SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1902.

The Philadelphia Record says that, apparently, "Peter H. Strubinger, the Democratic tool of the Machine in Adams county, Pa., has a head that is aching for another defeat for Congress in the York-Adams district." Strubinger is the Democratic boss in Adams county, but a good many members of his party are in rebellion against his authority.

United States Attorney General Knox is investigating the Beef Combine, which has just been nearly doubling the price of beef to consumers. An amendment to the Constitution of the United States should be adopted giving Congress full power to deal with such combinations. It would be a great deal better to provide by law for the suppression of all organizations engaged in levying black mail on the public by raising prices to the utmost limit, than to wait until an outraged populace takes the law in its own hands and resorts to improper means to attain that end.

Competition for the purchase of the Western Maryland Railroad is putting up the price. The Reading Railroad Company has advanced its bid from $7,004,098.99 to $10,001,000 spot cash; The Hambleton-Cook Syndicate offers $9,250,000 spot cash, instead of $6,000,000 in cash and $4,000,000 in stock; the Varney Syndicate raises itsbid to $10,100,000 spot cash, and the Fuller Syndicate agrees to an ordinance prepared by Mayor Hayes, which advances its bid to $8,751,370.45, with the assertion that this sum is its limit. An ordinance has been prepared and may be passed by the City Council, to put up the road at public auction and limit the bidding to the present bidders.

The passage of the bill for which the Legislature was convened in extra session this week fixes the State tax rate for two years at 17 cents on the hundred dollars. This, the Baltimore Sun says, "is a very low rate of taxation and it is believed that it is lower than that of most of the States of the Union." That may be so, but in the great State of Pennsylvania, our neighbor on the north, there is no direct State tax at all, on real estate. None of the revenue which comes from the direct tax upon property in Maryland goes to support the Government of the State. Nearly three-fourths of it is distributed to the city and the counties to aid in the support of the public schools and to supply school books, while the remainder is to pay the interest on and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption of the State debt at maturity. The exact figures are 12½ cents for schools and books and 4½ cents for the debt. The cost of conducting the State Government is paid from the tax on gross receipts of corporations, licenses and some other special taxes.

The Advocate suggests Charles E. Fink, Esq., of this city, as the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Second district, and says that, while he is not a candidate, it has "no doubt he would accept the nomination if tendered him." The Advocate, while not directly making a plea for Carroll county, in suggesting Mr. Fink's name, does incidentully refer to the fact that the last nominee from the county was Dr. Frank T. Shaw, whose second term expired thirteen years ago. The fact may not cut much of a figure with the Democrats outside of the county, as Carroll has had several of her representative Democrats in Congress heretofore; but it is extremely probable that the county will go for Mr. Fink in the convention this year, if he should consent to the use of his name. In this connection, it may be said that, if an intermission of thirteen years furnishes a reasonable plea for the nomination of another Carroll county Democrat, the fact that, in the fifty-five years of the county's connection with the Second district no Carroll county Republican has had that honor, gives her, now, an imperative right to demand such recognition.

By resolutions, passed by the Common Council of Westminster, approved by Mayor Gilbert, and published in the advertising columns of the SENTINEL, it will be seen that the voters of the city will be called upon to decide, at the municipal election on the 5th of may, whether the city shall "issue its bonds or certificates of indebtedness to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars for the purpose of providing that amount of money to enable the mayor and common council * * * to subscribe for and purchase capital stock of the Washington, Westminster and Gettysburg Rail Road Company." The matter is of great importance and should receive the careful attention of the legal voters of the city. Undoubtedly the construction of the railroad referred to would be of great and permanent advantage to the town if the line should pass through it. It is proper, however, that the citizens of the town should be made thoroughly acquainted with everything relating to the subject, and the columns of the SENTINEL are open, to a reasonable extent, to those especially interested, whether for or against the bond issue, as a medium of furnishing correct information to the citizens in relation to the enterprise.

Doesn't Believe In Tariff Reform.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is supposed to have the Presidential bee in his bonnet, and whom the Democrats have sometimes talked about as a possible nominee, does not believe in tariff reform. In discussing a speech of David B. Hill, of New York, made at the Jefferson Day celebration in New York City, he said:

"Mr. Hill's talk about limiting the capitalization of the corporations and their dividends is absolute folly. There are only two ways to handle big corporations. The first is to make them pay their share of the taxes, and the second is to grant no more privileges without protecting the interests of the people.

