WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1901.

Wednesday was "Maryland Day" at the Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo. Gov. Smith, with his staff; Ex-Mayor Latrobe, of Baltimore, and other prominent Marylanders were in attendance. Mr. Latrobe made a short and characteristic speech and the Governor made a long one, part of which was in doubtful taste, as it discussed a question of a more or less partisan political character, the retention of the Philippines.

Somehow the Friedenwald dinner, which was designed to start an overwhelming Gorman boom, has fallen rather flat. It committed the party leaders to a Gorman campaign, to be sure, but they were in accord on that subject at any rate. Its principal effect, therefore, was to bring them out into the open and make them show their hands, to the great disgust of hundreds of Democrats who will have none of Gorman and Gormanism, but who might have been cajoled into supporting the party if it had not been so publicly announced that the Ex-Senator must be the principal beneficiary of a Democratic victory. Mr. Friedenwald did the Republican party a great favor by making it clear to everybody that Mr. Gorman is the paramount issue of the campaign.

In the Republican primaries in Baltimore, on Monday, the Stone-Mason faction carried the Second and Third Legislative districts, and the Airy faction the First. District conventions were held on Wednesday evening. In the First district convention a bitter contest took place, but the Airy faction was triumphant and nominated the following candidates for the House of Delegates: Louis E. Melis, Lindsay Bawsel, Dr. W. Clyde Burnes, Dr. Wm. F. Pentz, George W. Baumgartner, Harry E. Johnson. Delegates to the State convention and new members of the State Central Committee were elected in all the districts. The City Convention met on Thursday evening and nominated Robert Ogle for clerk of the Superior Court, Thomas A. Robinson for clerk of Circuit Court No. 2, Samuel G. Davis for sheriff and Frank H. Sloan for city surveyor. Mr. Stephen R. Mason, who joined forces with Collector Stone to down his old friends, the Malsterites, was given the cold shoulder by his new allies.

The Annapolis Election and Other Matters.

The municipal election in Annapolis, the State Capital, on Monday, may not have been a surprise to the Democrats, but it was certainly a severe blow, coming after their overwhelming defeat in Baltimore in May, inasmuch as Mr. Gorman's extra session of the Legislature was intended to prevent just such results and to make sure of a Democratic victory in November. The followers of the party boss comfort themselves in view of these defeats by assuming that they were due to factional dissensions, and would have occurred if there had been no extra session and no law to prevent a free exercise of suffrage by the legally qualified voters of the State; but if it be true; as it probably is, as reported from Democratic sources, that most of the more than 100 defective ballots cast at the Annapolis election were voted by Democrats, a reason for Democratic defeat, other than a family quarrel, is apparent. Illiterate white men are rarely willing to admit their incapacity and to seek instruction in the method of voting, a fact which makes it probable that the Democrats lost a good many votes of this sort at the Annapolis election and will suffer considerable loss from the same cause, all over the State, at the November election. Naturally, too, voters disfranchised, in the manner provided by the new election law, are disposed to resent such treatment and to exert their influence to induce their friends to punish the party which has thus humiliated them.

There are a good many colored men in Annapolis, and it is supposed that most of them vote the Republican ticket. Again, if this be true, it was fairly well demonstrated by the election on Monday that they can be so instructed as to enable them to cast their ballots as they desire and, hence, that they will not, as a rule, be disfranchised by the new law, as its framers expected and desired they would be.

Apparently these are logical conclusions, and, if correct, the Republicans have an excellent prospect of electing a handsome majority in the next House of Delegates, and of gaining many of the local offices in the counties of the State, as well as a Republican Comptroller of the Treasury and a Republican Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

In view of this prospect, it behooves the Republicans in every quarter of the State to nominate their best men for all the places to be filled. No position should be imperiled by nominating a candidate of doubtful standing or qualifications. Like all parties which have ever existed the Republican party has its internal dissensions and factions. So much is at stake, however, in the approaching election, that these should be subordinated to the general welfare of the party, whose success nationally has brought to the country at large a period of prosperity unexampled in all its previous history.

At the municipal election in Annapolis, on Monday last, the Republicans were successful, for the first time in eighteen years, in electing their candidates for mayor and four out of six aldermen. Charles A. Dubois, Republican, was elected mayor by a majority of 19 votes, and Charles B. Henkle, Wm. L. Marcy, Reps., aldermen, in the First Ward; Dr. Frank A. Thompson, Wm. F. Williams, Dems., in the Second Ward; James D. Feldmeyer, Thomas A. Thompson, Reps., in the Third Ward. For city counselor, W. Hallam Claude, Rep., defeated James W. Owens, Dem., by a majority of 28 votes. The Republicans are, of course, jubilant over their victory.

