Hoe'n 'taters ain't no fun,
Grubbin' with this dull ole hoe,
Mornin' light to when th' sun
Slinks down out of sight s' slow.

S'blame slow thet yer back gits tired,
Stoopin' down 't pull th' weeds;
Wishin' 'taters all was fired,
So they'd be no sprouts ner seeds.

Summer boarder up frum town

Never'll swaller sech stuff down,

Sleepin', sleepin', sleepin' sound,
Mornin,' noon, an' nights,
Harkin' to th' meller sound
O' trees an' stream's delights.

Thet's what he says. Well, maybe,
Maybe he does. I'd fairly 'low
He'd sing another tune to me,

Still, sometimes, when 'taint s' hot,

When I'm milkin' down 't th' lot,
Things don't seem so out o' gear.

Soft wee voices all around,
O' th' chirpin' critters' tunes,
Makes me think thet man frum town
Knows some things 'sides paintin' moons.

Stats Census Makes Changes.

From the Baltimore American.

About the first thing Governor John Walter Smith will do when he returns from Buffalo will be to issue his proclamation, in accordance with the state Constitution, designating the counties which, according to the state census, are entitled to increased representation in the House of Delegates. The State Census Act requires that "full and complete tabulated returns be delivered to the Governor on or before the 20th day of July, 1901." Upon the receipt of these returns, which have been practically completed, the Governor will be in position to announce the counties entitled to extra delegates.

The state census figures are final, and for official purposes, in this state, at least, the federal census counts for naught, unless the next legislature be Republican and should take some step looking to the use of the federal returns and determining the boundaries of the congressional districts.

The counties which will be entitled to receive an extra delegate each will be:

Prince Georges.
Dorchester.
Montgomery.
Washington.

The membership of the next House will, therefore, be 95 instead of 97, which was the figure set forth by the original census returns from the several counties.

Each of the counties receiving an extra delegate will also be entitled to additional representation on the state central committees of the two parties and to additional membership of all state, congressional and judicial conventions.

The increase in the membership of the House for the decade between 1870 and 1880 was seven members. Then the counties gaining one member each were: Anne Arundel, Charles, Harford, Queen Annes, Talbot, Wicomico and Worcester.

In 1870 the total membership was 82, but in 1872 Garrett came in, making the total 84, and it was increased by the census of 1880 to 91. This total was not changed by the census of 1890, by which Allegany gained a member and Charles county lost one. For 20 years, therefore, the membership of the house stood steadily at 91.

POLITICAL SHAKING-UP.

The reapportionment will likely cause a political shaking up in the First and Sixth congressional districts. Representation of the counties in district conventions is the same as in the General Assembly, and heretofore two counties—Allegany and Frederick—have had exactly half the votes in convention, their six votes each, when combined, balancing the five of Washington, four of Montgomery and three of Garrett. Divisions in conventions of both parties have usually been on these lines, Allegany and Frederick combining against Washington, Montgomery and Garrett, until by some means one side could capture votes from the other and break the deadlock. This was the division the last time there was a contest of any importance in the Sixth district, when a Republican congressional convention, after fruitless balloting for three days at Frederick, adjourned to meet a week later at Oakland. Allegany came into the convention solid for Col. George A. Pearre. Frederick had Hon. Milton G. Urner as its candidate, but was ready to vote for Colonel Pearre at the proper moment. Washington presented the name of Judge Edward Stake, but before the adjournment at Frederick changed to Hon. Ashley M. Gould, of Montgomery county, who was the real choice of the delegates of Washington county. Montgomery was solid for Gould, and Garrett, tired of the part she had always played of helping out one or another of the stronger counties, stood firm for Dr. R. A. Ravenscroft, the county's State Senator. On this occasion the Frederick county leaders were outwitted. Before the convention met at Oakland the managers of Mr. Gould's candidacy, seeing no chance of nominating their man, decided to turn to Colonel Pearre, and did so before the Frederick county delegation knew what was up.

NEW COMBINATIONS.

Under the reappointment Washington and Montgomery counties will each have one additional vote in the convention. This will give Washington, Montgomery and Garrett counties 14 out of a total af 26 votes, so that in the line-up of the old combinations Allegany and Frederick counties would be out in the cold. New combinations among the politicians of the district are, therefore, expected.

