Vials to be marked A S; they are for a particular Friend of mine, & therefore should be glad they are not omitted. I am Gentlemen Your Very Humble Servt

To Messrs Stevenson Randolph & Cheston Bristol

J G

Dear Sir Baltimore Apl 28th 1774

This day Recd a letter from Mr Reed of Bristol, inclosing one for Messrs Saml & Robert Purviance of this Place, which he desired me to deliver, at the same time request to know, whether they would comply with the contents. Their Answer, which Mr Reed begd you might be made acquainted with, was, that they had already in part complied with the contents, and that the Remainder should be complied with immediately. I am Dear Sir &c

J G

To Capt Valt Baker at Messrs Amory Taylor & Rogers Merchts in Boston

Dear Sir Baltimore Apl 29th 1774

This days post handed me your favor of the 4th of Febry covering a letter for Messrs Saml & Robt Purviance, which I immediately waited on them with & beg'd to know if they would comply with the contents. Their Answer was, that they had complied in part & weeks & that the Remainder should be complied with immediately. I have advised Capt Valt Baker of this answer. And am Dear Sir Yrs &c

J G

To James Reed Esq. in Bristol

Baltimore April 29th 1774

Gent. I have now to advise you the Restoration is loaded & will certainly sail tomorrow if the Wind is fair. She has On Board 4957 Bls Wheat, 709 Hhds Flour & 4400 Staves. — One Capt John Crawford comes home Master of her; Capt Thomas, being in so low a State, choosing to stay for the New Ship. — I shall write you fully by the Snow. And am Gent. Your Hble Servt

James Cheston

To Messrs Stevenson Randolph & Cheston Bristol by the packet