. The capacity of the yards at Hagerstown will be greatly enlarged. The yards at Shippensburg, Pa., have already been enlarged and now have a capacity of 1000 cars.

Reports from Waynesboro, Pa., state that the San Jose scale has attacked peach, apple and plum trees in that vicinity with great virulence, and that if its ravages cannot be arrested great damage will be done.