Over on the Eastern Shore the power of the counties below the Choptank River will be augmented instead of decreased. Heretofore the natural combination there has been Somerset, Worcester, Wicomico and Dorchester, all of which comprise one judicial circuit. They went into congressional conventions with 16 votes—4 each. Against them were only 15 votes of the counties above the Choptank, namely, four from Talbot, four from Queen Annes, three from Caroline and three from Kent. When the federal census gave Kent an extra representative it placed the counties above the Choptank on the same plane with counties below. The state census, however, has upset all calculations. The counties below the Choptank will have a total of 17 votes, while the counties above will have their old number 15. All these calculations will, however, be upset if, as is proposed, Cecil county is transferred to the First district. Then the counties north of the Choptank, which, like those south of the Choptank, comprise one judicial circuit, will have 19 votes, against 17 votes south of the Choptank.

By the new apportionment Maryland neither gains nor loses in her representation at Washington. If there had not been a considerable growth in her population during the past decade, however, there might be a different story to tell. The basis of representation as fixed by the new bill is 194,182 of population. The task which confronts the next legislature will be the division of the state into six districts, each containing 194,182, or approximately as near these figures as is possible. There can be no gerrymandering as in the years gone by. The bill expressly provides that the new districts shall be "compact and contiguous."

After providing the six congressmen for Maryland upon the new law's basis, there will be left 13,608 persons, which figure represents about half of the average population of a Baltimore city ward.

NECESSARY CHANGES.

In order to bring the Eastern Shore district up to the necessary number of population, Cecil county's 24,450 inhabitants will have to be annexed to that district. According to the state census the counties which now embrace the First district have a total population of 171,070, or over 20,000 less than the law calls for. The addition of Cecil's population will make the total of the district 195,520, or less than 1,500 over the required quota.

The Second district, as its boundaries now stand, has the largest population of any district in the state, the total figures being 269,627, about 75,000 more than the law calls for. With Cecil transferred to the Eastern Shore the district would still be overpopulated, the total being about 245,000 or 50,000 more than is necessary to secure a representative. It will be necessary, therefore, for the district to give up some of its population in order to even things up. Carroll county's 33,650 would come about as near as is possible to filling the bill and please the Baltimore county Democrats, but there is no district to which Carroll can be added except the Sixth, which does not need any help in the population line, or the Fifth, which would like to have it; but the people of the county would probably object. If the district surrenders any one ward in Baltimore city it would not surrender enough, and if it gave up two wards it would be giving up too much. This proposition for the district has been made:

Harford county	28,300
Baltimore county, including districts now in Fifth district	88,000
Ninth ward	20,622
Tenth ward	21,128
Eleventh ward	21,369
Twelfth ward	22,908
	200,227

All of the Baltimore city wards in this arrangement are contiguous, and from a Democratic standpoint such a division would prove acceptable.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

The presence of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards and of Carroll county in the Fifth district will be necessary to give that district the required quota of population. Without Carroll and the two city wards the population of the Fifth district is as follows:

Anne Arundel	34,800
Calvert	9,975
Charles	16,602
Howard	16,300
Prince Georges	28,300
St. Marys	16,890
Total	122,857

This total makes the district about 72,000 short of its quota. With Carroll county and the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards added the total population of the district will be 196,917.

In 1888 an effort was made to redistrict the state by transferring Carroll county to the Sixth district and Montgomery to the fifth, but the plan failed through the efforts of Dr. Frank T. Shaw, then a member of Congress from the Second district. If Carroll and Cecil counties are removed from the Second district, Baltimore and the Baltimore city wards will run the congressional politics of the district. Harford county will not be "in it."

The total population of the Sixth district as now laid out is 195,975, or more than one thousand more than required by law. It is apparent that no changes are necessary in this district.

The Third and Fourth districts will lie wholly within the city.

[NOTE.—The American's estimate of the relative strength of the counties below and above the Choptank, on the Eastern Shore is incorrect. Talbot, Queen Annes, Caroline and Kent counties have had but 14 votes in State and Congressional conventions, instead of 15, as the American states. The number will remain unchanged under the State census, while the vote of Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester, will, as the American says, be increased to 17. If Kent had been increased by one vote, as would have been the case under the Federal census, the vote of the upper four counties would still have been only 15, instead of 16, as estimated by the American, and one less than the lower four counties if they had not been increased at all. Adding Cecil to the upper tier of counties would, therefore, give them only 18 votes, instead of 19, as the American has it.—ED. SENTINEL.]

