1769 December James Cheston Looking Glasses

SIDE ONE

all ye Debts for ye Servts Convicts by ye Isabella both on our Joint Acct, or else let the Bond be put in Suit, they certainly neglect our Affairs & all ye Money for ye Serv.ts by ye Ds. & ye Boys at least would have been collected, pray see into this matter, in what had they acted by us as they ought to have done they wou.d have found it their Interest, our Business is a good one both to Them & Us & I only want to put it on a respectable footing, which had proper Remittances been made would have been ye case, I know it is with our utmost attention & if properly man:aged will in a few yrs make us very genteel fortunes, Sales of Convicts run up amazingly in a little time, if You will but undertake our Business with Spencer assistance I know it will answer our most sanguine ex:pectations, you may rest assurd of our diligence on this side ye water. & I shall allways think ye taking Mr. Randolph into partnership was ye wisest step We could have taken
