While the period of official mourning for President McKinley—30 days—has ended, it will be many years before the people will cease to regret his violent death and the loss thereby sustained by the nation.

Whether it be denominated Riggism, Bossism, Gormanism, or any other ism, the condition which the so-called Democratic leaders are endeavoring to fasten upon this State is subversive of good government, the political rights of the people and public interests generally.

It is patent to all men that on the Democratic side the current political campaign in this State is a determined struggle for the rehabilitation of the machine which for about a quarter of a century utterly subverted the purpose of the elective franchise and made elections the veriest farces.

One figure is sufficiently expressive to cover all that is implied in the present Democratic political campaign in Maryland, and Democratic speakers are wasting time and Democratic newspapers space in multiplying the number. A great big figure 2 tells the story, and its meaning is the autocratic rule of Gorman and his old lieutenant, Rasin. This is the figure, however, from which Democratic speakers and newspapers are endeavoring to divert public attention.

There was no more flagrant denial of the rights of the people ten years ago, when a Carroll county convention and the chairman of the Democratic county central committee, Mr. Benj. F. Crouse, denounced Gorman and Gormanism as thus doing, than there has been during the current year by the Democratic machine of the State, which is endeavoring to restore the power of the man and the condition against which Mr. Crouse and his convention then fulminated their anathemas.

Does the Advocate mean to justify the looting of the ballot-boxes, the registration of repeaters, the use of pudding tickets, the miscounting of ballots, the violence and other frauds which marked the rule of Democratic bosses in Maryland from 1875 to 1895, by citing the disfranchisement of Southern sympathizers in Maryland when the passions of men were still under the impulse of civil strife? The tone of its last week's article on that subject fairly warrants an affirmative answer to that interrogatory.

Competent and able Democratic lawyers assert that the construction placed upon the provision of the election law, that a ballot will be void if the mark X placed in any one of the squares, by the voter, shall touch any line of such square, is untenable. Nevertheless, such a construction has been placed upon the provision, and voters should be careful to avoid touching lines of the square in making their marks. Absolute safety of the ballot will be guaranteed by that course. Republican voters and Democrats who propose to save their party from the absolute domination of an iron-handed boss, by voting the Republican ticket, are earnestly enjoined to observe this precaution. Make the mark X in the center of the square immediately to the right of the name of each candidate for whom you desire to vote and see that no point of the mark shall touch any line of such square.

Republican success in Maryland, in 1895, led to legislation which gave to the people of the State the first fair elections held within a quarter of a century. When clothed with full legislative and executive authority, by the election in 1897, the Republicans absolutely abstained from all legislation calculated to give them an unfair advantage over their political opponents in the exercise of the elective franchise. Now mark the contrast. The moment the legislative and executive authority passed again into Democratic hands the leaders of that party began a conspiracy to devise and invent methods by which the Republicans and Independent Democrats shall be defrauded of the due effect and intent of their ballots. The truth of this assertion cannot be denied, and it should make every honest Democrat blush with shame for the evil deeds of the men who control his party with absolute authority. Nay, more, it should lead every Democrat who has a particle of respect for political integrity and fair dealing, to rebuke the bosses and assist in defeating their schemes by voting against their candidates.

The Republicans, in their selection of a candidate for judicial honors, wisely conferred the nomination upon a native of this county, whose progenitors were important factors in bringing about the formation of the county and who have contributed in no small way to its growth and prosperity since then.

The Baltimore Evening News of Thursday week struck the nail on the head when it said "Republican bosses were a nuisance, but Democratic bosses were a calamity".

Judge Chas. T. Reifsnider has been a practitioner at the bar of this county for well nigh forty years and as a painstaking, practical business lawyer, has had no superior, as his large and lucrative practice fully attests.

If Republicans went outside of the county and State and selected men for official positions as often as Democrats in this county have done, they would be fiercely charged with favoring carpet baggers.

Why didn't the Democratic county bosses accept Mr. Charles E. Fink or Mr. J. Milton Reifsnider for judge, when the selecton of either would have united their party? Let some one answer.

The Baltimore City directors have been investigating matters in relation to the city's power to dispose of its controlling interest in the Western Maryland Railroad, the methods by which such disposition can be made, and the advisability of such action. They will make a report of their conclusions to Mayor Hayes and until that is done their views on the subject are matters of speculation only. Whatever they may be, however, it may be said with confidence, that the city authorities would do well to consult the wishes of the people of Baltimore before undertaking to alienate the control now possessed by the municipality in the important and valuable work.

