1773 MARCH 14 WALTER TOLLEY, JR. TO [illegible]

SIDE TWO

advise it as the most sure & perhaps speedy Method — Previous to the March Court in which the Actions ag.t Fell & Banks & Banks & Fell were struck off, I rec.d from them I clearly recollect Five Pounds Currency with which they are or ought to have been credited in your Books, that Sum I think did either exactly or very nearly make the total of both the actions, I had them struck off in Consequence of Fell's promising to pay the Residue if any & the Cost in a Short Time, in a Week or two after the then succeeding Court, that Promise I dare say has never been fulfilled. & I look upon Myself as justly obliged to pay you whatever the £5 — may be short of the Debt & Cost for suffering Myself to be the Dupe of Credulity. I got the Copy of the Cost & in both the Actions it amounted to 35/ reckoning the Tob.o (D 12/6) if there be any Balance on the Notes of Hand please to acquaint Me with it — D.r Sir Will Respect Your
