1773 APRIL 8 BUFF & WELSH TO [illegible]

SIDE TWO

hearing in the place, of any further exports from the Country our prices are likely thereby to support till towards the time of the harvest, & such cargoes as may arrive from America in the course of this, & of the next month, are likely we think to obtain tolerable prices. as to flour it continues heavy at 40 rs. & the prices in America ought to decline considerably to leave room to expect getting any thing by engagements in it, We take the liberty of troubling you with an inclosed circular letter from Messrs Thelly Honor & Co. of St Lucar in which establishment you will perceive we are concerned. we also send you a price current of our different exports & imports & will in due time advise you of the issue of our ops. we are sincerely.

Sir

Your most obedt. servts

Buff & Welsh.

London 8th April 1773

Buff & Welsh