Failure of the grain and other crops in many provinces of Russia will, it is said, be followed by the worst famine ever known in that country. The Russian Government is already buying and storing grain in order to be prepared to relieve, as much as possible, the distress and suffering consequent upon this condition.

Judge Reifsnider's Nomination.

The nomination of Hon. Chas. T. Reifsnider for Associate Judge of the Fifth judicial circuit, by the Republican convention of the circuit, on Tuesday last, was the logical outcome of his appointment to the bench by Governor Lowndes. It is well known to Judge Reifsnider's close friends that he accepted that appointment very reluctantly and at a considerable sacrifice of his financial interests, his practice having been more lucrative than the judgeship. He finally yielded his inclination to continue in the active practice of the legal profession, and accepted the trust so flatteringly tendered, and has fully met the public expectation in the discharge of his official duties.

It was fitting, therefore, that the Republicans of the circuit should turn to him as their choice of a candidate, and they did so with marked unanimity. It is clearly realized that his two-years' experience on the bench has greatly added to his fitness for the important duties of that high station. In that experience he has been confronted with some difficult and abstruse legal questions which he has solved with ability and clearness of judgment, and in which he has been fully sustained by his associates on the bench.

The delegates to the convention from other sections of the circuit spoke highly of the esteem in which he is held by the members of the bar and laity of those sections, to whom he was comparatively unknown before his elevation to the bench. They have come to know him as an industrious, conscientious, dignified and able jurist, and his nomination has gratified not only the Republicans of all the counties of the circuit, but also many of the Democrats.

In his own county of Carroll, of which he is a "native and to the manor born," it is almost superfluous to pen a word in his praise. His clients have found him faithful to their interests, zealous in the discharge of his duties as counsel and true to the demands of his profession. His large legal practice, maintained throughout a period of more than the third of a century, fully exemplifies the estimate which has been placed upon his ability as a lawyue by the people of his native county.

He has not been partisan on the bench, nor should he have been. No man is fit for that station who subordinates it to political prejudice,or other extraneous influences. He has administered justice without partiality, and, as he has been tried and not found wanting in the important office for which he is the nominee, the people of the circuit will do well to renew his tenure, by their ballots, in November.

On the Subject of Divorce.

Henry M. Flagler, one of the Standard Oil magnates, and Miss Mary Lily Kenan were married at Kenansville, N. C., on Saturday last. Mr. Flagler is 72 years old, just twice the age of his bride. He has a recently divorced wife in an insane asylum. We believe there is only one State in the Union in which insanity is a ground for divorce, and that is Florida, of which Mr. Flagler is a resident, and the Legislature of which recently obligingly passed a law in the premises for his especial benefit. The great daily newspapers of the country were filled with the particulars of the intended marriage and then with minute details of the event and the bridal trip to the groom's northern residence. They told about the wealth of his insane wife, estimated at $2,000,000, accumulated through his generous gifts, and of his lavish generosity generally, but never a word of the vicious law, probably viciously enacted, by which he was enabled to put the insane woman away and espouse another bride.

A Catholic priest recently asserted that a flagrant evil resulting from the Protestant Reformation was the introduction of divorces. We do not sympathize with this declaration in the abstract, because there may be divinely recognized grounds for divorce. But surely there is need of restricting laws rather than for the enlargement of the causes upon which divorces may be based. Mr. Flagler's divorce from his insane wife was legal, so far as man's statutes are concerned; but how about the divine law of divorce laid down by the Saviour of Mankind? It is time the public conscience should be awakened on this subject and such legislation had as will take away even the semblance of justice from the reproach of the priest referred to.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention, to send delegates to the judicial convention which met in this city on Tuesday, was held at Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday, and was called to order by George E. Sharrer, a member of the State Central Committee, who suggested Joseph D. Rrooks as chairman, and the suggestion was approved by the convention. Herbert R. Wooden, of Hampstead, was elected secretary.

Mt. Airy—Walter R. Rudy, Norval W. Hobbs, Marion A. Poole, J. Theo. Gosnell, Charles F. Grimes.

The committee also submitted the following resolution:

We commend the ability of Charles T. Reifsnider, shown while occupying the position of associate judge in this the Fifth judicial circuit, and we pledge the delegates from this county to the nominating convention, which meets Tuesday, 27th inst., in Westminster, to use all reasonable efforts to secure his nomination by that convention.

