1773 March 24 William Stevenson to [illegible]

SIDE TWO

more than I have repeatedly said to You on this occasion, & I still keep up my expectation Day after Day, it is a more vexation to be in this situation, when We have so much Money due to us, which ought to have been paid long ago, I am sure I have reason enough to execrate Smyth & Sudler Who have kept us out of our money, whilst I know they have paid their Debts to Jordan, which was so much later contracted, if it is not soon discharg'd We must compell them — Court has been oblig'd to call His Creditors together, Who have given Him time for payment, but I suppose His purchasing is put a stop to, as he must have burnt His Fingers last year. There is much talk of a War within these two Days, but with Whom no one can tell. We heard from Fanny a few Days ago Who was well, Bensley & She will be down here in June. Mrs Stevenson joins in Love to You & Dan with Dear Jemmy

Your sincerely Affec: Brother

Wm Stevenson
