SIDE ONE

Charlestown April the 10th 1773

Dear Sir

I have your several Favours of the 3. & 7th Instant. Capt. McGachens Schooner sailed this place Thursday Night up to Conneggo for your Corn she is very unfitt to go up this River as the Skipper tells me that she draws 10 feet Water when Loaded your Schooner would not have been detained so long had not the Weather been uncommonly bad and Martin being Sick & his people behaved very bad. I have provided a pilot for the Schooner as soon as she arrived here, of which youll please to inform Mr McGachen, and have urged the Delivery of the Corn as quick as possible which I hope will be in time for the Snow youll please to remember a Shoemaker for me and a Carpenter for Mr Cands when your next Vessel arrives and oblige Dr

Your most Obed. Hble Servt

Thos Smyth
