WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1902.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that it has no jurisdiction in the case of the Northern Central Railway Company against Comptroller Hering, Gov. Smith and other Maryland officials. Briefly stated the case is this: The State, many years ago, loaned the N. C. Ry. Co. $1,500,000, at 6 per cent. interest, the company to be privileged to liquidate the principal of the debt within ten years. This was not done and the company continued to pay the sum of $90,000 annually until several years ago, when it made a tender of the principal. The state refused to accept payment upon the ground that by the terms of the loan an annuity of $90,000 per annum was created upon the failure of the company to avail itself of the privilege of redemption within ten years from the original transaction. This view was sustained by the Maryland Court of Appeals, and the decision of the Supreme Court makes it final. The annuity thus created is a mortgage lien on the road and the State is thus secured against all danger of loss. It has not been paid for several years and upwards of $200,000 is now due the State, which, no doubt, will be promptly turned over to the treasury by the company.

Rear Admiral Sampson Dead.

Rear Admiral Wm. T. Sampson died of cerebral hemorrhage, at his home in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday afternoon. Admiral Sampson had been suffering for some time with cerebral disease and it was doubtless due to this cause that the Court of Inquiry in the case of Admiral Schley ignored, as far as possible, bringing him personally into the investigation. Admiral Sampson was of humble origin. He was born at Palmyra, N. Y., February 9, 1840, and his father is said to have been the poorest man in the place. Much of his time in boyhood, it is said, was spent in tramping about with his father, from farm to farm, seeking work. When not employed at labor he spent his time in study and had often to be dragged from his books to bed by his mother, so eager was he to acquire knowledge. This trait in his character became known and led to his appointment, by Congressman Morgan, to the Naval Academy, in 1857, where four years later he graduated at the head of his class. He was in active service during the Civil War and was executive officer on the ironclad Patapsco, when that vessel was blown up in the harbor of Charleston in January, 1865. He occupied a very exposed position on the bridge of the vessel and was a target for Confederate sharpshooters but escaped unhurt. The Patapsco was blown to pieces, but Sampson, then a lieutenant, and 25 of the crew of 100 were picked up and saved. From 1886 till 1890 he was superintendent of the Naval Academy and in 1893 he became chief of the ordnance bureau. He wrote numerous articles for scientific publications.

His connection with the Santiago campaign and the controversy over his share in the victory over Cervera's fleet are well known to the country. It is more than probable that his claim to the honors of that achievement have been greatly exagerated by his partisans, while, on the other hand, his opponents may have detracted from the credit due him. These are things which must be left to the pen of the impartial historian when the passions of partisans and detractors have ended in the grave. There is no doubt that previous to the war with Spain he had rendered faithful and creditable service to the country. He was, undoubtedly, a brave and gallant officer.

Admiral Sampson was twice married and leaves two sons and three daughters.

The Fuller Syndicate Wins.

The bid of the Fuller Syndicate, representing the West Virginia Central and Pittsburg Railroad Company, and the Wabash System controlled by George Gould, has been accepted by the City of Baltimore, and as soon as the preliminary proceedings shall be completed and the purchase money paid the Western Maryland Railroad will pass into the hands of its new owners. The ordinance of sale, passed by the First Branch of the City Council, slightly amended, was also passed by the Second Branch on Monday night, by a vote of 7 to 2. Mr. George Gould, in a letter to Mayor Hayes, and also in a communication to the Baltimore American, made it plain that he is behind the Fuller Syndicate, and also gave an unequivocal pledge that Baltimore is to be the tidewater terminus of the consolidated system of which the Western Maryland is to form a part. The leading business organizations of Baltimore and the daily newspapers strongly urged the acceptance of the Fuller bid and were, undoubtedly, sustained by popular sentiment.

Under these circumstances several members of the Second Branch of the City Council, who were regarded as hostile to the Fuller interests, changed front and the ordinance went through with flying colors. The First Branch promptly accepted the amendment referred to.

