IT WAS FRAUDULENT.

Apparently there is substantial ground for believing that the Democratic plurality, counted at the election in this State on the 5th inst., was fraudulently obtained. Reports, from Anne Arundel county alone, indicate that upon a fair count the nearly 500 Democratic plurality in that county would about be reversed. This itself would give the Republicans a majority in the House of Delegates and also for both of the candidates for State officers and others.

The means by which this reversal of the voters' will was accomplished appear by an affidavit of a Republican judge of election in the Second precinct of the Eighth district of the county, who swears that two packages of ballots were opened by one of the Democratic judges, and the ballots given out from both at the same time. That, when the ballots were counted, a mark was found on the second amendment to the constitution on a large number of them. Attention was called to this mark by George W. Hyde, the Democratic judge, who had opened the two packages at the same time, and upon investigation it was found that the mark on the amendment was not made with the indelible pencil used in marking the ballots. Over one hundred of these marked ballots were voted by Republicans and the remainder, about eight, were split or Democratic ballots. Prima facie, these ballots were marked before they were given to the voter, and this was the plan hit upon to give the Democrats a majority in Anne Arundel county. The fraud is apparent. The Republicans will contest the election of county officers in the Circuit Court, the only tribunal where a show of justice can be expected. Even there the grand jury, without knowledge of the circumstances, was swift to declare the election a fair one. Fortunately the bench is not likely to reach that conclusion without evidence.

Evidences of trickery in other counties are not wanting and the Republican State Central Committee, which met in Baltimore on Wednesday, is taking steps to at least secure a record of the frauds, if such contests as may be instituted do not result in seating the rightfully elected officers. Everybody feels it would be useless to carry a contest before the House of Delegates, as that body would be governed by party exigencies rather than by the evidence which could be adduced before it. And yet it may be important to lay such evidence before the House as will demonstrate beyond cavil the election of Mr. Platt as Comptroller of the Treasury and Judge Reifsnider as Associate Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, if such be actually the case.

The events which preceded the election—the extra session and the character of its legislation; the misprinted ballots in numbers of the counties, some of which had to be printed over again, by order of the courts, and other incidents which might be cited give color to the other allegation that the election was utterly unfair and fraudulent and that the Democratic majorities, in many instances reported, were literally stolen.

Under these conditions it becomes a public duty on the part of the Republicans to make every possible effort to secure an investigation of the alleged fraudulent practices—not so much to secure offices for Republican candidates, as to advertise fully the facts which, it is claimed, will demonstrate their election.

No rain of any consequence has fallen in Frederick county for more than a month, and wheat fields and streams are showing the effects of the prolonged drought. Much of the wheat that was sown four or five weeks ago is in bad condition because of the lack of moisture, and in some sections of the county the late sown wheat has failed to sprout, while that sown earlier is showing evidence of an inclination to wither. Many farmers are alarmed, fearing the entire crop may be blighted.

In his forthcoming annual report Postmaster-General Smith will ask for an increase of the appropriation for the rural free delivery service from the present sum of $3,5000,000 to $6,000,000 and advocate the extension of the service as far as practicable. "He will express the opinion that this branch of the work of the department is of the greatest utility, and will plead for a liberal consideration on the part of Congress."

Armour & Co., Swift & Co., and the big refrigerating houses in Chicago are endeavoring to corner the egg market in that city by placing all the eggs they can lay their hands on in cold storage. 500,000 cases have gone into cold storage since July 1. Retailers have put up the price to 27 cents per dozen for eggs which a week ago were selling at 22 cents.

Mr. Thomas Parran, the newly elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals, will go into office December 1, when Mr. J. Frank Turner, the appointee of the court, will retire. The salary of the clerk is $3,000 a year; the bond $10,000, to be renewed biennially and approved by the court. When he takes the oath of office he is required to pay the State Treasurer a tax of $200.

Col. Alexander M. Briscoe, a veteran officer of the Union Army, well known in this county, died at his home in Baltimore on Saturday last, and his remains were interred in Baltimore Cemetery on Tuesday. Delegations from numerous military and civic organizations attended the funeral.

Mrs. Luraney Searing, a native of Baltimore, died near Fairhope, Pa., on the B. and O. Railroad, 20 miles above Cumberland, on Monday, aged 103 years. She was the mother of 14 children, of whom 6 are still living, and she leaves 42 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren and 8 great-great grandchildren.

Mr. James C. Kinnear died Tuesday at his home, St. Geo ge's Station, on the Western Maryland Railroad. He was 74 years old. He was for years the principal of St. George's school.

The Secretary of State, Hon. Wilfred Bateman, and his assistant, Mr. Carl Hardy, are busy tabulating the returns of the election. Some 20 of the counties have forwarded their returns.

Fraudocracy's Triumph.

