Mr. James Cheston

Dear Sir

I shall take it particularly kind of you if you'll procure me one hundred clean sound flooring planks of the common thickness as free from knotts & sap as can be, full twenty feet long.

By this conveyance your Bro. will write you very fully of both his & my intentions, that we jointly concerned in the Randolph or some other ship so as to sail with the Convicts very early ~~this~~ next month, by which ships return I beg you wont fail sending me the above planks, in doing which you will greatly Oblige

Dear Sir

Your most Obt Servt
