1773 MARCH 6 NICHOLAS [HOGG] TO ?

SIDE ONE

March 6th 1773 —

Sir

have Sent you thirteen Pounds Cureney By Mr Johnlock
I Could not Get all the money which I owe you Conveniently I Should have Come Down my Self — tho am Inhopes you will not Distress me for the Ballance Before Some Time in august — By those I Can Sell my Tob.co have about Seven Hd.s which is Extraordinary Good & you may Fully Depend will pay you according to promise, tho am ~~Inhopes you will make Some abatement for my Bad~~ Bargain when I see you — the Girl I Bought of you Kathrine Logg By Name which I was to Give Fifteen Pound for is not worth one Farthing — But Very Great Expence She has ~~the~~ Fits all most Perpetually — and has Been Under the Doctors hands now a Long while and there is no hopes of her Getting Cured — She Tells me that you & the Captain Both ~~of~~ knew of her having Fits For She had them often Coming Over Sea — I think it was not Quite Generous to Sell Such a person with out Letting the Buyer know of it — for it is just taking a mans money for Nothing Besides the Expence of Doctering which will Cost me Near as much as the Girl did at First

Sorrow for your Usual Fate

Nicholas

Pd Send me a Receipt & give Cr on the Bond
