1770 Feb. 7 William Stevenson to [James Ogilvie] therefore highly absolutely necessary You should expect yrself, as I have so repeatedly advis'd you that our very credit is at stake, I can therefore add no more on this head ~~tillthe~~ let what will happen I shall rest satisfy'd that I have done my utmost & that it will proceed from no neglect of mine.

Our eldest little Girl died about a fortnight ago Mrs Stevenson has since been ill, but is recover'd, Fanny & Dan are well They all join in Love to you & I remain D.r Jemmy

Your sincerely Affec: Brother Wm Stevenson

P: S: We have wrote you fully in our Jt. L.r as to y.r Ista. as load that We intend Wheat for y.r Restoration, if We purchase another Vessel We think of Lumber for her load

Mr James Ogilvie