Intelligent Democrats must find cause for amusement in the comparisons made by the Advocate, between county expenses and cost of collection of taxes in 1867 and 1900-01. At the former date the currency in which taxes and salaries were paid was badly depreciated and the amounts represented did not much exceed half of their face value. Property of all sorts was worth double, in that depreciated currency, its present value in sound money. Few farms then valued at $10,000 would now sell for half that amount; but the tax then paid on the $10,000 value was less than the amount now required upon an assessment of $5,000. The $2,832.07 paid for collecting the taxes in 1867, did not have half the purchasing power of the $3,-032.16 paid for collecting last year's taxes. The Democratic cause must be in a bad way when it requires such bolstering as the Advocate attempts to give it in the comparisons referred to.

Machine Figures.

The Democratic machine has been set, in this campaign, to grinding out figures. Figures drop from the lips of Democratic speakers on the hustings; they scintillate on the pages of Democratic newspapers; they gush out, fountainlike, in campaign discussions, and are showered so profusely upon the public as to fairly bewilder, like phantasmagoria, the minds of the people generally. The wonderful achievements of Democratic administration of state and county finances, during wellnigh the third of a century, are paraded in figures that may not be false, but do not tell the whole truth.

They do not tell, for instance, how many thousands of dollars were paid by taxpayers of the State into sinking funds created by law, which Democratic Comptrollers diverted to other uses and caused it to become necessary for the taxpayers to make good again.

They do not tell how neglect of duty by a Democratic Governor and a Democratic Comptroller of the Treasury made it possible for a Democratic Treasurer to appropriate $125,000 of the State's money to his own uses.

They do not tell how, even in the much lauded financial management of Carroll county, Democratic County Commissioners levied $5,000 a year, for a number of years, for the payment of so much on county indebtedness and then used the money, thus levied, for other purposes.

The machine has been so fixed that when Democratic speakers and newspapers are exploiting Democratic figures in State and county affairs, such facts and incidents as those recited do not appear. Many young Democrats have doubtless never heard of them, and never will from Democratic sources.

It is not a grateful task for the SENTINEL to allude to them, but when Democratic leaders, orators and newspapers attempt to divert attention from the real issues of the campaign by appealing to the history of the Democratic party on State and county finances, no part of the truth should be withheld. The machine's figures, however, not only suppress truth that is not flattering to Democratic complacency, but they withhold a meed of praise justly due the other side.

They do not fairly tell of the financial achievements of the Republican party during its brief administration of the finances of the State.

They do not tell how clean and fair and pure was that financial administration. They do not show the fact that Republican administration promoted the reduction of the State debt and that so much was achieved by it in four years that near the close of that period the speedy liquidation of the entire debt was regarded as well nigh a certainty.

In these respects the figures of the machine are jugglers; but everybody knows the purpose for which they are being used and will continue to be used to the end of the campaign. The Democratic leaders or bosses are defending themselves by ignoring the real issues and fighting on ground upon which they had not been attacked. They should not forget the facts which criminate them even on that ground. Their citadel is vulnerable at every point, since their purpose is to dominate those under whom such financial incidents as are herein recited occurred, but which, perhaps were, after all, the least of the causes which led to their overthrow in 1895.

Samuel Reed, a colored youth aged 18 years, recently discharged from the House of Refuge at Cheltenham, was committed to the jail of Baltimore county on Wednesday, upon the charge of having feloniously assaulted Carrie Clagett, a little daughter of Mr. J. Harmon Clagett, near Randallstown. The little girl is less than four years old. Officer Caleb S. Hobbs, who made the arrest, had difficulty in preventing the culprit from being lynched, but finally landed him in jail.

The Maryland Synod of the Presbyterian Church met in Cumberland on Monday. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. Tunis S. Hamlin, D. D., the moderator, who was the pastor of Benjamin Harrison, at Washington, when the latter was President. The Synod comprises the Presbyterian Churches of Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

For the Sentinel.

Are We to be Pulled?

Yes, we are to be pulled into line for the entire Democratic ticket, and why? Because Mr. Henning and Mr. Weant are supporting the ticket, and that means they pull everybody with them who supported them in the recent primaries. Now, to those Democrats who are not slaves to be shackled and led by political bosses, who yell "stick to the ticket"! and yet themselves defeat good Democrats at the polls, let me say, be as independent as they, and go to the polls, in November, and there register your righteous indignation against those who have in the past betrayed the Democratic party. We were with Messrs. Weant and Henning in the recent primaries because we believed they represented true Democracy, and we are always with them when they stand for true Democratic principles, and what we stood for then is what we stand for now. Men may change their outer garments—but the principles we believe in are not, with honest men, thus easily changed, and we protest against being directed politically by such Democrats as now stand over us as leaders—men who are "leaders" not by the will of Democrats but by purchased power—"leaders" who say the men who composed the last Legislature were a set of lunkheads.

Again let me say to the host of Democrats who were recently enlisted against the "organization" man and his clique, that nothing but his complete rout and defeat will ever enable us to win permanently in Carroll.