"Any plans for tariff reform will fail. There can be no tariff reform. The Democrats must either stand for abolishing the tariff entirely or keep still."

Mayor Johnson is understood to be a free trader of the pronounced sort and, apparently, wants no tariff tinkering short of the entire abolition of the tariff. He is, at least, consistent in his views, but they will be fatal to his Presidential aspirations.

The Extra Session.

The extra session of the Maryland Legislature, called by Governor Smith to remedy the omission to pass a bill at the regular session to provide a state tax levy, was held on Wednesday and lasted two hours and a half. It is said there was a desire on the part of some of the members to prolong the session, but the coalition previously formed by the Republican members of the House, the four Democratic members from Anne Arundel county and Mr. Straus, of Baltimore, was maintained and promptly indicated its purpose to finish up the business on hand and adjourn. The only change made in the officers was the substitution of Eden B. Watts, of Anne Arundel county, as sergeant-at-arms, in place of Isaac T. J. Brown, of Somerset county. This was done by the coalition because Brown, under a call of the House at the regular session, refused to force the doors of the Senate chamber, and bring out absentee Democrats who were holding a caucus while the House was in session.

Two bills were passed at this extra session—the bill fixing the State tax rate and providing for the collection of the tax, and a bill appropriating $10,000 to meet the expenses of the session. There was some opposition to the appropriation bill and a number of Senators and members of the House proposed to hold the session without expense to the State. This, of course, was an impossibility, as the per diem and mileage of the legislators only made up a portion of the expenses and they were not invested with authority to donate the pay of the officers and other miscellaneous claims to the State. Some of those who proposed to relieve the State of all outlay in the matter may have been sincere, but it is hard to resist the conviction that others made the occasion a pretext for gaining a bogus reputation for liberality. The sincere ones have an opportunity to prove the value of their action in the premises by declining to accept their share of the appropriation.

As the Legislature was in session only two and a half hours the cost per minute, based upon the $10,000 appropriation, was $66.66⅔, a pretty little sum for the tax-payers to make good for the blunder which left the State without a tax rate.

Winding Up The Insurrection.

If the suppression of the Philippine insurrection and the pacification of the Filipinos has been so slow as to tax the patience of the American people, the work has gone forward in a manner to make it finally successful and permanent. Gradually and certainly the inhabitants of the archipelago are being brought to realize the benevolence as well as the power of the American Government and many of them hail the overthrow of the insurrectionists as a deliverance from most intolerable conditions. The following dispatch from Manila, under date of the 16th inst., brings the latest news from those far-away possessions of the United States:

Manila, April 16.—General Malvar has unconditionally surrendered to Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, at Lipa, Batangas province, with the entire insurgent force of the provinces of Laguna and Batangas. General Bell says his (Bell's) influence is sufficient to quell the insurrectionary movements in Tayabas and Cavite provinces and capture all those in the field who have not yet surrendered; but Malvar has ordered the complete surrender of every insurgent to the nearest American force.

General Wheaton, reporting to the division headquarters, says that all resistance in his department has ended and that the surrenders just announced mean that the ports will be opened and that the Filipinos in the detention camps can be allowed to return to their homes in time to plant the crops.

Gen. Wheaton is especially pleased with Gen. Bell's care of the natives confined in the camps. The officers in charge are held personelly responsible for the quality and quantity of food served out and for the general welfare of the occupants of the camps.

After scouring the mountain passes Gen. Bell employed volunteer bolomen for protection against ladronism. Numbers of Filipinos volunteered, and expressed the liveliest satisfaction at the treatment accorded to themselves and to their families, who were in the concentration camps.

Gen. Wheaton gives Gen. Bell great credit for his indefatigability in conducting the campaign. He was in the field on horseback day and night, personally superintending the most arduous operations.

About 3,300 rifles have been received by the American officers in Batangas and Laguna Provinces during the past four months.

Gen. Malvar personally requested an interview with Gen. Bell, in order to make his complete submission.

