WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1902.

An editorial, already in type, in relation to the appropriation of $30,000 per year, for two years, asked for the Maryland Agricultural College, is crowded out by local matter.

Hambleton & Co., who are after the Western Maryland Railroad for some party unknown to the public, have several competitors who say they are willing to go one better in the price over any other bidder. The city will do well to hold on to its controlling interests in the road and retain Gen. Hood as its president and general manager. He has brought the road up to a paying basis, its net earnings last year having been large enough, if capitalized at 4 per cent., to represent a value of $17,000,000. The Sun makes a suggestion in relation to incorporating the Western Maryland with a through system, by a traffic agreement, the city still retaining its interest in the road, and this is probably the best arrangement that can be made to protect the trade of Baltimore.

They Protest.

At a convention of the producers of cane sugar in the United States, held at New Orleans, La., on the 9th inst., resolutions were adopted strongly protesting against the proposition to remit the duties on sugar imported from Cuba. The proposition involves reciprocal favors to American products imported by Cuba, which would, it is claimed, materially increase our exports to the island, but the Cubans would gain a decided advantage in the deal and obtain almost a monopoly of sugar producing on the Western hemisphere. They claim that without the remission of the Dingley duties they will be unable to cultivate another crop and their sugar industry will be ruined. On the other hand, the Louisiana planters aver that they (said planters) will become the victims if this favor shall be granted to Cuba, and they vigorously protest against the discrimination against them involved in the proposition. They are, as a rule, Democrats, but they recognize the value of protection as it relates to their own interests.

Undoubtedly these planters are right in assuming such discrimination against them, in the products of the soil, to be unjust and unequal. Under a protective tariff cane sugar production has flourished and become profitable in Louisiana. In some other sections the beet sugar industry has been largely developed and is growing. This industry will not only be seriously retarded, but may be destroyed, by the admission of sugar, from Cuba, duty free.

Considering the matter in this light it will be seen that the principle of reciprocity must have its limitations. It should not be employed when it imperils an industry of such importance as the production of sugar by cane or beet growing. These interests are as much entitled to protection as any other and, if sacrificed to gratify the Cubans, or for the sake of enlarging trade in some other directions, will give good grounds for opposition to the theory of protection altogether. A tariff for protection should be so adjusted as to afford equal benefits to the varied products of the country, with sugar among them. The protest of the Louisiana planters should be heeded and some other method, than the sacrifice of our own important interests, be found for the relief of Cuba.

Where's the Difference.

MR. EDITOR:

If two or more Republican members of the Legislature voted for Murray Vandiver, a Democrat, thus favoring his retention in office for another term of two years as Treasurer of Maryland, and for so doing have justly incurred the displeasure and severe condemnation of their Republican associates, wherein, and why are they to be more censured and condemned, for lack of party fealty, than is a Republican National Administration, which not only retains in, but frequently appoints to, office, active partizan Democrats instead of Republicans? Is there one rule of political conduct applicable to members of our party for making State and local appointments, and another and quite an opposite one to be applied in the dispensing of the Federal patronage? If those Republicans who voted for Mr. Vandiver are censurable, and to be condemned for doing so, is a Republican administration less blamable when it retains in, or appoints to, office, Democrats, instead of selecting Republicans therefor. If so, why so?

DIST. No. 10.

Maryland Legislature.

After a recess of several days the Legislature met on Tuesday evening. Among the proceedings were the following:

To Mr. Fuss—Leave to introduce a bill to extend the corporate limits of Union Bridge. Referred to the Carroll county delegation.

Leaves were also granted as follows:

Senator Beasman—To authorize the city of Westminster to issue bonds in order to subscribe to the stock of the Washington and Gettysburg Railway. Senators Beasman, Peter and Ravenscroft.

Mr. Ganter—To authorize the burgess and commissioners of Taneytown to purchase a site and erect buildings for fire and municipal purposes and to levy a tax to pay for same. Delegation from Carroll.

Mr. Fuss—To amend the charter of the Sykesville Bank of Carroll County so as to enable it to loan money on negotiable paper. Corporations.

Mr. Hoffacker—To amend the charter of the Hampstead Bank of Carroll County in a similar manner. Delegation. To amend the law relative to taxation of banks and financial institutions in Westminster. Referred to Carroll Delegation.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Lugenbeel, widow of John H. Lugenbeel, of Unionville, Frederick county, died on Saturday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jason Hood, Baltimore. Death was due to general breaking down incident to old age. Mrs. Lugenbeel was born in Frederick county, and was about 70 years old. During the last ten years she resided in Baltimore. She leaves two sons, Prof. W. G. Lugenbeel, president of Austin College, Effingham, Ill., and Prof. C. S. Lugenbeel, president of Fort Smith Commercial College, Fort Smith, Ark.

