Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1902.

It is manifest that the people of Baltimore favor the Fuller, or West Va. Central, Syndicate as a purchaser of the Western Maryland Railroad. The City Council has indicated a willingness to vote for the sale of the road to the syndicate named, if it will advance its bid to the amount offered by the Reading—$10,001,000. The Fuller bid is $8,751,370.45. Both Branches of the City Council adjourned from Thursday evening till Monday evening next, to give Mr. Fuller an opportunity to decide upon the proposition.

A report has been to some extent current, in this county, that Congressman A. A. Blakeney has changed his residence from Baltimore county to Howard county, and is, therefore, no longer a legal resident of the Second Congressional District. The report is unfounded. Mr. Blakeney is a registered voter in the Second election district of Baltimore county. He has important business interests in Howard county, demanding his attention, but his home is in Baltimore county, and within the boundaries of the district which he now represents in Congress.

The 67th session of the Great Sun Council of the Improved Order of Red Men, of Maryland, was held at Elkton this week, beginning on Wednesday. Upwards of fifty tribes were represented, the three tribes of this county as follows: Red Jacket No. 24, Hampstead, Ira S. Gill; Wyoming No. 37, Uniontown, J. H. Singer; Monocacy No. 90, Union Bridge, S. R. Welty. The order in Maryland embraces 64 tribes, with a membership of 4,358, the total membership in the United States being 217,125. The Elkton Appeal, published by Mr. J. M. Post, celebrated the occasion of the meeting at Elkton by issuing an eighteen-page edition, on pink paper, giving a history of the order and many other interesting articles. We congratulate Brother Post on this evidence of the enterprise and prosperity of the Appeal. The edition would be creditable to any newspaper.

Special attention is called to the act, passed at the recent session of the Legislature, relating to an issue of bonds by this city to procure money to subscribe for stock of the Washington, Westminster and Gettysburg Railroad Company. A careful analysis of the act shows that it has been prepared with great care, and provides, in the most explicit language, that the "Mayor and Common Council of Westminster shall not subscribe for, nor pay for" said stock until the road shall have been constructed and shall be in operation through this city to Gettysburg, Pa., and shall, also, "have constructed and permanently located its Railroad Shops at some point within the corporate limits" of this city. Twenty-five thousand dollars would be a small sum for the taxpayers of Westminster to provide for such important advantages as would accrue to the place under the circumstances. The construction and operation of the road would, in itself, be a material advantage to the town, and when to this shall be added the location of its shops here, there would seem to be no good ground for objection to the bond issue. The sense of the voters in the corporation is to be taken on the subject, at the election on May 5th.

Earthquakes in Guatemala.

PANAMA, COLOMBIA, April 21.—Late dispatches from Guatemala are to the effect that the whole Republic was shaken by earthquakes from 8.30 o'clock Friday night to 8 o'clock Sunday night, with only short intervals between the shocks.

The dispatches of Sunday concerning the disaster in Quesaltenango are confirmed. It is estimated that 500 persons were killed and millions of dollars' worth of property destroyed there.

Fires which followed the early shocks added to the loss. Many heartrending stories of suffering are received. The whole country is panic-stricken.

The towns of Patzum and Mazatenango, the latter in the great coffee district, were also destroyed. The first shocks there were accompanied by terrific thunder storms. The lightning was followed by a deluge of rain, which will be long remembered by those who witnessed the sight.

Dreadful Steamboat Disaster.

The side-wheel steamer City of Pittsburg, bound from Cincinnati for Memphis was burned to the water's edge early Sunday morning at Turner's Landing, on the Ohio River, near Ogden's, Ill., 24 miles from Cairo.

As nearly as can be ascertained fifty-six lives were lost and many others were badly burned.

It was an awful disaster. The fire had gained such headway before its discovery that the stairway from the cabin was in flames and escape of many of the passengers cut off. Numbers of persons jumped from the boat to the water and were drowned. Most of those injured were more or less burned and suffered intensely.

Woodland, the home farm of the late Chief Orphans' Court Judge, Reuben Dorsey, of Howard county, situated in the Sixth district, near Oakland Mills, and containing, altogether, 385 acres, was on Tuesday sold at public auction by John G. Rogers, as attorney for the heirs. The property was sold in three separate tracts, containing, respectively, 110, 125 and 150 acres. The first tract was purchased by John Selling for $30 per acre; the second and third tracts, which include the buildings, by Philip H. Dorsey, for $46 and $19 per acre, respectively.

Frank R. Stockton, a well known and distinguished writer, died in Washington, D. C., on Sunday last, aged 68 years. Mr. Stockton was the author of numerous entertaining works of fiction. His death was caused by hemorrhage of the brain. He was a brother of the late Rev. Dr. Thomas Stockton, of the Methodist Protestant Church, one of the most eloquent divines ever known in this country.

Mr. John T. Best, a retired farmer, died near Frederick on Wednesday, aged 63 years. He leaves a widow and five sons.

This paper might be filled with items like the following, and every one be the absolute truth I had rheumatism for years and tried almost everything, but got no permanent relief until. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, three bottles of which have cured me. It is the best medicine I ever used.—Philip E. Rhoads, Pennville, Mo. Pain Balm is for sale by all Druggist.

FOR SALE.—A fine young Driving Horse, an excellent traveler; sound. Apply at Sentinel Office, Westminster, Md.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by all Druggists.

SLOP FOR SALE—At Burkholder's distillery, on Manchester road, Cranberry Station, for 10 cents a barrel.

GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by all Druggists.

BRICK! BRICK! BRICK!

100,000 Brick on hand. Give me a call. R. E. Frizzell, Westminster, Md.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world. G. G. Green, Woodbury, N. J. Sold by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

If you want a China Dinner Set, Tea Set, Toilet Set, Knives and Forks, Spoons, Table Glassware, Tinware, Brushes, Tubs, Buckets and lots of other goods needed by Housekeepers at this time of the year, call at the Household Department in the basement of Miller Bros. Company, Westminster, Md. Ask to see the Silverplated Tea Spoons at 10c a set; Tablespoons at 15c a set.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS IN CHILDREN.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds'" says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by all Druggists.

Section 6. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council of Westminster be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take the sense of the people of the city of Westminster in relation to the issuing of the bonds provided for in this act by submitting the question to the qualifed voters at an election to be held in the city of Westminster on such day, at such place and between such hours of the day as said Mayor and Common Council may order and direct at any time not exceeding thirty days after the passage and approval of this act, and at said election the qualified voters of said city are authorized to cast a ballot for issuing bonds or against issuing bonds, and the result of such election shall be certified to the said Mayor and Common Council of Westminster, and if the majority of the votes cast be for issuing the bonds provided for by this act then the Mayor and Council be and they are hereby authorized, directed and required to exercise the power and authority vested in them by the provisions of this act.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.
