twenty years ago this woman had felt a thousand pulses leap and throb within her when a feeble little cry told that from her body a living soul had come into the world—ah, mystic wonder!—a newborn soul and from her body and the child of the man she loved. But that child had broken the heart of the man she loved, and she was merciless.

Suddenly a blatant low from the great empty byre echoed through the silence hollowly, and again there was silence.

The somber radiance deepened in the room. The brass knobs at the head of the bed gleamed mournfully.

"Speak to me, fether!" whispered Janet. "Speak to me, fether! Speak to me!"

But he lay with closed eyes in the lonely light, and it seemed to Janet that his shut lips smiled—smiled with the quiet irony of the dead, who know the secrets of all things and will tell us nothing.

DOES ANY ONE CARE FOR FATHER?

Does any one care for father?
Does any one think of the one
Upon whose tired, bent shoulders
The cares of the family come—
The father who strives for your comfort,
And toils from night unto day,
Although his steps ever grow slower,
And his dark locks are turning gray?
Does any one think of the due bills
He's called upon daily to pay?
Milliner bills, grocery bills, doctor bills—
There are bills of some kind every day.
Like a patient horse in a treadmill,
He works on from morning till night,
Does any one think he is tired?
Does any one make his home bright?
Is it right, just because he looks troubled,
To say he is as cross as a bear?
Kind words, little actions and kindness
Might banish his burdens of care.
'Tis for you he's ever so anxious,
He will toil for you while he may live;
In return he only asks kindness,
And such pay is easy to give.

REV. MR. RESSER'S FUNERAL.

Hanover, Pa., April 20.—Rev. George B. Resser, late pastor of Emmanuel Reformed Church, this place, who was killed by a fall from the scaffoling on the new church building Tuesday last, was buried this afternoon. Despite the steady fall of a drizzling rain, the funeral was the largest ever held in Hanover. The chapel of the unfinished church was much too small to hold the hundreds of people eager to pay a last tribute to the pastor and the man who was so universally loved here. Ministers of the Reformed Church were present from all the cities and towns in Pennsylvania and Maryland within a radius of 100 miles of this place. Rev. Dr. J. C. Bowman, of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, preached the funeral sermon, and eulogistic memorial addresses were made by Rev. Dr. J. Spangler Keefer, of Hagerstown; Rev. W. I. Stewart, of Baltimore, and Rev. Dr. E. R. Eschbach, of Frederick. The members of the church consistory acted as pallbearers. A strange coincidence, almost startling in its prophecy, was the finding in Rev. Resser's desk of his unfinished sermon for this Sunday, the text of which was from St. John, x. 11, "The Good Shepherd Giveth His Life for the Sheep." It was while seeing that workmen properly placed a stone cross on a pinnacle of the church roof that the pastor lost his life.

Hints for the Household.

Whole cloves are said to be as effectual in banishing moths as either camphor, cedar or tobacco.

Willow furniture, mattings, etc., may be cleaned with salt and water applied with a nail brush. Rinse well and dry thoroughly.

Powdered borax sprinkled around in places infested by ants will banish them.

Mix a teaspoonful of pulverized alum with stove polish; it will give the stove a good and permanent lustre.

Tubs will not warp or crack if a pailful of water is put into each directly after using.

To remove tar put soft grease on the spot, rub it in thoroughly with the hands, then wash the grease and tar out in a basin of warm water to which a teaspoonful of soda has been added.

A litle borax put in the water in which red-bordered table linen or towels are to be washed will prevent them from fading.

To clean decanters, put in a quantity of crushed egg-shells, then partly fill with cold water and shake thoroughly.

Wash fine flannels in a pailful of tepid water, in which put a tablespoonful of borax.

How to Photograph Wild Animals.

A reader of the SENTINEL sends us the following: "I have been asked many times how to photograph wild animals. I took a picture of a field sparrow whose nest was on the ground by placing my kodak on a rock near the nest, then I focused the lens, tied a piece of cotton string to the lever, covered the kodak with leaves, leaving the lens uncovered, and retired to a distant part of the field. The bird soon came back and with a slight jerk (it is better to use a tube with a ball on the end such as photographers use) on the string sprung the lever. I repeated this several times and I succeeded in getting a very good picture."

What most people need is less good advice and more good examples.

FLOODS DESTROY PROPERTY IN SEVERAL STATES.

Miami, Fla., April 19.—The hamlet of Biscayne, several miles north of here, was struck by a tornado this morning. Several houses were demolished. John Peters was fatally injured and William Cook severely hurt. Peters was a prosperous vegetable farmer. His house was completely demolished. The main part of the building and a substantial structure was carried about 100 yards and dashed to pieces. Of the back of the residence but the floor remains. Mr. Peters' head was badly crushed, and his body was pierced by several pieces of wood. Mr. Cook was thrown 50 feet and painfully injured. The tornado is thought to be local. Every forest tree in its path in this vicinity was torn up by the roots.

