The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company has had a gang of twenty men at work in this city, during the past week, putting up a cable from the Exchange to Bond street. Hicks, in his forecast for August, said, among other things, that "the temperature will rise very high in many places about the time of new Moon, on the 14th," and that "we know of no reason why we should expect a decided change from very dry weather generally in August." On the 14th there were few places in the country where the temperature rose to 90°. The weather, however, was oppressively warm and has so continued, because the atmosphere has been heavily charged with moisture and frequent rains have occurred. We have rarely had so wet an August.

The rain which caused an almost unprecedented rise in the Gunpowder, in the northeastern section of this county, as told by our Miller's correspondent, was much heavier in Baltimore, Harford and Cecil counties, and in York county, Pa. Great damage was done, especially in York and Baltimore counties, and details would more than fill a column. The Northern Central Railroad suffered very considerably and the public roads were torn to pieces. It is feared that a 15-year-old son of Mr. Vogt, of Middletown, Baltimore county, was drowned, as he was missing up to Wednesday. Many bridges were destroyed and farm lands badly washed. Houses were inundated and some minor buildings swept away.

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Yingling was celebrated Saturday evening at their home, 2138 Walbrook avenue, Baltimore. About 50 guests were present, including the three children and 15 grandchildren of the couple. Music and refreshments helped to make the evening pleasent. Many handsome gold and silver presents were received. The parlor was decorated with handsome flowers. Mr. Yingling was born in 1827 and his wife in 1836, both at Union Mills, this county. For many years Mr. Yingling was a carpenter, but recently he retired. He and his wife went to Baltimore in 1873. The Commission to establish the movements of the Army of the Potomac in the Gettysburg campaign is now erecting tablets at a number of points in this county to mark the movements on the 2th of June, 1863, and of several cavalry organizations on July 3rd. Tablets giving an itinerary of these movements were erected on Thursday in the grounds in front of the court house in this city. These tablets are substantial but not very ornamental. They are of iron or steel and are fixed at an angle, on posts of the same material, firmly attached to stone sunk to a considerable depth in the ground. They measure 3½ feet in width and 3 feet from top to bottom. The itinerary, which is inscribed on their surface in raised white letters, was published in full in the SENTINEL of July 20, and need not be repeated here.

Mr. Harry H. Hering, son of Mr. Frank L. Hering, near Finksburg, died at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Wm. Bradley Hering, Carroll street, this city, at 11.30 on Saturday last, of tuberculosis, in his 26th year. Mr. Hering was, until a few months ago, a member of the firm of Hering Bro's., Springfield Mills, near Sykesville, from which he then withdrew on account of failing health, having contracted the fatal disease, consumption, something over a year ago. He was married in September, 1900, to Miss Margie G. Hering, daughter of his cousin, who survives him. In June he went to Mountain Lake Park, accompanied by his wife, hoping his health, which had been gradually failing, would be benefited by the change and the pure air of that place. But the hope was vain and Mr. Hering was brought to the home of his father-in-law, by his father and uncle, Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, on Friday afternoon of last week, his death ensuing, as stated, on the following day. Sympathy for his bereaved young wife, and his relatives is widespread. His funeral took place at Sandy Mount M. P. Church, on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Nicholas W. Steele, of Freedom district, who was under arrest in Baltimore, for a day, charged with causing the death of a man named Theodore Evans, was entirely exonerated by the coroner's jury which investigated the case. The trouble occurred one day last week at what is known as the old ice plant, on the Frederick road, near Gwynn's Falls, Baltimore, which is being converted into a woolen or cotton mill under Mr. Steele's superintendence, and was caused by a dispute about the sale of some old iron. Evans became very abusive and Mr. Steele slapped his face. An eye witness of the occurrence testified that Evans stepped back and fell, but got upon his feet again and started toward Mr. Steele, when he slipped and fell a second time and fractured his leg. He was taken to his home, No. 1945 Ramsey street, Baltimore, and afterwards to the Maryland University Hospital, where he died on Sunday. He declared that Mr. Steele had knocked him down and that the fall had broken his leg. The coroner's jury, after a careful investigation, however, rendered the following verdict: "We find that Theodore Evans died from a shock, superinduced by alcoholism, following a fractured leg and injuries sustained in an altercation between the said Evans and Nicholas W. Steele, and we further exonerate the said Steele from all blame."

