1772 Nov. 26 Thomas Spencer to Thomas Charton

SIDE ONE

Annapolis Nov.r the 26th 1772

Mr Charton

Sir

This advises you of my safe arrival in the Road, last Evening, with 77 Convicts, I immediately dispatched away Stephen Simpson Pilot with your Letters to Baltimore, but find you're on the Bay, have been Sickly on the Passage, and am not clear of it at present, tho hope a little fresh provisions will soon nourish them up, the Doctor at present is the worst of any on board, the Convicts are tolerable well ~~and~~ more than three Sick, ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible]ite full of Goods, shall refer entering the Ship [illegible] hear from you I remain

Your Obt Servant

Thomas Spencer

10 Weeks & three days passage