The lack of news from the Island of Samar is due to a defective cable. It is believed, however, that the American commander there received yesterday the surrender of all the insurgents in Samar unless the planned proceedings were altered.

A case of cholera has occurred on the transport Hancock, which arrived here on Sunday last, and she has been quarantined.

Wants Sound Money for the Philippines.

The "Volcano," a newspaper recently established in Manila, is bitterly hostile to the debased silver dollar which constitutes the coin in circulation in our new posessions in the far East. The "Volcano" says:

The money situation in the Philippines, to say the least, is embarrassing. This is due to a depraved dollar so absolutely characterless that it depreciates itself to appreciate another dollar of a different stamp. The Mexican dollar, with the eagle, the snake, the cactus branch, the sun-burst and the cap of liberty, is a monetary profligate with no fixed or redeemable value. It doesn't know that its redeemer liveth. It is at all times the helpless victim of avarice, cupidity and usury. Let the banks refuse to receive it as a deposit, and it drops in value two per cent. or more. Let the butcher, the baker and the candle-stick maker refuse to receive it and their goods, although they remain on the shelves, appreciate in value while there is a further depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar.

A dollar without a fixed unit cannot be a dollar. The Mexican dollar is a misnomer; it is not a dollar, it is a coin.

This is sound logic and it is hard to understand how a Congressman who believes in its application at home should repudiate it when applied to the Philippine Islands. A stable and reliable currency is just as necessary to the business interests and prosperity of the Philippines as it is in America. The financial legislation of Congress for these islands should look to the speedy establishment of the gold standard there.

Mr. Silas W. L. Beard, for the last twenty years agent of the Western Maryland Railroad at Potomac Station, Hagerstown, and previous to that time a merchant and railroad agent at Chewwsville, died on the 10th inst., in his 58th year.

It is the opinion in Washington that Senator-elect Gorman, of Maryland, will not find it easy to regain his former leadership in the Senate.

For the Sentinel.

Judge Reifsnider for Congress.

The approaching congressional convention of the Republican party in this congressional district is commencing to excite some comment as to the probable result of its action. Carroll county has not had a candidate since that of the lamented Judge Smith, more than 30 years ago, and never at all during its connection with the Second district, a period of fifty-five years, the county having formed part of the Sixth district at the time of Judge Smith's candidacy. This circumstance naturally induces many Republicans to argue in favor of the next selection being made from Carroll. The Democratic party in this district has been extremely liberal in bestowing congressional honors on members of its organization in our county, but no Republican has ever been before the people of the Second district as a candidate for Congressional honors though Baltimore, Harford and Cecil counties have been repeatedly thus honored.

Whatever may be the rules of political etiquette in the matter of conceding a second trial to the successful member, the circumstance of non-residence, it would appear, should have some consideration in the case of the present representative. The argument, however, of your correspondent, is not so much on the score of the inadvisability of the renomination of the gentleman, not now, as is said, a resident of the Second Congressional district, but to call the attention of the people of our county to our claims and the imperative necessity of speedy action.

The splendid vote of Judge Reifsnider in the recent judicial contest, his majority of 154, carrying eight districts out of the thirteen and every precinct in his home district, shows that it was a result due in a large measure to his popularity as well as, also, an endorsement of his judicial conduct on the bench. His eminent fitness at this peculiar period renders him in the judgment of many men, without reference to party, as the man that Carroll county should present as having the strongest claims in the convention for its support. His antagonisms are not in his own political ranks, for if it be conceded that this county is entitled to the candidate, then no man knows of any Republican who could poll a more united vote of his own party nor create a greater division in the opposition, if the opposition's present methods are to prevail.

Your correspondent hopes that this communication will bring a response from many others who entertain similar opinions.

Synod of Reformed Church to Gather.

The fourteenth triennial meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States will be held at the First Reformed Church, Calvert street, near Reed street, Baltimore, May 20 to June 1. The sessions will be attended by 325 delegates from all sections of the country. There will also be about 175 visitors, and President Roosevelt has consented to receive the members of the Synod, who will visit Washington for that purpose, on Thursday, May 22. The reception will take place at 2.30 P. M. At the request of the President the visiting party will be limited to 375. The trip to Washington and return will be made by special train. President Roosevelt is a member of the Reformed Church, but his wife is an Episcopalian.

