The Democrats of Carroll county, led by Mr. B. F. Crouse, in September, 1894, declared their independence of Gorman and Gormanism. Will they confess defeat in 1898 and swear allegiance to the autocrat.

An official list of the names of candidates to be voted for will be found on the fourth page of the SENTINEL this week. Our readers are cautioned that they must not regard this as the official ballot nor as a sample of it. A Sample ballot as required by law, must be posted in one or more conspicuous places in each voting precinct at least four days before the election. Republican voters are earnestly exhorted to keep a lookout for this sample ballot, that they may have full knowledge of its size, shape &c.

Words need not be multiplied to demonstrate that the recent extra session of the General Assembly and the legislation enacted thereat were leading steps in a conspiracy to secure and continue Democratic supremacy in this State. The fact is self-evident, no matter what arguments to the contrary may be advanced by Democratic leaders. It is equally self evident that this supremacy is designed to reinstate the old obligarchy which ruled the Democratic party and the State before it was repudiated by the people in 1895.

No matter what questions may be raised to divert the attention of voters from the real issues of this campaign, it ought to be patent to all intelligent citizens, and to those who are not so intelligent, that the only things to be determined by the election in November, are: Whether the law which practically makes it difficult for any citizen to properly cast his ballot, and disfranchises probably ten per cent. of the voters, many of whom are worthy and well-to-do white citizens, shall remain on the statute books of the State, or not, and whether the political control of the State shall pass absolutely into the hands of a Democratic autocrat.

If the Democratic legislature could have passed an election law, to stand the test of the courts, that would have disfranchised Republican voters only, it would have made the bosses supremely happy. That, however, could not be done and in attempting to frame a measure that would not be inimical to the constitution, but would bear more heavily upon Republicans than Democrats, the serious mistake of practically disfranchising many of the latter was made. Naturally these Democrats and their friends are resenting the wrong done them and they are so numerous as to put the Democratic cause in jeopardy. It is said that in order to placate some of them they are being told privately that the new law was passed by the Republicans. Illiterate indeed, however, must be the voter who will accept such a statement.

Then and Now.

"And we further repudiate Gorman methods and Gormanism in this State, that deny to the people the right to control their own affairs and are undemocratic, unpatriotic and if allowed to be continued will result in disaster to the party."

The above is a quotation from resolutions passed by a convention of the Democrats of Carroll county, held at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, September 24th, 1894. It was prophetic. In the following year they produced the disaster predicted, and Carroll county Democrats must have aided in bringing it about.

Another portion of the resolutions from which the quotation is made denounced Senators Gorman and Gibson as unfit to represent the Democracy of Maryland in the national legislature. Mr. Benjamin F. Crouse, then and since recognized as the leader of what has been the controlling wing of the Democratic party in this county, made a speech in favor of the resolutions and used as strong, if not stronger, terms of denunciation of Senator Gorman than are contained therein. Those who were present on the occasion cannot well forget the boldness of his language and the fervor of his manner as he pictured the effect of Gormanism in governmental and political affairs.

Call it by what name you will, there is no denying the fact that the power which controlled the Democratic party in 1894, again has its relentless, iron grip upon the party machinery, and subserviency on the part of individual Democrats is the price that must be paid for political preferrment. The clarion note sounded by Mr. Crouse, in 1894, would be just as apropos at this time, and whatever may be the outcome this fall of the present denial of the rights of the people by the obstacles placed by Democratic legislation in the way of exercising the elective franchise and in the methods since pursued by the Democratic machine, a day of reckoning will come, sooner or later, and the longer it shall be delayed the more thorough will be the overthrow of the party which tolerates such a condition as was denounced by Mr. Crouse.

