Mr. Oliver Beaver, of this district, has been granted an increase of pension to $10 per month.

Mr. Winfield S. Drach, of New Windsor, and Capt. James S. Baer, of Tannery, members of Burns Post, G. A. R., who have been ill, are improving.

Mr. Lemuel A. Cook, proprietor of the Anchor Hotel, requests us to express his sincere thanks to his neighbors for their kind assistance during the fatal illness of his wife.

Messrs. Reifsnider & Grimes, as attorneys of Mr. John Burt, have sold to Col. S. K. Herr 15½ acres of land on the west side of the Baltimore and Reisterstown turnpike near this city, at $75 per acre.

A marriage license was issued by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore, on Monday, to Mr. Charles H. Zepp, of Westminster, and Miss Hattie S. Burkhart. The license was obtained by Mr. Harry C. Westaway.

Mr. George Clarence Eichelberger has taken a position at the railroad office in this city, where he was formerly employed. His return here will give pleasure to his many friends in this city.

Mr. Edwin G. Van Deusen, formerly of Carrollton, obtained a license from the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, at Towson, on Monday, to marry Miss Mary D. Englar. Both reside now at Reisterstown.

Monday next, 24th, inst., will be St. Mathias' day, another saint supposed to rule the weather. According to the old couplet:

If he finds ice he'll break it,
If he finds none he'll make it.

Today, being the anniversary of the birth of Washington, is a legal holiday. The banks and county offices will be closed. The postoffice will be open during the usual hours, but only one delivery, that of the early morning, will be made by the carriers.

This February, to-date, has been a record-breaker for continuous cold weather. Up to yesterday, from the 2nd day of the month, the temperature rarely rose above the freezing point in the shade, and ice on milldams and ponds became a foot and a half thick. The ground is frozen to a depth of nearly two feet. Hail and snow, early yesterday morning, were succeeded by rain, with indications of a thaw.

Mrs. Jennie M. Cook, wife of Mr. Lemuel A. Cook, proprietor of the Anchor Hotel, this city, died on Monday, at the age of 33 years, 9 months and 11 days, after a short illness, of Bright's disease. Her husband and five children survive her. Her remains were interred in the burial ground of Deer Park Chapel, M. P. Church, on Wednesday, after funeral services conducted by Rev. C. S. Slagle, of this city, and Rev. C. J. Burdette, of Smallwood.

Mr. Henry Yingling, a native of Uniontown, died at the Continental Hotel, Martinsburg, W. Va., of which he was head clerk, on Wednesday night, of pneumonia, in his 71st year. Mr. Yingling was a well known hotel man, having been proprietor of the Washington House at Hagerstown, from 1852 until 1863, and from the latter date until a few years ago having conducted the hotel business in Gettysburg, Pa. His remains will be interred in Uniontown, at 2 o'clock, this afternoon.

From the series of Johns Hopkins University Studies in Historical and Political Science we have received a historical sketch, in a pamphlet of fifty-seven pages, of "Western Maryland in the Revolution," by Bernard C. Steiner, Ph. D., Associate in the University and Librarian of the Enoch Pratt Free Library. From a brief glance at the little work we are led to believe that it contains matter of deep interest to Americans generally, but especially to citizens of this locality.

It will be very gratifying to the many friends of Mr. John J. Baumgartner in this county to learn that he has been appointed law clerk in the legal department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Mr. Baumgartner is well equipped for the discharge of the very important duties of the position, upon which he has already entered. Until recently he was, for many years, the very capable and efficient auditor of the Circuit Court for this county and became widely and favorably known to the people of the county in that capacity.

The chopping mill, cider mill and blacksmith shop of Mr. John T. Edmondson, about one and a half miles from Bird Hill, in Woolery's district, were totally destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon, with their entire contents, consisting of the machinery, tools and a small quantity of grain. The chopping mill was the center of the structures, the others having adjoined it, and the whole covered about 75x35 feet of ground. The loss is estimated at $1500 to $2000. Mr. Edmondson has a policy of insurance for $1000 on buildings, in the Carroll County Company, but nothing on contents.