Before action was taken on the resolution, Chairman Brooks said that he had withdrawn from the contest for the judgeship nomination because of his love for the Republican party, the success of which he preferred to his own advancement. His remaining in the field would have involved a bitter primary fight which would have imperiled Republican success, and he had withdrawn to avoid that result. He spoke in complimentary terms of Judge Reifsnider, whom he characterized as an "honest, industrious, straightforward business lawyer."

The report and resolution of the committee were then adopted and the convention proceeded to elect delegates to represent Carroll county in the judicial convention. The following were then chosen: Joseph D. Brooks, of Westminster; Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown; Charles M. Murray, of Hampstead; David Cover, of Winfield, and Charles E. Wampler, of Woolery's.

Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., was called for and made a stirring speech, in which he commended the convention in indorsing the candidacy of Judge Reifsnider, because his course on the bench, under the appointment of Governor Lowndes, has been eminently able and satisfactory; because of his experience of nearly 40 years in the successful practice of the law, and because, while he was once a Democrat, he left that party when it was fully intrenched in power in the county and state and became a Republican from conscientious conviction, when the party was apparently in a hopeless minority. Dr. Weaver predicted that at the election in November Maryland will be permanently redeemed from the Democratic Ring, and that the iniquitous election law, passed at the extra session, will be wiped off the statute books.

At the close of Dr. Weaver's remarks the convention adjourned sine die.

Republican Judicial Convention.

The Republican convention, called to nominate a candidate for associate judge of the Fifth judicial circuit, met in this city on Monday and was called to order by George E. Sharrer, of the republican state central committee. W. Hallam Claude, of Annapolis, was elected chairman and Charles M. Murray, of Carroll county, secretary. A committee on credentials, composed of Dr. John Ridout, of Anne Arundel; Dr. Luther Kemp, of Carroll, and Thomas H. Haines, of Howard, found that while Anne Arundel and Carroll counties were represented by properly accredited delegates, only two were present from Howard and the credentials of the delegation were in the hands of another, who failed to attend. The two delegates present were authorized to cast the three votes of the county. The delegates from the several counties were as follows:

Anne Arundel.—Frank H. Stockett, W. Hallam Claude, Charles W. Robinson, J. Frank Krems, Dr. John Ridout.

Carroll.—Jos. D. Brooks, Charles M. Murray, Dr. Luther Kemp, Charles E. Wampler, David Cover.

Howard.—J. W. Snell, Thomas H. Haines.

Judge Charles T. Reifsnider was the only candidate whose name was before the convention. He was placed in nomination by Joseph D. Brooks, who recited the course of the republicans in making no nominations for the judgeships of the circuit on three seperate occasions since 1882, when the late Judge Jno. E. Smith was nominated and elected, and in nominating a democrat for chief judge two years ago, which he characterized as evidences of their honest purpose to select the best and most suitable men for the bench. The nomination was seconded by J. Frank Krems, of Anne Arundel county, and was then made by acclamation.

Mr. Krems, Dr. Kemp and Mr. Haines were appointed a committee to notify Judge Reifsnider of the nomination.

Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of this city, addressed the convention, strongly approving of its action in nominating Judge Reifsnider, who, he said, was the choice of the Republicans of this county by an overwhelming majority. He pronounced a strong eulogy upon the nominee. The convention then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

After adjournment the delegates and other invited guests were entertained at an elegant dinnar at the Hotel Albion. The nomination gives general satisfaction and will be heartily supported by the Republicans of the district.

SKETCH OF THE NOMINEE.