A proper regard for the character of the judicial office has led Judge Charles T. Reifsnider to refrain from all personal activity in the present campaign. He feels that his position on the bench precludes him from soliciting votes or making a personal canvass in his own behalf. This conception of the conditions relating to his candidacy for Associate Judge does him honor and those who may have expected a visit from him in his own interests as a candidate, or to promote the interests of the party by which he was nominated, and all other citizens should accord him their sincere respect for the course he is pursuing in the matter. While named as the candidate of a political party he believes that the judiciary should be removed as far as possible from partisan politics. He has demonstrated his eminent fitness for the honored station he now occupies by appointment by a faithful and intelligent discharge of his duties, and his fellow-citizens should retain him in the station by an overwhelming majority of their votes.

Politics in the Schools.

When the several changes made in the school law of this State, by Democratic legislatures, for the purpose of keeping the county school boards and examiners under Democratic control are recalled it is amusing to read, in Democratic newspapers, abusive tirades against Governor Lowndes for filling vacancies in school boards by apointing a majority of his own political friends. The Republicans in 1898 had complete control of the legislature and executive departments of the State government, but they did not go out of their way to extend the period of their supremacy in the boards. Nor can it be said with the slightest truthfulness that the changes they made in commissioners and examiners were detrimental to the schools. On the contrary an impetus to public education was given during the short period of Republican ascendancy which was decidedly advantageous to the cause. Speaking for Carroll county it may be said that necessary school supplies were purchased at prices far below those previously prevailing. The Republicans were only in control of the board, with an examiner who was a Republican, for two years out of the four of Gov. Lowndes administration. They did not legislate commissioners out of office, nor remove them for the purpose of obtaining a majority in a board in any of the counties.

Now look at the other side. The school law passed by the legislature in 1867, a body which was then wholly Democratic, made school commissioners elective by election districts. Few, if any, of these districts in the State, at that time, cast Republican majorities. But a few years later this became changed and Democratic supremacy was threatened in some of the boards. Then the Democrats changed the law and required the judges of the courts, all of whom were Democrats, to appoint the commissioners. Thus all the boards were kept Democratic for some years longer. Then a Republican judge was elected here and there and Democratic supremacy in a few of the boards was again threatened. To prevent such a castrophe the law was again changed and a Democratic Governor was invested with the appointing power. Of course he saw to it that there were no Republican school boards or examiners in the State. While Lloyd Lowndes, when he became Governor, substituted Republican commissioners for Democratic ones, whose terms expired, in sufficient numbers to give the Republicans majorities in the boards during the last two years of his administration, neither he nor the Republican legislature resorted to any extraordinary means to accomplish that result. The Governor simply conformed to the requirements of a law passed by the Democrats.

What followed when John Walter Smith was elected governor, with a Democratic General Assembly? Were Democrats content to wait for the expiration of the terms of service of Republican school commissioners in order to regain control of the boards by the ordinary processes of a law which they had passed themselves and which needed no change? Everybody knows they were not. At the regular session of 1900 they passed a new school law which terminated the tenure of every school commissioner in the State. Then the Democratic Governor proceeded without delay to make the school boards Democratic and the boards, as speedily as possible, substituted Democrats for Republicans as examiners.

Not a fact here stated can be truthfully controverted. And yet Democratic newspapers have the hardihood to charge Governor Lowndes with having introduced politics into the public schools.

It is more than extremely probable, however, that this is only one of the methods being used to distract attention from the real issues of the campaign, but the SENTINEL cannot permit it to pass without exposing its extreme absurdity, to characterize it by a term much milder than it deserves.

Maryland Synod, Lutheran Church.

Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church, which met at Boonsboro on on Thursday evening of last week, elected Rev. J. E. Maurer, pastor of the Church at that place, president, and re-elected Rev. George S. Bowers, of Hagerstown, secretary, and Mr. Cornelius Eckhardt, of Washington, D. C., treasurer, for the ensuing year. At Saturday morning's session Treasurer Eckhardt submitted his report for the last synodical year. The total receipts from the pastorates for the year amounted to $23,158.99, and disbursements $19,249.14. This is said to have been the most gratifying year in the history of the synod, and for his excellent financiering the treasurer received a vote of thanks and commendation by the synod.

