1771 June 19 John Welsh

SIDE TWO

are divided about the Crop of Wheat, some say we shall have a middling one but dread the Effects of a few days of warm weather we have had — the Country Wheat sells from 30 a 36 Pr. & We have in this Neighbourhood about 60 thousand Fanegas of Sicily Wheat landed in Expectation it will rise after the Harvest a few days will clear up these Doubts, I will advise you the Issue mean while I remain —

Sir

Your most obed.t Sr.

John Welsh

P.S. —

The Sally Capt. Tyrie arrived some days since from Philad.a with about 30 W. Slaves which soon sold a £89. & 1000 Barr.s flour which must lye by till an opportunity of selling them for the Havana —

my friends at Seville write me that they have begun to sell the new Barley a Pr. 15. the Crop of which is but short & that of Wheat much the same, so that prices must rise towards winter —