Judge Charles T. Reifsnider was born in this city in December, 1840, and has resided here ever since. He is the second son of the late Jesse Reifsnider, who for many years was one of the most successful merchants in this city. John L. Reifsnider, a prominent and wealthy resident of this place, is his only surviving brother. Judge Reifsnider was educated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., and at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa. He studied law in the office of the late Wm. J. Ross, of Frederick, and was admitted to the bar in 1862. He immediately began the practice of his profession in this city and gave it such earnest attention that he speedily become known as a rising young member of the bar and soon gained a large clientele. He pursued the practice with increasing success until he retired two years ago, upon his appointment to the bench by Governor Lowndes. In 1867 he was elected to the office of State's attorney of the county, as a democrat, but did not seek a re-election, and has not since that time held any political office, his large legal business having required his entire attention. His political views gradually became in consonance with the principles of the republican party, which he warmly espoused some years ago, when the party seemed to be in a hopeless minority in the state and county. A year or two after his admission to the bar he married a daughter of the late Joshua Smith, of this city, and sister of the late Judge Jno. E. Smith, by whom he has three sons and two daughters, one of the sons being Chas. T. Reifsnider, Jr., who was the republican candidate for state's attorney of this county two years ago. Since his elevation to the bench Judge Reifsnider has been very assiduous in the discharge of his duties, which he has performed with fidelity and ability. He is a member and vestryman of Ascension Episcopal Church of this city.

The Caterpillar Pest.

The caterpillar pest has reached a stage in some localities calculated to produce considerable alarm. Apparently, in this locality, no steps were taken, upon the first appearance of these worm-like insects, a couple of weeks ago, to prevent their increase, and now they have multiplied to such an extent as to be beyond the reach of the means usually resorted to for their destruction. Most of the trees in this locality are being rapidly denuded of their foliage and the rapacious pests are already attacking flowers and vines. But extensive as are their ravages here they are still greater in some other sections of the country. The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel, of the 28th inst., says:

"The caterpillar plague has reached this place, and many fine shade and fruit trees are denuded of their foliage. They made their appearance about two weeks ago and immediately proceeded to go to work on the trees. In some parts of the town they have cleared the trees of all foliage, and having nothing to live on are coming down from their lofty perch and swarming in droves over the houses, thus making life miserable for some of our housewives. It was rather an unusual sight on Sunday to see women at almost every house in some streets, with brooms sweeping them from the porches and houses. They attack not only the trees, but plants and vines are being denuded There seems to be no remedy now, except by spraying the trees with paris green. This pest is prevalent all over the eastern states, and in part of this state, it is said, they have compelled people to move out of their houses.

On Thursday night of last week the burgess of New Oxford, Pa., vetoed an ordinance granting a street franchise in that borough to the Baltimore, Westminster and Gettysburg Street Railway, whereupon the ordinance was passed over the veto by the town council, without a dissenting vote. The franchise was given without compensation to the borough, while the burgess urged that a consideration of $500 be demanded.

The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel of Wednesday says: "The Hanover, Adams County, and Maryland Telephone Companies have completed the erection of a copper trunk telephone line between Hagerstown, Gettysburg and Hanover. One of the first messages received at this office was one of congratulation from the Hagerstown Herald, on the completion of the line between Gettysburg and Hagerstown."

Dr. John S. Fulton, secretary to the State Board of Health, was notified on Monday of a case of a colored man suffering from confluent smallpox in Howard county, near Hoods Mill. Dr. Fulton will co-operate with the local authorities to prevent the disease from spreading.

The burgess of Carlisle, Pa., has signed an ordinance giving the Baltimore, Westminster and Gettysburg Railroad and the Camp Hill and Mechanicsburg Line the right to use the streets of that borough.

Gov. John Walter Smith has made Defenders' Day, September 12, a legal holiday throughout Maryland.

Popular Cash Stores, Westminster, Maryland.

THE MD. COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, OF UNION BRIDGE, Md., will hold its opening exercises SEP. 10th, 1901, at 10 A. M., to which all kind friends and patrons are cordially invited.

The M. C. I. begins its session with splendid facilities to accommodate, in first class style, a large number of boarding students, at moderate rates.

The annex erected during vacation furnishes a very large Dining Hall and Gymnasium, above which is an Assembly Hall with seating capacity of about 1,000. The next floor provides new Recitation Rooms; one fine large room will be used as an Art Studio, where classes will be taught according to the most modern and improved methods.

The former Assembly Hall has been converted into a Commercial Department, one room for Type-writing Classes, another fitted up for a Bank; also departments for Book-keeping and Short Hand. It will no longer be necessary for our boys and girls to seek a Business College in the City, as this course will be thoroughly and practically taught by a proficient and capable instructor.

The entire school will be fitted up with most modern sanitary improvements and heated by steam.