Services at Emory Grove campground will begin on Thursday, August 8, and will be continued until August 22. The camp will be under the supervision of the presiding elders of the Baltimore, East Baltimore and West Baltimore districts of the Baltimore Annual Conference and a successful season is anticipated. The United Brethren Church will hold a campmeeting at Penn Grove, three miles from Hanover, Pa., on the B. & H. Branch of the Western Maryland Railroad, beginning the 25th inst. The camp of the M. E. Church South, Baltimore Conference, will be held at Wesley Grove, near Dorsey's Station on the Washington Branch, B. and O. R. R., beginning 26th inst.

Two Views of the Subject.

The Gorman Trust, starting out with the expenditure of $150,00 or more of the people's money to enact an election law maliciously framed to disfranchise over 40,000 white and colored voters in this State, is not bringing forth results such as were anticipated by its projectors. Baltimore City and Annapolis have set their seal of condemnation upon this nefarious attempt to make a clean Democratic sweep, through and by a law specially designed to deprive thousands of their votes. The hue and cry of Gorman's henchmen, whereby the Governor was forced to call an extra session of the Legislature, was made for the sole purpose of passing such a complicated election law as, in their opinion, would disfranchise voters enough to enable them to carry the State and thus possess themselves of all the offices within the gift of the people. It looks now as if they had over-reached themselves and that they would be hoisted by their own petard, when the people come to pass judgment upon them this fall.

There is another view of present political conditions in this county which Republicans, and some interested Democrats, can consider and ponder over. It is well known that there are twelve or fifteen active Democrats, in this county, who to-day are holding good paying offices under a Republican administration; who on election day are in evidence at the polls, doing their level best to down their political opponents, and aiding to the extent of their influence in securing a Democratic triumph. It is also a noteworthy fact, that there are more Democrats than there are Republicans holding federal offices from this county under a Republican administration. Hitherto but little attention has been given to this condition of things, but now, since a bold attempt, based upon the disfranchisement of many voters, will be made to carry this state, Republicans will not be so indifferent to the activities of these men, and it may happen that pressure enough will be brought to bear to dispense with their services and appoint Republicans, in their stead. Many Republicans, who have stood by the party all the while, ask why our so-called leaders acquiesce in the retention of these men? why intelligent, capable men of our own party may not be appointed to fill the places within the gift of a Republican administration? The time is coming when the party will demand and expect of all its members active and efficient work to insure its triumph in the fall campaign. Would it not be an incentive to greater activity, if the rank and file of the party were made to feel that, in the event of success, the favors the party has to bestow would be given to them rather than to their Democratic opponents?

Dr. R. M. Price, State Fire Marshal, and Deputy Charles V. Wantz were at the House of Refuge Tuesday and Wednesday, investigating the cause of the fire which occurred at that institution June 30th. After consultation with President Joshua Levering, and Superintendent Hendrix, it was decided, owing to the youthfulness of the offenders, to proceed no further and to leave the matter in the hands of the officers of the institution.

The storm of Sunday night washed the roads in some places in Baltimore county, and blew down a great deal of corn. In some instances whole fields were almost leveled. Much of it, however, will become erect again. Much of the wheat crop had been cut, but had not been hauled to the barns. This was wet, but was not damaged to any great extent.

Rev. Dr. Luther Kuhlman, for the past fourteen years pastor of the Lutheran Church of Frederick, has been elected general secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church in the United States.

Joseph Wilson, farmer for Mrs. Peter Cockey, of Cockeysville, Baltimore county, reports raising 60 bushels of barley to the acre on seven acres. J. Griffith Gent, of Shawan, raised 50 bushels to the acre.

President and Mrs. McKinley are at their home in Canton, where they will remain, it is said, about two months. Mrs. McKinley's health is improving.

Baseball.

Quite an interesting game of baseball was played by the Porters and Gist teams, on the grounds of the former, on the afternoon of the 29th ult., and resulted in a victory for the Porters boys by a score of 14 to 6. This having been the first game for the Porters team, and having been pitted against a team of experienced players, they naturally feel very jubilant over the result. Among the chief features of the game were the all around playing and magnificent stops by E. E. Barnes, who played short for the Porters boys, and the catching of difficult fly balls in the center field by Harry Hughes. The same teams will cross bats again on the grounds of the Gist boys, near Gist, on the 20th inst. The game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock, P. M.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by the Shaw Drug Company.

Some Mid-Summer Value Incentives.

The average merchant is content to rest upon his oars between seasons, idly drifting along with the tide until trade winds blow with stronger force. Not so here. We strive to constantly keep this the busiest store in Westminster. In season and out, you can always count upon finding this store the center of bargain interests. In mid-summer, when the buying appetite must needs be whetted with bargains—we supply them—bigger and better than any other store, possibly. Thus we find your appreciation and patronage constantly increasing, with a force that is making our establishment the most popular in the city. We are winning your trade by deserving it.