Messrs. Ward S. Ireland, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Levin I. Insley, of Bivalve, Md., and George L. Curry, of Hanes, N. C., have been elected by the Western Maryland College Young Men's Christian Association as delegates to attend the tri-State Young Men's Christian Association Convention to be held at Wheeling, W. Va., February 20 to 24. Mr. Ethol E. Parsons, of Pittsville, Md., a member of the senior class, will represent the College Young Men's Christian Association at the fourth international convention of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions to be held in Toronto, Canada, February 26 to March 4.

Mrs. Catherine Devilbiss, widow of the late William Devilbiss, of Frederick county, and daughter of the late John Hartsock of the same county, died at the residence of Mr. John B. T. Sellman, near Bloom, about midnight of Wednesday, in her 77th year. She leaves no children. Mrs. Sellman is her niece. She was an aunt of Mrs. Gustavus Barnes and Mrs. Jesse Lambert, of New Windsor; Mrs. John L. Sundergill, of Frederick county; Miss Maria Hartsock, of California; Mr. Daniel Hartsock, of Howard county, and Mr. Benton Hartsock, at Roanoke, Va. The funeral of the deceased will take place at Linganore, at 11 o'clock, this morning.

As had been anticipated for some weeks the Miller Brothers Company has been incorporated here for the purpose of conducting the large mercantile business established in this city by Messrs. Fred. D. Miller and Frank Z. Miller, and known as Miller Brothers' Popular Stores. The directors of the company are: Messrs. Fred. D. Miller, Frank Z. Miller, J. H. Handley, I. Scott Jordan, C. Edgar Nusbaum, Oliver M. Crouse and Charles D. Groff. Mr. Fred. D. Miller is president of the company, Frank Z. Miller vice-president and treasurer, and J. H. Handley secretary. All the members of the directory are experienced business men, and the organization is an exceptionally strong one. The president of the company, Mr. Fred D. Miller, is a director in the million-dollar mercantile company, of Baltimore and New York, generally known as the Lloyd Jackson Company.

Mrs. Fannie S. Pearson and Miss Mary B. Shellman, of this city, received a telegram from Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday morning, announcing the death of Mrs. Josephine Keith Shellman, widow of their brother, the late Harry Jones Shellman, the well known poet and author. Mrs. Shellman died on Tuesday evening, having survived her husband about eight years. She was a native of Georgia, and was graduated from a leading Southern university with honor. She was a lady of marked talent, a splendid vocalist and an accomplished artist, her specialty having been portrait painting. Her maiden name was Keith. She was married to Mr. Shellman at Christ Episcopal Church, Indianapolis, Ind., April 18th, 1879, by the rector, Rev. E. A. Bradley, D. D., and removed to Brooklyn in 1880, where she resided until her death. Two sons survive her—Harry Keith Shellman, in his 21st year, and James Meriwether Shellman, aged 13 years. Her remains were interred in Brooklyn.

The Circuit Court.

The only business transacted by the Circuit Court for Carroll county, since the close of last week's report, was the withdrawal of a juror and the entry of a non pros, in the case of Edward King, use of Joseph B. Miller, vs. George W. Albaugh, and the trial of John A. Barry, of Baltimore, for an alleged attempt to commit a criminal assault on Mrs. Mollie F. Blizzard, wife of Henry Blizzard, of Manchester district.

The last mentioned case was taken up on Monday and was concluded on Tuesday, with a verdict of not guilty, in fifteen minutes after the case was given to the jury. Mrs. Blizzard testified that the attempted assault occurred on the 6th of April, 1901, at the house on the farm owned by young Barry's mother, Mrs. James A. Barry, in Manchester district, about four miles from Hampstead and five miles from Carrollton. The warrant for his arrest was not sworn out until the following October or November. The father of the accused, Mr. James A. Barry, of the United States Weather Bureau, of Baltimore; Mrs. Barry and young Barry himself all swore positively that he was in Baltimore at the time of the alleged offence. The accused also testified that he had never at any time been guilty of the alleged attempt. Evidence was also advanced to show that Mrs. Blizzard stated, after the date mentioned, that John had always treated her with respect and had never been guilty of improper conduct toward her.

On cross-examination Mrs. Blizzard admitted that she had offered to compromise the matter for fifty dollars, including another claim which she alleged was due her by Mr. James A. Barry. She testified that he had agreed to that proposition, but he, when on the witness stand, stated, that he had not done so.

