1773 MARCH 23 JAMES BRICE TO ?

SIDE ONE

Dr James

I spoke to Mr Hard about the Wine and asked 63 £ Cash for it He told me if he could procure the Money he would ~~[illegible]~~ give that Sum the next Day he said he was told the Wine would not be fit to use for two or three Years and as he could not lay out of his Money so long would not purchase it but if you will let me know the precise Qty of the Wine I'll speak again to him perhaps he may take it

Glad at your Letter by Mr [illegible] when I sent the Money for the Nails and that as the Reason of the Mistake I have not the [illegible] Sum ~~[illegible]~~ present or else would remit [illegible] send a Cask of 20 d and I will pay altogether

Iam D. Sir Yrs Affy