Luther H. Winter, of Woodsboro, while attempting to kill a steer, was kicked in the face by the animal, breaking his jaw bone, knocking out several teeth and injuring one of his eyes.

Emory Layton, aged 75 years, died on Monday, at his farm near Florence, Howard county. Besides his widow he leaves two sons, Charles and Adolphus Layton.

They Outwitted the Constable.

Taneytown had a sensation, on Tuesday last, which is explained in Frederick correspondence of the Baltimore American, as follows:

"Samuel Ramsburg, son of Thomas C. Ramsburg, and Miss Margaret Schley, daughter of Mr. Gilmer Schley, both of Frederick, after being stopped at Taneytown, Md., while eloping to York, Pa., where they intended to be married, escaped from the constable who had taken charge of the bride-elect, and drove to Gettysburg, Pa., where they were wedded. The bride is an attractive young lady about 16 years of age. The groom, who is 22 years of age, is a well known young man, and was formerly night clerk at the City Hotel. The father of the former, when he learned that they had left Frederick for the purpose of being married, telegraphed to points along the Pennsylvania Railroad, and when the train reached Taneytown, a constable entered the car and took the young lady in charge. Several hours later while waiting for the train to Frederick, Miss Schley announced that she needed a pair of rubber shoes, and the couple were escorted to a store by the constable. While the latter stood in the front of the store the couple slipped out of a back door, entered a carriage which young Ramsburg had ordered to be in waiting, and drove off in a pouring rain to Gettysburg, a distance of 10 miles. As soon as they reached Gettysburg, the marriage ceremony was performed, and the parents of the young couple were notified by telegraph of their wedding. The bride's father is a first cousin of Rear Admiral Schley."

Henry Lovell, aged 35 years, the leader of a band of gypsies encamped near Liberty, Frederick county, is in the jail of that county charged with a felonious assault upon Mrs. Albert Smith, near Unionville. The assault was committed on the evening of the 9th inst., when Lovell went to the home of Mrs. Smith and asked for something to eat. She gave him some bread and meat and says that while sitting at the table he discovered that she was alone in the house. After eating he went to the door and she supposed he was about to leave, but, instead, he locked the door and then assaulted her. She had been sick and was weak and when he seized her she fainted. When she regained consciousness he threatened to kill her if she sounded an alarm. Lovell was not arrested until the 13th inst., and then, fearing an attempt to lynch the accused, the sheriff kept the matter quiet for a week or more.

The worst snowstorm and blizzard experienced in Western New York for many years prevailed in that section on Tuesday. Railroad and street car traffic in Buffalo were impeded as never before. The snow was two feet deep on the level and drifts as high as the houses were formed in the country.

An ice gorge has formed in the Susquehanna river near Lancaster, Pa. Ice has jammed between the shore and an island half a mile off shore to a height of 50 feet. At Washington borough the tracks of the Port Deposit and Columbia railroad was covered by 3 feet of water.

Samuel Jones, who resided near Beckman, Garrett county, and was the tallest man in Western Maryland, having been 7 feet in height, died Sunday from heart disease, aged 65 years. He was a well-to-do farmer, a Union veteran and a pensioner.

Rev. J. H. Smith, of the Lancaster Theological Seminary, has been elected pastor of the Reformed Church of the Redeemer, Littlestown, Pa., as the successor of Rev. F. C. Seitz, who is now pastor of Emmanuel Reformed Church, Hanover, Pa.

While skating near Hanover, Pa., on Sunday last, John Mosebaugh broke through the ice and narrowly escaped drowning. He was unconscious when rescued and was resuscitated with great difficulty.

Samuel I. Johns has been elected president of the McSherrystown and Hanover Turnpike Company; F. J. Melhorn, vice-president; secretary and treasurer, C. D. Smith; superintendent, Emanuel Diller.

Mrs. Emanuel Fuss, of Woodsboro, Frederick county, while driving, let her foot accidentally slip out the side of the wagon and it was caught between the spokes of the wheel, which twisted her leg out of joint at the knee.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicits, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flowers to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. Scott Zepp's, Druggist, Westminster.

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by all druggists.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by all Druggists.

Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford St. M. E. Church, Cumberland, Md., says: "It affords me great pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it and know others who have never known it to fail." For sale by all Druggists.

A DEEP MYSTERY.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 75 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Shaw Drug Co.
