1773 Feb. 19 James Thoton to William Carroll

may think might turn out more to his Interest than the present Business, As I am perfectly satisfied, the trade we are now engaged in, with some little alteration in the Mode of conducting it could be as easy carried on by ~~[illegible]~~ as at present ~~[illegible]~~ I shall esteem it a further Obligation if I am aquainted with, ~~any~~ what more May happen in this Matter or ~~[illegible]~~ in Any Other of the like Nature, And Am with ~~great~~ Sincere esteem of Freindship —

Yours Very Humble Servt