Young Barry, at the date when the offence was alleged, was in the employ of Messrs. Daniel Miller & Co., of Baltimore. On account of the prominence of the defendant and his family the trial excited much interest and the court house was thronged with spectators. The young man and his parents were heartily congratulated by members of the bar and other friends on the result of the trial. State's Attorney Weant conducted the prosecution in an able manner, and Messrs. Bond & Parke defended the accused with marked ability and legal skill.

All the jurors not on the panel were discharged on Monday and the remainder on Tuesday, until Tuesday next, when it is understood the Milk Association cases will be taken up.

Frances Willard Memorial.

A Frances Willard memorial meeting was held at Carroll Hall, last Monday evening, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., the Y's and the Boys' Meeting of this city. The exercises were beautiful and appropriate. This is the first public meeting held in Carroll Hall since the improvements made at the suggestion of the Y's, and we congratulate the Sons of Temperance upon the work done. The Hall is now a very attractive place for public meetings. A silver offering for the Memorial Fund was taken up at the door.

The following program was splendid-rendered:

Congregational singing, "All hail the power; scripture, 145 Psalm, Mrs. C. Billingslea; prayer, Rev. P. H. Mr. Allen Cramer, of Baltimore, spent several days here last week, visiting his father, who is again very ill.

Mrs. Miller, who has her home with her son-in-law, Mr. David Brown, is very ill at this writing.

We are glad to note that Mr. Wesley Frank is able to be about again after a sickness of several weeks.

Christian Endeavor meeting at Miller's Church, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Brethren Baptists, of Black Rock, will have preaching services at Miller's schoolhouse on Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock.

A crowd of young folks from this place visited the home of Mr. Henry Lessner, at Manchester, on Tuesday evening last, where they were welcomed by the family. No time was lost in commencing the evening's enjoyment, for which all necessary arrangements had been made previous to the arrival of the happy sleighers. Various games were indulged in until ten o'clock when refreshments were served. At an appropriate hour the merry sleighers left for their homes elated with the evening's entertainment. All extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lessner their hearty thanks for their generous hospitality.

Gaither Items.

Miss M. E. Gilliss will attend the meeting of the Teachers' Association on Friday.

Miss Lillian Hewitt is still on the sick list, but improving slowly.

Miss Minnie McQuay, who had been on the sick list, is out again.

Telephone News.

A statement in correspondence of the Baltimore newspapers from Boyds, Montgomery county, in relation to a combination of the telephone lines of Montgomery, Carroll, Frederick and Washington counties, Maryland, and of certain counties in Virginia and West Virginia, is inaccurate, in some respects at least. We are informed, upon reliable authority, that the syndicate which is said to have purchased a controlling interest in the several companies referred to, has not been able to obtain this control of the Frederick County Company, which is yet in the hands of its local stockholders. Nothing is known by local officers of the Carroll County Company about work being in progress on an extension of its lines to Mt. Airy. Such an extension is certainly desirable, but does not appear to have been yet undertaken, although it is in contemplation. Much of what is related in the Boyds communication is ancient history. Months ago the control of the company in this county passed into the hands of the syndicate referred to, and it was said at the time that the other systems named were also included in the deal. Undoubtedly efforts towards this combination have been made, but to exactly what extent they have been successful it is impossible yet to state with absolute accuracy.

Recent occurrences seem to indicate with certainty that the Washington County Company is in it. A special from Hagerstown to the Baltimore American, dated on Saturday last, says: "Stockholders of the Maryland Telephone Company, at a meeting held in Hagerstown today, elected the following officers: President, S. L. Johns, of McSherrystown, Pa.; vice-president, Alexander Neill, of Hagerstown; secretary and treasurer, John B. Kleffer, Hagerstown; directors, H. N. Gitt, George D. Gitt, Hanover, Pa.; Thomas J. O'Neill, McSherrystown, Pa.; Chas. E. Fink, Westminster, Md.; J. Clarence Lane, Hagerstown. It was decided to extend the line from Sabillasville to Westminster, thereby giving Hagerstown connection with Baltimore; also to build lines from Hagerstown to Ringgold, Wolfesville, Reid, Sharpsburg, Breathedsville, Tilghmanton, St. James College, Bakersville, Leitersburg and other points."

Manchester Items.