Rev. C. A. Britt, of Taneytown, delivered an address on ministerial education. A gratifying report on the National Home for the Aged was submitted by Rev. Mr. Morl, of Washington, D. C.

Directors to the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Pa., to fill the vacancies, were chosen as follows: Clerical—Revs. C. A. Britt, L. Kuhlman and George W. Miller. Laymen—Messrs. A. F. Fox and George Ryneal, Jr.

An ordination service was held on Sunday night, Rev. M. L. Beard, of Middletown, delivering a sermon appropriate to the occasion. After the sermon Frederick R. Wagner, of Frostburg; P. J. Shriver, of Freedom; Taylor B. Yeakley, of Davis, W. Va., and Samuel F. Tholan, of Hampstead, were ordained into the ministry, and Martin L. Enders and Robert W. Doty, of Gettysburg, and C. W. Hess, of Taneytown, were granted license to preach for one year.

It is understood that Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, will be executed at Auburn prison, New York, on Tuesday morning next.

The Associate Judgeship.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

Permit me to offer some reflections on the subject of a choice between the two candidates for the judgeship. The first and important fact to be noticed in connection with Judge Charles T. Reifsnider's candidacy is that he has now served upon the bench under an appointment of Governor Lowndes, for nearly two years, a sufficient time for a calm estimate to be made of his qualifications and fitness for the position. The very first thing to suggest itself under these circumstances in reference to him, is as to how he has conducted himself upon the bench; with what efficiency and acceptability to the people? The answer to these questions is important and should exercise a determining weight with those citizens best able to judge of the nature and importance of the office, and be decisive for or against him, as the questions may be answered. If on the one hand it should be found that he has displayed the requisite capacity and knowledge of the law; that he has without fear or favor administered it and dispensed justice impartially to all classes and suitors alike, and that he has given evidence of such decision of character and moral purpose as leaves no possibility for the exercise of sinister influences over him, then he has, of right, in the opinion of the highest judges, earned a continuance to the office, without reference to the mere political craving of any man, seeking for his displacement. On the other hand, if he has shown by his course upon the bench a failure of the requisite competency to the administration of the office; shown a lack of official integrity and independence of action, and a submissiveness of conduct and weakness of purpose, then room ought to be made for his opponent, and himself retired from the office.

Until these latter conditions are made to appear and the former ones to disappear, the question of Judge Reifsnider's selection and retention in the office now filled by him, by the suffrages of the people of the district, ought not to be open or in doubt. It should always be borne in mind, by all the voters, if that were possible, in considering the incumbency of the bench, that proved fitness alone should constitute the requirement and qualification.

The services of Judge Reifsnider have not been confined to this county alone, but have extended over two other counties, Howard and Anne Arundel, during the period mentioned, and the concensus of opinion expressed in all the counties of his circuit has been a favorable one, and in none has a word been expressed against him, touching the faithful character with which he has performed his judicial duties. He has presided with unostentatious dignity, shown a sincere desire to perform his full duty to everyone, and exercised uniform forbearance and courtesy to all.

With the possession of suitable acquirements for the bench admitted, what sound reason can be offered why Judge Reifsnider, a man of advancing years and large experience, should give way for a young and untried member of the Bar.

In addition to what has been said, it ought not to be entirely left out of consideration, the fact that Judge Reifsnider is a native of Carroll county and has been before its people all his life—not a small part only—and is known throughout the county to most of the people of all classes and conditions; and they, known to him, many by ties of blood and others by social and business relations. It has been frequently remarked since his candidacy, that members of his family have in no small measure contributed to the progress and growth of the county from its first formation, with a brother living in the City of Westminster, commanding the highest respect of people of all classes, and recognized as one of the first men in the community in point of wealth, influence and character.