It was expected that the cornerstone of the new Reformed Church in Washington, which is to be known as the "President's Church," would be laid during this visit, but as the plans for the structure have not been completed, that ceremony will be deferred to a later period.

The program of the opening week of the Synod is as follow:

Tuesday Evening, May 20—Sermon by the retiring president of the Synod, Rev. Dr. C. S. Gerhardt, of Reading, Pa. It is not known who will be Dr. Gerhardt's successor.

Wednesday, May 21, Education Day—Address by Rev. Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, Pennsylvania state superintendent of education. There will also be addresses by other prominent speakers.

Thursday, May 22—Delegates received by the President at the White House.

Thursday Evening—Mass-meeting in the Academy of Music, at which the President's pastor, Rev. Dr. M. Schick, will preside.

Friday Evening, May 23—Public meeting in First Church of the various Women's Missionary societies of the Synod, with addpeses by well-known workers and returned missionaries.

Saturday Evening, May 24—General reception in First Church, with music, speeches and refreshments.

Sunday Afternoon, May 25—Mass-meeting of all Reformed Sunday Schools in Baltimore, to be held in Ford's Opera House. Speeches will be made by prominent Sunday school workers.

Monday, May 26—The general sessions will begin officially and the delegates will receive greetings from sister denominations.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the noted Presbyterian divine, died at 9 o'clock, Saturday night, at his residence in Washington, D. C. It had been evident for some days that there was no hope of recovery, and the attending physicians so informed the family. The patient gradually grew weaker, until life passed away so quietly that even the members of the family, all of whom were watching at the bedside, hardly knew that he had gone. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the brain. Dr. Talmage's sermons were published weekly, for many years past, in many of the newspapers of the country and were probably read by more persons than those of any other preacher who has ever lived. He was gifted with powers of imagery and eloquence in a remarkable degree.

A paragraph in the Annapolis correspondence of the Baltimore American of Thursday, though strictly accurate, is somewhat confusing. It contains the statement that Gov. Smith has set Friday, June 20, for the execution of Frank James and John Johnson, "the murderers of Radetsky near Mt. Airy in Carroll county." This has led some persons to suppose that the men named will be executed in this county. This is a mistake. The murder was not committed in Carroll county, but in Frederick county, near the boundary between the two counties.

State Fire Marshal Robert M. [illegible] and Deputy Marshal Chas. V. [illegible] are investigating a fire that occurred early last Saturday morning on the Lee farm, Painter's Mill road, Owing's Mills, Baltimore county. The farm is tenanted by Mr. R. E. [illegible] maker. The large barn and its contents and the stable were burned. Four or five horses and mules were cremated, although Mr. Shoema[illegible] saved his cattle. Twenty tons of hay was destroyed. The loss is about $3,500, the insurance amounting to $[illegible] 000.

Luther M. Davis was instantly killed and C. H. Rubeck seriously injured by the premature explosion of dynamite at Pinesburg, on the Potomac Valley Branch of the Western Maryland Railroad. They were blasting rocks in a quarry and were tamping a charge of dynamite containing ten or twelve sticks of the explosive, when the accident occurred. Davis was hurled a distance of thirty feet from the spot and his body badly mangled and mutilated.

Another advance in flour is expected this week, in Baltimore, and meat dealers are momentarily waiting for a further increase in their line. The claim is made by most of the dealers that the beef combination has taken advantage of the scarcity of cattle caused by a natural condition to raise prices to the limit.

A kidnapping scheme, in which the person to be kidnapped was a young son of Mr. Wm. L. Gladfelter, of Spring Grove, Pa., and the ransom to be demanded the tidy sum of $10,000 under pain of the murder of the boy, is the sensational story contained in the York Daily, of recent date.

Henry Fisher, an infirm old colored man, was burned to death in his home at Unionville, Frederick county, about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. His house took fire from some unknown cause, and as he was unable to help himself or summon assistance the place was consumed and he was burned to a crisp.

Judge W. H. Taft, the Civil Governor of the Philippines, who has been in this country for some time, and who gave valuable information to Congress in relation to Philippine affairs, will stop in Rome when returning to Manila and try to arrange with the Vatican a settlement of the friars' land question.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon.