The bill introduced by Rep. Ganter last week to provide an academic fund for our High School excited no little attention not only in town but in the surrounding country. Not only the directly interested patrons and taxpayers but all classes are taking a hand in the discussion. Although two-sided there is quite a preponderance in its favor, but like many other things it has politics to fight and the latest is that there is a "nigger in the woodpile." Mr. Jno. E. Masenheimer went to Annapolis in its interest, feeling that he was not a beggar but was there to uphold that which we are entitled to. That there is part of the old academic fund alive is evidenced by the annual appropriation to education in our county, independent of the public school fund. There is no just reason why it should be centralized in one. Why not appropriate it among the chartered academic institutions of the county, (of which we have one among the oldest) and then its good and influence would be felt from Mt. Airy to Lineboro and from Harney to Marriotsville and the taxpayers and voters could so arrange in their respective sections to have their children drink in of its benefits and be promoted to a higher plane of education than that now given in our public schools. We have at least 40 or 50 of just such boys and girls who are pushing their way to that high plane and to whom it would be a blessing. Our people, though in good circumstances, generally, are not so well to do as to be able to send their children away to school, and by getting this paltry appropriation would be able to arrange for a High School although it has been said that the 5th grade is good enough for us. It is the duty of every voter of old Dug Hill to watch this matter closely and when the denial comes, to paste it in his hat, with the how, why and through whom it came and in 1903 show his position at the ballot box.

The remains of Mrs. Henry McHalie, south of town, were laid away to rest on Friday in a family lot here, Rev. H. H. Flick officiating. She died at her home on Wednesday from pneumonia at the age of 45 years. She was a daughter of the late Joseph Lippy, of Westminster district.

"The Wanderer's Return," a drama, in four acts, from Tennyson's Enoch Arden, will be played by a company of ladies and gentlemen in the I. O. O. F. Hall, of this place, for the benefit of the Manchester Fire Engine, Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, on Saturday evening, 22nd inst.

At an adjourned citizens' meeting on Friday evening last a committee reported a bill to be enacted by the legislature empowering the Mayor and Council to collect 6c on the hundred dollars of the assessable property of the corporation until the indebtedness on the Firemen's building is cancelled, when it becomes void. The amount to be collected will be $102 yearly.

Mr. Geo. C Harmon, our popular butcher in this neighborhood, tells us, and has figures to show, that during this butchering season he killed for his farmer friends here, forty-eight thousand seven hundred and twenty seven lbs. of pork and beef and dressed them for the salting tub.

Following are some of the weights: Thos. Yingling, 6, 800, and one beef 280 lbs.; John W. Few, 12 spring pigs 2400, one beef 387; Wm. Zepp, 4, 808; John Dodrer, one, 576, seven 1961 and two beeves 872; Chas. Welk, 8, 1787, one beef 283; Chas. Humpert, 3, 720; Geo. C. Harmon, 3 spring pigs, 307, 291, 244; Arthur Master, 6 spring pigs, 1357; John Arthur, one beef 460; Wm. Formwalt, one, 548 and 6 spring pigs, 1089; Charles Shuey, 3, 630; Geo. Babylon, 2, 328; Jos. Formwalt, 1, 595, and 8 spring pigs 2085; Henry Sell, 4, 823, and one beef 352; Wm. Flickinger, one 576, and 7 spring pigs, 1587, and one, beef 350; Wm. Yingling, 8, 1529; Samuel Crouse, 3, 500; Jacob Rodkey, 9, 1313; Thomas Myer, 3, 592; Theo. Cummings, 2, 393; Jos. Myers, one white Chester, 610; Wm. Myers, one, 623.

Messrs. George C. Harmon and David H. Hahn appraised the personal property and money in bank of Wm. Heltabridle, deceased, and the whole amount aggregated $2061.75.

New York Bargain House.

We offer just one special item for your consideration this week, but it is of sufficient interest to demand such prominence.

Ladies' fine new Umbrellas, with pretty pearl and silver handles, latest style, best paragon frames, covered with gloria cloth and will not fade, will turn all the rain, medium size for ladies' use. We bought them from a leading New York maker who was overstocked; that is why we can sell them so cheap. We have never seen better umbrella values. While this lot lasts, only 93 cents.