Middleboro, Ky., April 10.—a heavy snowstorm has been raging throughout Eastern Kentucky since noon today and is still falling tonight. Two days of heavy rain preceded the snowstorm and brought on freshets in Powells Valley, which rendered 20 families homeless in that section. As soon as the water recedes they will be able to return to their homes. There is two inches of snow in Yellow Creek Valley and it is half a foot deep on the mountains. The peach trees are in full bloom, and the fruit will probably be killed.

Loss of life and widespread destruction of property from floods and snow are reported from Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

Pittsburg and vicinity is the center of the deluge.

Rain and snow have fallen in the Middle West for over sixty hours.

The storm which raged Friday and Thursday night in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Florida Saturday passed over North Carolina and Virginia. At Atlanta and other points in the South the wind reached a velocity of from 56 to 60 miles an hour. A cold wave followed the storm in the South. Frost was expected in Northern Georgia.

Many towns in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Eastern Kentucky were flooded. In some the residents became panic-stricken the rapidly rising waters driving them from their homes.

Numerous mills and other manufacturing plants along the rivers were flooded. Landsides and washouts and the sweeping away of bridges on the railroads have caused losses that will aggregate hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Ohio, Monongahely and Kanawha Rivers flooded the lowlands for miles on either side. Hundreds of families in the lower section of of Parkersburg and Wheeling are homeless.

On the Allegheníes the snowfall was very heavy at some points. On the South Mountains the snow melted as it fell.

At Greenville, Pa., and Youngstown, O., the snow was two feet on the level.

A trestle near Blacksburg, S. C. gave way, freight train was wrecked, the engineer drowned and the fireman injured.

Throughout Western New York a blizzard raged. The exposition buildings at Buffalo were covered with six inches of snow. The grounds were in such condition from the storm that the opening of the exposition on May 1 may have to be delayed.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the Ohio River at Glenfield, Pa. A woman was drowned near Woodville.

On Lake Ontario the storm was terrific, and it is feared considerable damage has been done to shipping.

The town of Carnegi, six miles southeast of Pittsburg, was the scene of a riot. Negroes got drunk on liquor being removed from the flooded cellars of saloons, and attacked the chief of police with razors. The citizens turned out and suppressed the rioters.

The Ohio River rose ten feet during Friday night at Marietta, O., floating the houseboat of William Lafavre away, drowning Lafavre and his wife and child, while sleeping.

Ten million dollars will hardly cover the enormous losses by the April deluge and blizzard in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Western New York and West Virginia.

Hundreds of mills, iron furnaces and manufacturing plants in Pittsburg, Allegheny, Wheeling and other places were flooded. Valuable machinery was damaged.

Fifty thousand working-people will be idle for days, and probably weeks, by the closing down of the mills and factories.

Thousands of poor people in the lowlands of West Virginia and Ohio and Western Pennsylvania are homeless on account of the floods.

The dam at Middlefield, Mass., gave way. Several small houses were destroyed. The people rushed to the hills. No lives were lost.

Snow continued to fall Sunday throughout the greater part of Eastern Tennessee. On the mountains the snow is reported to have reached a depth of nearly two feet.

Every town on the Ohio River between Pittsbbrg and Wheeling was in darkness on Sunday night owing to the shutting down of electric light plants and the turning off of the flow of gas in the mains on account of breaks caused by the floods.

Western Maryland also suffers from the floods. The Potomac River was over its banks at Williamsport. Masses of trees, logs and other debris were carried down the stream at a rapid rate, and persons living near the river moved to places of safety.

THE RIGHT THING TO PUT ON.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

From the natural impulse to "put something on" a painful spot all applications for the relief of pain have arisen.

The most successful have ever been poultices or plasters, and the best of these is Benson's Porous Plaster.

No other has anything like the same power as a curative agent; it is highly and scientifically medicated, and its standard is advanced year by year.

Use Benson's Plaster for coughs, colds, chest diseases, rheumatism, grip, neuralgia, kidney trouble, lame back, and other ailments that make Winter a season of suffering and danger. It relieves and cures quicker than any other remedy.

Do not accept Capsicum, Strengthening or Belladonna plasters in place of Benson's, as they possess none of its curative power. Insist on having the genuine.

The people of every civilized land have testified for years to the superlative merit of Benson's Plasters; and 5,000 physicians and druggists of this country have declared them worthy of public confidence.

In official comparisons with others, Benson's Plasters have been honored with fifty-five highest awards.

For sale by all druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on the receipt of 25c. each.

Accept no imitation or substitute.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. Is you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.