There are doubtless honest Democrats who think that a fair election was held in this State on the 5th of November, whilst there are not a few men of all parties, since the farce of that election has been laid bare and exposed, who believe that the people of the State were made the victims of a bunco game; in gambler's parlance, that the tickets were stacked before the game of voting began, so that Gorman, under an election law of his own creating could hold a full hand of trumps and play them in his own behalf, for all they were worth. It was the old trick game of toss up—heads Gorman wins, tails the people lose, no matter how the vote is cast. That there was an ingeniously concocted scheme, deliberately planned, to rape the ballots, so that but one result could be produced, must be plain to the dullest comprehension. So conscious of this fact are self-respecting Democrats, that neither here nor elsewhere in the State have they encouraged the holding of celebrations over their party's pretended victory. It is true, in a Pickwickian sense, the Advocate had at the head of its columns a string of roosters, old and tough enough to digest any amount of political filth, however strong the stench; but they did not enthuse the rank and file of its party enough to illuminate the town "with the rocket's red glare, with bombs bursting in air," or even to bring out the drum corps, followed by enthusiastic Democrats marching to its inspiring music and huzzahing for the great and glorious victory fairly won in the county and State. Enthusiasm did not impel them to call out our splendid Carroll County Band to serenade the two gentlemen in this place who claim to be elected to honorable positions at this fair election. No opportunity has been accorded them to glorify the magnificent victory which this people vouchsafed to them through and by ballots, printed, voted, counted and rejected as they were at the recent election. They were not called upon to show how their great triumph was brought about; how more than 500 ballots were rejected in this county, over 300 in Howard, whilst Anne Arundel county came up gleefully with its 1200 and more to make it a good 2000 in this judicial circuit. If the rank and file of the Democratic party felt that their triumph had been fairly won, the Brass Band, with the Drum Corps, followed by hundreds of Westminster men and boys, would have made the welkin ring with their shouts over this glorious victory gained by their party. Such, however, was not the case, for these rejected ballots may yet come forth as tangible evidences to confront the schemers, and show to Gorman and his henchmen that injustice cannot succeed all the time. Like Banquo's Ghost, these rejected ballots will not down, but will yet stand forth like hideous skeletons to grin and give a ghastly stare at the unscrupulous Democratic politicians who have robbed elections of their honesty, humiliated the people of our State, and brought reproach and shame upon its otherwise good name and fame. Justice, sooner or later, will unmask the schemers' tricks, and bring to light the foul methods employed to bring about so dishonorable and fraudulent a triumph. Then and not until then will honest voters get their due and the people come into their own.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The ladies of the M. P. Church of Westminster will hold an Oyster Supper in the Firemen's Building during the last week of this month.

A VIOLENT ATTACK OF CROUP CURED.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Finley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. Scott Zepp.

The school and patrons at Reese will hold an oyster supper in the school building, Nov. 22. Supper, children under 12, 15c, adults, 25c. Proceeds for the benefit of the school. The public are cordially invited.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the best thy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. Scott Zepp's, Druggist, Westminster. Get Green's Special Almanac.

THE COMPANION'S SEVENTY-SIXTH VOLUME.

In 1902—the seventy-sixth year of its publication—The Youth's Companion promises more varied attractions for its readers than ever before, and The Companion always gives more than it promises. The government of the United States will be represented in contributions from Secretary of the Treasury Gage, Secretary of the Navy Long, Postmaster-General Smith, and Assistant Secretary of War Sanger—a list, it is believed, never equaled in a previous year.

The government of Great Britain will be represented by contributions from the Duke of Argyll, the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava and the Rt. Hon. James Bryce, T. P. O'Connor and Winston S. Churchill, members of the House of Commons.

Other noteworthy contributors will be Wu Tingfang, Chinese minister at Washington, Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee Institute, Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, Gen. Charles King and Rear-Admiral Richborn, while more than two hundred of the most popular of living story-writers will contribute from four to six fascinating stories to each of the fifty-two issues of The Companion for 1902.

To all new subscribers for 1902 and to those renewing their subscriptions The Companion will send its beautiful 1902 Calendar, lithographed in twelve colors and gold. By sending $1.75 before January 1st, the new subscriber will receive free all the remaining issues of 1901 from the time the subscription is received.

JUMPED ON A TEN PENNY NAIL.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by W. Scott Zepp.

OUR ANNUAL CHRYSANTHEMUM ...SHOW,...

TO WHICH YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED,

...BEGINS TO-DAY...

AND CONTINUES ONE WEEK.

On Saturday, November 23rd, we will give away one of these beautiful plants to each customer making a purchase to the amount of one dollar. Come early to get first choice.

Meriting Your Confidence

SPEAKING of confidence, permit us to say that our guarantee accompanies every transaction—that you assume no risk in whatever you buy here. Should any other store make lower than usual prices—even greater reductions on the same class of goods are immediately made here; while oftener than not our regular prices are as low as the spasmodic "sales" prices shouted at you under the stress of excitement by competition. Remember this, and see how carefully we live up to it; not under any possibility shall worthy merchandise be sold for less than by this store, that invites your patronage on the basis of equal quality for less money. It shall be our earnest endeavor to more and more merit your confidence by deserving it. Mistakes easily and cheerfully corrected—for mistakes sometimes happen where so many are employed. Meantime—Merchandise.

During the coming week we shall offer some special bargain each day and the items advertised will be on sale the following days till sold, if not all sold first day, and we will not say 20 or 25 per cent. off and mark up the goods advertised so that after the discount is off you will still be paying the original price, but all the original price tickets will be left on, so you can see just what bargains you are getting.