93 Cents.

The work of improvement goes right on. We are about through with the first floor and the inside work and the outside work will be pushed just as fast as the weather will permit.

We thank you all for your patience in bearing with us during the past two weeks when the stock was of necessity more or less upset and dust and dirt was so evident. That is all over now and everything is in good shape once more.

NEW YORK BARGAIN HOUSE,

Feb. 22nd 1902. T. W. Mather & Sons. 31 E. Main Street, Westminster, Md.

Frizellburg Items.

Some of our young men speak of going West in the near future. We are inclined to think that the warm weather of spring will alter their intentions.

A monster kidney was taken from the left side of a beef killed on the premises of Mr. Chas. Myers last week. It weighed 31 pounds. It was a curiosity to those who saw it and baffled the knowledge of the butcher who has had a wide experience.

With a week's fair weather the gross earnings of the oyster supper held by the military company last week exceeded $83. About half of this amount was realized on Saturday night.

Mr. Howard Koontz went to Baltimore on Tuesday and returned the same day.

Edna, oldest daughter of Capt. John Auer, is quite ill with pneumonia.

The constant cold weather has reduced the sick list and banished the grip almost entirely from our midst.

Harry Null and Levi Zahn spent Sunday with the latter's parents at Bird Hill.

In response to an item which appeared last week, of early chicks, Mr. Milton A. Myers, a wide-awake poultry raiser, says he can beat it. On the 15th of January he had 40 young chicks hatched by hens. On February 16th the total number hatched was 103 out of 117 eggs. He has now 98 living. He contradicts the theory that 25-cent eggs for hatching do not pay, claiming that one chick will pay for a dozen in a short time, and realize more money than by setting 12-cent eggs and selling the chicks for 8 and 10 cents per pound. Mr. Myers prefers the hens for his use and through good management he has generally a lot of early fowls.

Mr. Harry L. Rinehart and wife left on Wednesday for parts of Virginia, where they will visit Mrs. R's. sister, Mrs. George Baumgardner.

The home of Mr. Frederick Harver was the scene of a delightful surprise party, given in honor of his daughter Myrtle, by a number of her associates, on Wednesday evening. The jolly band arrived in a body and to their surprise found the recipient in great glee ready to entertain them. After several happy hours were spent together refreshments were served and all went home well filled and quite merry.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Miss Mamie Myers, of Union Mills, is the guest of Mrs. Cora Leister.

Mr. Granville Black, whose illness was noticed in the paper several weeks ago, is not improving very fast.

Mr. John Erb, who was very ill from pneumonia, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. John H. Brown is still unable to work.

Miss Daisy Miller, of Baltimore, is home on a visit and expects to return to the city on Monday.

Mr. J. Elmer Myers purchased a fine lot of capons of Mrs. Jonas F. Yingling and among the lot was one that dressed 11½ pounds.

Mr. Harry Myers and wife were the guests of the Misses Wertz, near New Windsor, on Sunday.

Mrs. H. T. Wantz spent Tuesday at Mr. Geo. Eckard's.

Rev. James B. Stonesifer has services here in the Church one hour, every Wednesday afternoon, from 2 until 3 o'clock, during Lent. Those who have not been attending these services will be benefitted by doing so, as they are very interesting.

Mr. Geo. Morelock killed the champion hog this week. It weighed 671 pounds, and he would like to know if any one can beat it. Pleasant Valley still ahead.

A number of ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Chas. Black on last Thursday, to engage in quilting. At 12 o'clock all were invited to the dining room, where a bountiful dinner was awaiting them. Refreshments were served in the afternoon when all took their departure, expressing themselves as having spent a very enjoyable day. Those present were: Mrs. Chas. Black, Mrs. Laura Hahn, Mrs. Elenora Myers, Mrs. Aug. Warehime, Mrs. Edward Strevege, Mrs. Cora Myers, Misses Fannie Geiman, Annie Geiman, Mr. Charles Geiman and Master Henry Geiman.

Subscribers wishing their addresses changed must state their former as well as new address.

Taylorsville Items.

Our section has been enjoying an unusual period of good sleighing, and the youngsters have been putting in full time coasting.

Mrs. Sarah Barnes has been quite ill, but her condition is improving.

Rev. C. E. Dudrear had been laid up with the grippe for a week or two but is now out again.