Mayor Hayes submitted the ordinance to Ex-Governor Whyte, City Solicitor, and Gen. Jno. M. Hood, acting president of the Western Maryland, who found it correct in every particular, and on Wednesday the Mayor appended his signature and gave it his approval. The terms and conditions of the sale were thereupon accepted by an agreement signed by Messrs. E. L. Fuller, Myron T. Herrick and Winslow S. Pierce, as follows:

"Know all men by these presents that we, the undersigned, purchasers under an ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, entitled, 'An ordinance to provide for the sale of the interest and claims of the city of Baltimore in the Western Maryland Railroad as mortgagee, guarantor, stockholder, creditor, lessor or of any other description,' which ordinance was duly ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and approved by the Mayor on the 7th day of May, 1902, do hereby assent to and accept the terms and conditions of said ordinance.

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals at the city of Baltimore this 7th day of May, 1902."

e price to be paid is $8,751,370.45 to ty, and, by previous agreement, 00 to Washington county. City r Numsen calculates that this the city a surplus, over and above its mortgage claims, of $1,110,697.83.

It has been apparent from the first that the security of the business interests of Baltimore lay in the acceptance of the Fuller bids. Every other proposition involved the diversion of trade from Baltimore to her commercial rivals on tidewater, and a sale to either of them would have meant loss and disaster to the Maryland city. Her representatives have done well in heeding the voice of her people.

Fearful Earthquake and Volcanic Disturbances.

Late reports from the West Indies and the Republic of Guatemala indicate that fearful seismic disturbances have recently taken place in those localities. These reports are to the effect that the city of St. Pierre, on the Island of Martinique, has been totally destroyed and most of the inhabitants killed by the disturbances. St. Pierre in 1895 had a population of 25,382, from which it can be seen that, if the reports are authentic, the loss of life is immense. It is said that all the shipping in the port of St. Pierre was destroyed. The steamer Roraima, belonging to the Quebec Company's line, was lost, with all on board. The British steamer Roddam, which brought the information to St. Lucia, in the West Indies, was partially wrecked.

From Guatemala it is reported that for a week preceding April 24, earthquakes had been tumbling down cities, towns and villages on the western slope of the sierras, in that republic. Guatemala, the capital city of the republic, was visited by an earthquake on the night of April 13. Many buildings were destroyed and great loss of life ensued. Two hundred bodies had been recovered at the date of the report.

Of course particulars of these catastrophes are wanting, but that they have been disastrous to life and property is beyond doubt. In Guatemala fifty thousand people are homeless, as a result of the disturbances.

Death of Bret Harte.

Francis Bret Harte, whose literary career is known throughout the civilized world, died at Camberly, England, of hemorrhage of the throat, on Monday evening, in his 63rd year, having been born at Albany, N. Y., August 25th, 1839. He had been living quietly in England for years. He was a versatile author, having written both prose and poetry. Some of his poetry is of a high order, but he is best known by the production, "Plain Language From Truthful James," in which he says

"That for ways that are dark,
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar."

His stories of mining life and its adjuncts have been widely read and enjoyed. Mr. Harte was married, but separated from his wife 28 years ago, and she and their two daughters became residents of New York. The cause of the separation has always been a mystery.

Query.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you kindly answer the following query: Can a justice of the peace, appointed for one district, locate and perform the duties of that office in another district.

This is a question for the legal profession and may possibly be only settled by a judicial decision. The editor of the SENTINEL will not presume to answer it.

Members of the German Baptist Brethren are looking forward with much interest and pleasure to the annual conference to be held in Harrisburg, Pa., May 10-20. The big meeting promises to be the largest gathering of members of the denomination ever held in the East, and it is now estimated that over 30,000 people will be present.

At Steelton, Pa., on Tuesday, a ladle of hot slag at a furnace boiled over, pouring some of the contents into a pit in which there were eight men, five of whom were roasted to death and the other three badly burned. The victims were all Austrian laborers.

NO LOSS OF TIME.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by all druggists.

THE MOST COMMON AILMENT.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Wescott, of Meadowdale, N. Y., says: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for some time and it has caused me much suffering. I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that it has cured me." For sale by all druggists.

There will be Temperance Meetings held under the auspices of the Deer Park W. C. T. U., Monday night, 19th inst., at Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, and Tuesday night at Deer Park, 20th inst. Mrs. Haslup, the president of the Union in Md., will be present and address both meetings. At Deer Park Miss Virgie Weigand and Miss Hollace Williams, of Westminster, will be present and take part, singing and reciting.

WON'T FOLLOW ADVICE AFTER PAYING FOR IT.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by all Druggists.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world. G. G. Green, Woodbury, N. J. Sold by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?
WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.
MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:
Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,
EDWARD LYNCH.