Death of Mr. Job Hibberd.

Mr. Job Hibberd, one of the worthiest citizens of this county, died at his home near New Windsor, on Thursday morning, in his eighty-fourth year. Mr. Hibberd was born near New Windsor, and spent his long life in that neighborhood. In his early manhood he engaged in farming, but afterwards became associated with his brother, the late Joseph Hibberd, in carrying on a woolen mill. In 1865 he became one of the incorporators and a director of the First National Bank of New Windsor and continued in the directory continuously until his death. When the bank's first president, the late Thos. F. Shepherd, died, some years ago, Mr. Hibberd was chosen his successor and held the office until the end of his life. He was a gentleman of high character, generous and kindly nature and unflinching integrity. No man in this county has ever been held in higher esteem than he, and none ever better deserved the respect and good will of his fellow-citizens. Mr. Hibberd was a member of the Society of Friends and an ardent Republican. He retired from active life some years ago and spent his declining days at his beautiful home, "Prestwould," near New Windsor. He leaves one son, Mr. Charles J. Hibberd. He was twice married and his second wife, who was Miss Harriet Coale, survives him. His funeral will take place from his late residence at 1.30 o'clock, this afternoon; interment at Friends' Cemetery, near Union Bridge.

Delighting the Children.

Mr. Chas. C. Gorsuch's children's watermelon party, at his handsome residence on West Main street, this city, on Monday evening, was amply successful. Fifty of the largest sized melons, many of them fifty-pounders, were consumed by the youngsters, of whom about four hundred were present. It was a very bright and happy scene. The lawn in front of the residence was brilliant and sparkling with varicolored lamps, and the grounds in the rear, where three long tables bore the luscious feast, were lighted and decorated with chinese or japanese lanterns of fanciful shapes. The house was brilliantly illuminated with electric lights. The music of an excellent orchestra, led by Dr. Brown, of New Windsor, enhanced the enjoyment. The adults, of whom a number was present, appeared quite as hilarious and joyful as their juniors. Mr. Gorsuch had the pleasure of giving to all concerned a very happy evening.

The happiest people in this city, on Wednesday evening, were the colored children of the town, to whom Mr. Gorsuch also extended his generosity, by giving them a watermelon party, on the grounds of the schoolhouse and church on Union street. The decorations were similar to those at Monday night's party, including flags galore. About two hundred partook of the feast, a number of whom were past the years of childhood. Watermelons of large size and sufficient in number were furnished to satisfy all appetites.

A half hour was required to release young Boose's hand from the clutches of the machine, and it is said that he stood that painful ordeal most bravely, uttering not a single cry of pain or distress.

The 12 o'clock train was delayed four hours until the hands carried the ties off the track and shoveled the mud and stones off the crossings. While John Frank, Jr., was returning from Alesia with a horse and buggy the water flowed so strongly that it washed the horse and buggy into a fence corner and almost drowned the boy. A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature,—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from W. Scott Zepp, druggist, Westminster. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Other addresses will be delivered by pastors of the county. A number of church choirs are expected to render some choice anthems. The public is most cordially invited to come and enjoy the day with their friends of the Reformed church.

The Deer Park Sunday School will hold their picnic on Saturday, August 24th. A special program is being arranged. A band of music will be in attendance. All cordially invited.

A MINISTER'S GOOD WORK.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured." For sale by W. Scott Zepp, druggist, Westminster.

ASTOUNDED THE EDITOR.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at Shaw Drug Co.

Calvary Lutheran Sunday School of Woodbine, will hold its annual picnic in A. Owings' grove, near Woodbine, Saturday afternoon and night, 17th inst. "My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by W. Scott Zepp, druggist, Westminster.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Resolved, As members of the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Society of Finksburg M. P. Church, that we hereby express our deep regret that the rude hand of death has taken from our ranks our dear brother, and co-laborer, Harry H. Hering. We are filled with sorrow that one so young in years, so useful and zealous in all kinds of church work, living such an exemplary christian life, should be removed from the scene of his earthly labors in the bloom of a very promising life.

We extend our sincere sympathies to the parents of our brother, and to his young widow, and pray that God's blessing, and all-sufficient comfort, may be fully extended to them in their hour of deep affliction.