The fourth Quarterly Conference of the West Falls Circuit will be held on Saturday, 22nd inst., at 2 p. m., at Taylorsville Church. The presiding elder, Rev. Dr. Baldwin, will be present and will preach at Taylorsville Saturday evening at 7.30. He will also preach at West Fal's Sunday morning and at Mt. Olive in the afternoon. Friends in these neighborhoods will please note this.

The proposed new railroads to pass through our section are already having a quickening effect. If the steam and electric railways are built along the routes proposed, they will cross in or near our village making, it a center of interest.

Considerable changes in residences will take place in and about this place in the spring.

Mrs. Mary Pickett, widow of the late Thomas Pickett, has purchased a house and lot in the village from Mr. Thomas A. Barnes and it is reported that Dr. A. T. Cronk intends building a residence here in the near future. He and his family will make a valuable addition to the place.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

One of the largest parties of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Haight, near Oakland Mills, on Wednesday evening of last week. Music and games were the features of the evening. At 11.30 all were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served. At a late hour they departed for their homes after thanking their hostess for a very pleasant evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Haight, Misses Mollie Williams, Carrie Ware, Florence Arnold, Bessie Phillips, Lillian Herrera, Annie Brandenburg, Maud, Bertie and Jennie Jones, Annie and Belle Haight, Messrs. Charlie, William and John Williams, John, George and William Brandenburg, Truman Albaugh, Garfield Herrera, Harry Litz, Tyson Oursler, John Bolinger, Arthur Barnett, Henry Ware, Arcemus Parker, Robert, Enos and Calvin Phillips.

A Delightful Party.

The home of Mrs. Susan M. Hood, on the Ridge road, near Mt. Airy, was the scene of a very pleasant party on Tuesday evening, February 11, 1902, given in honor of her son and daughter, Mr. Jesse and Miss Ellonie Hood. Early in the evening the guests began to arrive and soon the house was comfortably filled. The guests were very cordially received. The evening was spent in games, plays and amusements until 12 o'clock, when all were invited to the dining room to partake of refreshments, which were served in abundance, consisting of cake, confectionery and lemonade. Games were again resumed and continued until near the hour of 3 A. M., when all bade adieu to their friends having greatly enjoyed themselves. Those present were: Mrs. Susan M. Hood, Mr. John Hood and wife, Mr. Edgar Mercer and wife, Mr. Lee Cain and wife, Mrs. Rufus Flickinger, Mr. Thomas Hood and wife, Mr. Basil Gosnell and wife, Mrs. Caroline Hinkle, Misses Oudia Flickinger, Elsie Gunn, Clara Garver, Ellonie Hood, Katie Dempsey, Lulu Chaney, Emily Gosnell, Rachel Cain, Emma Flickinger, Dorie Baumgartner, Maud Flemming, Gertie Cover, Lillie Buckingham, Norma Flemming, Dollie Brashear, Celia Mullinix, Effie Gartrell, Mary Adams, Lillie Flemming, Margaret Gist, Edith Flemming, Mary Rigler, Verdie Cover, Mamie Gunn, Pearl Mullinix, Effie Crawford, Lizzie Buckingham, Gladys Brashear, Julia Barnes, Christie Reese, Verdie Condon, Daisy Bear, Lillie Adams, Grace Condon, Amelia Barnes, Vergie Hood, Messrs. A Taffy-Pulling Party.

An interesting and enjoyable surprise taffy-pulling party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lockard, of Smallwood, on Saturday evening. Some of the expert taffy-pullers astonished the other members of the party by their skill in producing curious shapes from the boiled sugar and syrup, and all enjoyed the occasion immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Lockard, though the subjects of the surprise, treated their self-invited guests with true hospitality and kindness. At 11 o'clok the dining room table was spread with taffy, which was served, with refreshments, and it was midnight when the party broke up and all retired to their homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Lockard, Mrs. Wm. Spencer, Mrs. B. Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, Misses Laura Lockard, Melvie Lockard, Mollie Hill, Lillian Frick, Estella M. Lockard, Bessie A. Lockard, Almeda Lockard, Millie Spencer, Sallie Spencer; Rev. Harry G. Spencer, of New Jersey; Messrs. Wm. Hill, Albert Spencer, Charles Lockard, Wm. O.