These opportunities possessed by Judge Reifsnider by reason of his long residence among the people where he was born, ought not to be entirely ignored in passing upon his selection, or left uncontrasted with the opportunities of his opponent.

And again it should not be amiss in the voter to consider the circumstances under which the candidacy of each was brought about. One was voted a unanimous nomination without contest or strife coming from any quarter, thus assuring the same tenor of judicial conduct with no likelihood or disposition to reward friends or punish enemies.

This item in his favor is a strong one and entitled to due consideration in passing on the question of choice between them.

With the opposing candidate, the conditions were altogether different, as only after a most bitter factional contest did he or his friends secure victory and that by the merest margin. It would be too much to expect of human frailty that any man, of the common mold, could altogether suppress a sense of gratitude to his triumphant friends, or offer entire forgiveness to those who were in the broil of opposition.

The attribute of forgivness is of such divine quality that few men have the power of illustrating it in all their lives or as long as fifteen years thereof. The religion of the Russian philosopher has not yet become an all-pervasive force in the earth.

The reasons of this short summing up, it is believed, lie with Judge Reifsnider, and his retention may be fairly predicated of them.

As for the partisan argument, that is too unworthy and abhorrent—the spurious coin to be played by the despicable hand of the political juggler.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. Scott Zepp's Drug Store, Westminster. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Shaw Drug Company.

A TYPICAL SOUTH AFRICAN STORE.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by W. Scott Zepp.

EXECUTORS' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

NEAR WESTMINSTER, MD.

By virtue of power and authority contained in the last will and testament of Lawrence Zepp, late of Carroll county, deceased, and an order of the Orphans' Court of said county, the undersigned, executors named in said last will and testament, will sell at Public Sale, on the premises, on MONDAY, the 11th of November, 1901,

at 2 o'clock, P. M., all that valuable farm, recently the residence of Lawrence Zepp, situated about one-half mile east of the corporate limits of Westminster, Md., and adjoining the lands of William Struth and others, containing 175 ACRES OF LAND, more or less.

The land is of excellent quality and in a fine state of cultivation, arranged in fields of convenient size and under good fencing. There are about 25 or 30 Acres in good Timber on the farm. The buildings consist of a large substantially built Brick Dwelling House, with Back Building, all in good condition. Also a large and well arranged Bank Barn, and all other buildings necessary for a well equipped farm. There is good water both at the house and at the barn.

We call the special attention of purchasers to this property. The fine location of the buildings, its nearness to the county seat, and its general condition, make it one of the most desirable farms in the county. A portion of it is susceptible of advantageous division into lots if the purchaser should desire to make such division, and as the mains of the Citizens' Water Company pass through this part of the place, these lots could be easily and cheaply supplied with water. A plat of the property can be seen at The Union National Bank of Westminster, and those who wish to examine the property can call upon Dr. Leonard Zepp, of Westminster, one of the executors.

Valuable Lot fronting on the Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike.

Immediately after the sale of the farm, will be sold at Public Sale, on the premises, a desirable lot of land, containing

6 ACRES, more or less, situated near Westminster, on the Fair Ground Hill, fronting on the Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike and the old Baltimore road.

Valuable Wood Land, to be sold at 10 O'CLOCK, on same day.

The subscribers, as executors aforesaid, will sell on the premises, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the Wood Lot of the said Lawrence Zepp, late of Carroll county, deceased, containing

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH, 1901,

15½ ACRES OF LAND, more or less, and situated about 3½ miles from Westminster, near the Gorsuch road, adjoining the lands of John Thomas Lovell, Peter Ritz and others.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-third of the purchase money to be paid to said executors on the day of sale or on the ratification thereof by the court, and the residue in two equal payments, the one payable in six months, and the other in twelve months from the day of sale; the credit payments to be secured by the bonds or single bills of the purchaser or purchasers, with sufficient security, bearing interest from the day of sale, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
