1772 Nov. 25 Thomas Spencer to James Chalmers

SIDE ONE

Annapolis Road 25th Nov.r 1772

Mr Chalmers

Sr

I have the Happiness of acquaint you by Stephen Simon, that I am safe arrived this afternoon here, after a long and disagreeable passage of ten Weeks & four Days to this place, with 77 Convicts on board, two died on the passage, the sickness still continues on board, the Doctor at present is very ill, with a few of the Convicts make no doubt but the Servants will be well in a few days, with a little fresh provisions, as they all have a good Appetite, I shall not be able to take the Oath, shall not go to Mr Ridout till hear from you I remain

Sr your most humble Servant

Thomas Spencer
