1773 MAY 10 GILPRIN & JURY to THOMAS SMITH

SIDE ONE

Sir we Recevd your letter Respecting the corn also observe y. paragraph of Mr Thurston's Letter, which certainly is wrong Becaus y. greatest part was extronary good — there was two or three waggon loads that was not quite so good as it was some that we Recevd early in y. fall and was lying in y. Bottom of y. Granary — which had got a little warm but not to be of any hurt to y. other. We got with it as we knew off did y. same & Jury went down with y. two last waggon loads on Purpose to see y. Shipper But he was not at y. wave house. She never saw him from y. time he Begann to Recieve y. corn till it was all Delivered. so that it was false of his saying he told S. it was not merchantable however Mr Thurston had Better have it Dryed. farmed & Recieved in y. Best manner & till it for y. most he can Lett y. Damage Enter where it may — as for his Affidavits & Survey & Enduring it Rather Looks as if he was fond of taking some advantage. Clearing his Shipper. Right or wrong. Grain that has got wet or Damaged on Board a craft is often Brought to by can & made fitt to ship — But to Vendue will be Like
