THE LETTER T.

From the Denver Post.

An old one is the letter T, for Time begins with it, you see; it is the starting point of Truth, the virtue which we teach our youth. It starts the Tattler's busy tongue, is in the Tie when men are hung, is at the best of every Train that pounds the rails o'er hill and plain. All Trouble starts with it, and when peace is established once again the shifty character we see at head of sweet Tranquility. In Talk it always takes the lead, from Turmoil it is never freed; 'tis found at root of every Tree, it leads the Tempest on the sea. 'Tis always found in Toil and Trade, in every Theatre 'tis played. It leads our Thought, and when we die is in the Tomb in which we lie.

Extensive Plans to Entertain the Grand Army Men in Washington.

Washington, May 8.—From calculations made to day by the officers of the local citizens' committee and Quartermaster General Burroughs, of the G. A. R., it is concluded that the crowd in attendance at the 1902 encampment of the Grand Army in this city will surpass that of any previous re-union or any gathering of any nature in the national capital. The interest among the veterans generally, according to General Burroughs, is notably greater than ever before. The number of reservations for quarters has never been so great as it is now—about five months before the encampment—until a few weeks before the veterans were to assemble. Anticipating that such would be the case, the local citizens' committee has already been at work about six weeks arranging months ahead of time for the accommodation of the greatest number of visitors the city can possibly hold. As special features of the encampment it is proposed to decorate all the public boildings on a scale hitherto not attempted, to erect a Court of Honor in front of the White House, to have parades of the regular Army, the militia and the Sons of Veterans in addition to that of the veterans, to have a military pageant representing the successive wars of the United States; to dedicate a monument to Dr. F. H. Stephenson, founder of the G. A. R., and to lay the cornerstone of the Memorial Bridge across the Potomac, between, the Washington Monument grounds and Arlington Cemetery. President Roosevelt has manifested the most hearty approval of the encampment preparations, and states he will so shape his plans as to assist in every way possible.

"Say, Pop," inquired Willie, "Why do we call women the opposite sex?" "I guess," replied the old man thoughtfully, "its because they are contrary."

Its funny that a girl never gets into society until she comes out.
