1773 JAN. 25 STEVENSON & RANDOLPH TO JAMES [illegible] No 1894

SIDE TWO

have too much reason to think has been the Case or they must have been discharg'd long ago.

You will let Us know if the new Ship can be launched in Oct. next, as We shall send out the Rigging by the fall ships to have her loaded ready to dispatch with a Cargo of Lumber as soon as possible after the Sea. arrives, much depending on her getting to an early Market, both in the sale of the Cargo & getting a fd. Home. The Elizb. will be dispatched with the Convicts at the usual time but there can be no doubt but that Tob. must be down. You will without difficulty be able to secure Her load from the Bale: for Goods in Your hands. The Convicts last Voyage y. Isal & Restoration now especially if You sell them wholesale & perhaps You may be able to pick up something handsome for those that they may carry in next, all these together with our expectations for Tob. Pages & We flatter ourselves ample provision will be made as to the fr. in the fall. You will cast about & advise what can be done with Her. If anything occurs to Us will give You timely notice. We wish You a good sight of them Lay

Dear Sir,

Your Affec. Frds. Servts.

Stevenson & Randolph

Copy

The Snow now only waits for a Wind

Wm. & Chas. & Jas.