Proclamation.

WHEREAS, at the January Session in the year nineteen hundred of the General Assembly of Maryland, bills were passed proposing amendments to the Constitution of the State:

First.—By amending section 9 of Article 5, of the Constitution of the State.

Second.—By amending section 4 of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State.

Third.—By amending section 2 of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State, which said bills and amendments are in words following, to wit:

CHAPTER 185.

AN ACT to amend section nine, of Article 5, of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring,) That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Article 5, of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, herein and as by law provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of section nine of said Article.

SECTION 9. The State's Attorney shall perform such duties and receive such fees and commissions or salary not exceeding three thousand dollars, as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law; and if any State's Attorney shall receive any other fee or reward than such as is or may be allowed by law, he shall, on conviction thereof, be removed from office; provided that the State's Attorney for Baltimore city shall receive an annual salary of forty-five hundred dollars, and shall have power to appoint one deputy, at an annual salary not exceeding three thousand dollars, and such other assistants at such annual salaries not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars each, as the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City may authorize and approve; all of said salaries to be paid out of the fees of the said State's Attorney's office, as has heretofore been practiced.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State, shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly, to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the direction contained in Article 14, of the Constitution; and at said election the vote on said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" or "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as the voter shall elect, and immediately after said election one return shall be made to the Governor of the vote on said proposed amendment, as directed by the said Fourteenth Article of the Constitution.

Approved April 5, 1900.

CHAPTER 432.

AN ACT to amend section four, of Article 3, of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of the two Houses concurring,) That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and instead of section four of Article 3, of said Constitution.

SECTION 4. As soon as may be after the taking and publishing of the National Census of 1900, or after the enumeration of the population of this State, under the authority thereof, there shall be an apportionment of representation in the House of Delegates, to be made on the following basis, to wit: Each of the several counties of the State, having a population of eighteen thousand souls or less, shall be entitled to two delegates; and every county having a population of over eighteen thousand and less than twenty-eight thousand souls, shall be entitled to three delegates; and every county having a population of twenty-eight thousand and less than forty thousand souls, shall be entitled to four delegates; and every county having a population of forty thousand and less than fifty-five thousand souls, shall be entitled to five delegates; and every county having a population of fifty-five thousand souls and upwards, shall be entitled to six delegates and no more; and each of the four legislative districts of the City of Baltimore shall be entitled to the number of delegates to which the largest county shall or may be entitled under the aforegoing apportionment, and the General Assembly shall have the power to provide by law, from time to time, for altering and changing the boundaries of the existing legislative districts of the City of Baltimore, so as to make them as near as may be of equal population; but said district shall always consist of contiguous territory.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, shall, at the next election for members of the General Assembly of this State, to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, nineteen hundred and one, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14, of the Constitution of this State; and at the said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment," or "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as the voter shall elect, and immediately after the said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by the said Article 14, of the Constitution.

Approved April 7, 1900.

CHAPTER 469.

AN ACT to amend section two of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of the two Houses concurring,) That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of section two of Article 3 of said Constitution.

2. The City of Baltimore shall be divided into four legislative districts as near as may be of equal population and of contiguous territory, and each of said legislative districts of Baltimore City, as they may from time to time be laid out, in accordance with the provisions hereof, and each county in the State, shall be entitled to one Senator, who shall be elected by the qualified voters of the said legislative districts of Baltimore City, and of the counties of the State, respectively, and shall serve for four years from the date of his election, subject to the classification of Senators hereafter provided for.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall at the next election for members of the General Assembly of this State, to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, nineteen hundred and one, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State; and at the said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words, "For the Constitutional Amendment," or "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as the voter shall elect, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by the said Fourteenth Article of the Constitution.

Approved April 7, 1900.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN WALTER SMITH, Governor of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the provisions of section one of Article fourteen of the Constitution of the State, do hereby order and direct that a copy of said bills proposing said Constitutional Amendments be published in at least two newspapers in each county where so many may be published, and where not more than one may be published, then in that newspaper, and in three newspapers in the City of Baltimore, one of which shall be in the German language, once a week for at least three months preceding the next ensuing general election (which said general election will be held on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, nineteen hundred and one), at which the said proposed amendments shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection, so that each amendment shall be voted on separately.