Yours Respectfully,
A TRUE DEMOCRAT.

Reformed Church Synod.

The Synod of the Potomac of the Reformed Church in the United States met at Huntingdon, Pa., on Tuesday evening. Rev. C. A. Santee, of Mercersburg, Pa., was elected president; Rev. J. M. Poneins, Middletown, Md., vice-president; Rev. R. R. Jones, Virginia, corresponding secretary; Rev. H. M. J. Klein, York Pa., reading clerk; Rev. E. R. Deatrick, Baltimore, stated clerk, and elder Jacob D. Zehring, Hanover, Pa., treasurer. The synod is composed of 54 ministers and 54 elders from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, District of Columbia and North Carolina. There are present a number of advisory members.

Quite a spirited debate occurred on the response to be made to the overture of the Antisaloon League to send delegates to their meetings. The matter was finally referred to a special committee. There are 30 delegates present from Maryland, 11 from Virginia and West Virginia and 3 from North Carolina.

Col. Wm. J. Leonard, a former Comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland, died at his home in Salisbury, Wicomico county, on Monday night, aged about 85 years. He was a native of that part of Wicomico county which, before its formation, belonged to Worcester county. Col. Leonard was originally a Whig, and as a member of that party was elected to the House of Delegates in 1849. When the Civil War broke out he espoused the cause of the Government and entered the military service as an officer of the Purnell Legion, the command organized by Colonel (now Rev. Dr.) Wm. H. Purnell, and when the latter, who was then postmaster of Baltimore, resigned, succeeded him as colonel of the regiment. He participated in several important battles, and was captured in August, 1862, and confined in Libby prison. He was exchanged in the following October, resigned in December and retired from the service. He was elected Comptroller of the Treasury in 1866, by the Democrats, as a Conservative, and re-elected the following year. In 1873 he was elected a member of the House of Delegates as an Independent, and nine years later was a County Commissioner and President of the board. He was a fusion candidate for the State Senate in 1891, but was defeated. He was a man of considerable wealth and the owner of seven or eight fine farms. He leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters.

Mr. F. J. Beard, a prominent citizen of Waynesboro, Pa., died on Wednesday evening, from the effects of a fall from an apple tree, aged 73 years. He was formerly a director of the Geiser Manufacturing Company and also a school director.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Shaw Drug Company.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. Scott Zepp's, Druggist, Westminster. Get Green's Special Almanac.

EXECUTORS' SALE OF VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE,

NEAR WESTMINSTER, MD.

By virtue of power and authority contained in the last will and testament of Lawrence Zepp, late of Carroll county, deceased, and an order of the Orphans' Court of said county, the undersigned, executors named in said last will and testament, will sell at Public Sale, on the premises, on MONDAY, the 11th of November, 1901,

at 2 o'clock, P. M., all that valuable farm, recently the residence of Lawrence Zepp, situated about one-half mile east of the corporate limits of Westminster, Md., and adjoining the lands of William Struth and others, containing 175 ACRES OF LAND, more or less.

The land is of excellent quality and in a fine state of cultivation, arranged in fields of convenient size and under good fencing. There are about 25 or 30 Acres in good Timber on the farm. The buildings consist of a large substantially built Brick Dwelling House, with Back Building, all in good condition. Also a large and well arranged Bank Barn, and all other buildings necessary for a well equipped farm. There is good water both at the house and at the barn.

We call the special attention of purchasers to this property. The fine location of the buildings, its nearness to the county seat, and its general condition, make it one of the most desirable farms in the county. A portion of it is susceptible of advantageous division into lots if the purchaser should desire to make such division, and as the mains of the Citizens' Water Company pass through this part of the place, these lots could be easily and cheaply supplied with water. A plat of the property can be seen at The Union National Bank of Westminster, and those who wish to examine the property can call upon Dr. Leonard Zepp, of Westminster, one of the executors.

Valuable Lot fronting on the Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike.

Immediately after the sale of the farm, will be sold at Public Sale, on the premises, a desirable lot of land, containing

6 ACRES, more or less, situated near Westminster, on the Fair Ground Hill, fronting on the Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike and the old Baltimore road.

Valuable Wood Land, to be sold at 10 O'CLOCK, on same day.

The subscribers, as executors aforesaid, will sell on the premises, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH, 1901,

15¼ ACRES OF LAND, more or less, and situated about 3½ miles from Westminster, near the Gorsuch road, adjoining the lands of John Thomas Lovell, Peter Ritz and others.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid to said executors on the day of sale or on the ratification thereof by the court, and the residue in two equal payments, the one payable in six months, and the other in twelve months from the day of sale; the credit payments to be secured by the bonds or single bills of the purchaser or purchasers, with sufficient security, bearing interest from the day of sale, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
