Mixed in its Logic.

Democratic Advocate, July 20th.

The majority of the working men of the country were Democrats. The Whigs, now mostly the Republican party, designated us as the "Dirty-shirt party." We were so called because we worked. In these days a majority of mechanics and laborers vote either under coercion or becausd they believe protection protects them. If they would stop a few minutes and think they would conclude to the contrary, but labor, it seems, does not think until after election and then forgets again before another November occurs.

If the Republican party is mostly made up of Whigs, how can it also be composed of a majority of those who were once Democrats? Surely this is queer logic. And not less so, also, is the statement that mechanics and laborers, "if they would stop a few moments and think," would conclude that protection does not protect them. Labor has rarely been in a worse condition than it was under the Gorman-Wilson law, enacted to substitute partial free trade for protection, and has rarely been more prosperous than it is now under the Dingley law, which is protective and does protect them. The logic of fact is vastly better than the mixed logic of the Advocate in these matters.

The Sampson-Schley Controversy.

The Sampson-Schley controversy has broken out again with great acrimony, the cause being the discovery that Edgar Stanton Maclay, in the third volume of his naval history, which is a text book at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, has applied some most opprobrious and vulgar epithets to Admiral Schley, whom he stigmatized as a "coward," a "cur," a "catiff" and some other ugly sounding names. Secretary Long, who designated this third volume of the history as a Naval Academy text book, the other two volumes having been previously so used, denies having had any knowledge that the scurrilous and abusive language referred to was employed in the work and has rescinded the order making that volume a text book to be studied by the cadets at Annapolis. Up to this point in the controversy, Admiral Schley has conducted himself in a dignified and very becoming manner, having apparently been entirely willing to leave the people to estimate the value of his part in the discovery and destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago, and to leave the question of the measure of honor due him to calm and impartial public judgment.

Maclay's vile attack upon him, which seemingly had the sanction of the Navy Department, places the subject, however, upon a very different plane. It is claimed by Admiral Schley's friends that a conspiracy exists among naval men the purpose of which is to destroy his reputation. This is a grave charge to bring against the other side and, if true, is calculated to cover the Navy, of which Americans have been so justly proud, with disgrace and dishonor. It is hard to believe that the American Navy contains any number of men devoid of the first instincts of gentlemen, as such officers would be if they were to conspire together to destroy the reputation of a fellow-officer through jealousy, or other cause.

The talk of cowardice against Admiral Schley is still more absurd. Whether he acted the part of a hero in the Santiago campaign, or not, he is no coward, and the tongue that would call him so should be blistered by the lie.

But the American people want the true history of their navy and the time has come when a rigid official inquiry, into all the circumstances of the search for and the destruction of Cervera's fleet, should be made by a competent and unprejudiced tribunal. Admiral Schley may owe it to himself to demand a court of inquiry into his conduct in the matter. That is a question of naval etiquette upon which we have not sufficient knowledge to base an opinion. But if it be not demanded of him by existing conditions, the whole subject should be taken up by Department or Congressional authority, and then "let justice be done though the heavens fall," and some naval idols be smashed into smithereens. The people do not want straw heroes anyhow.

Congressman Pearre, of the Sixth District of Maryland, will, it is said, take the initiative in inaugurating such an inquiry and it is fitting that he should do so, as Admiral Schley is a native of his bailiwick and the hounding of this officer by such men as Maclay demands that he shall be protected, by the representative of his district, against injustice.

[Since the above article was in type, Admiral Schley has requested Secretary Long to take such action in relation to the book that will be deemed best for a thorough clearing up of the matter in controversy, and the secretary has granted the request. A Court of inquiry, composed of fair-minded and capable naval officers, will sift the whole affair to the bottom. Admiral Dewey will be the president of the court, and retired Rear Admirals Benham and Kimberly will be the other members of it. Commander John E. Pillsbury will be judge advocate, and John R. Dos Passos, of New York, will be counsel for Admiral Schley. The court will not sit till September.]

Kansas City, Mo., has had a maximum temperature of 90° and upwards for forty days. The heat in Missouri, Kansas and other Western States has been frightful during the past week. At St. Louis, Mo., and Springfield, Ills., the maximum temperature reached 108°, and at some other points the mercury rose to 110° and 112°. The corn crop of Kansas is ruined by heat and drought and the prospect that high prices for this grain will rule is very strong.

Lightning struck the house of Mr. Hamilton Pearre, of Unionville, on Wednesday evening and the current scorched the arm and face of his daughter. Horses in a field near the house, and a cow which some one was milking in the stable were knocked down by the bolt. The milker was not injured. During the same storm lightning also struck the house of Mr. Albaugh, near Unionville.

It's severest tests have been on hopeless victims of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhage, Pleurisy and Bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Hay Fever, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough it is the quickest, surest cure in the world. A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy and perfect health been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by the Shaw Drug Company.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, Md., and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75cts. During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. Sold by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

The Linwood Union Sunday School will hold their annual picnic in the grove at Winter's Church, on Saturday, September 7th. A band of music will be in attendance.
