At the commencement of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., this week, the Baum sophomore mathematical prize was awarded to Mr. Abdel R. Wentz, of Lineboro.

The residence of Dr. M. L. Bott, this city, has been improved with a neat side porch and is being repainted, thereby adding much to its appearance and convenience.

Comptroller Hering made a distribution of the State school tax on Monday, the amount being upward of $230,000. Carroll county's share was $6,372.76 for white and $335.34 for colored schools.

The Circuit Court for Carroll county, which some weeks ago discharged the petit jury for the May term until July 7, has extended the discharge until July 14, when jury business of the term will be resumed.

Mrs Margaret Rinehart, wife of Dr. J. Rinehart, of Frizellburg, whose extreme illness has been heretofore reported, is still in a critical condition, but with some prospect of her ultimate recovery.

Mrs. Samuel R. Boose, wife of Mr. Henry Boose, a farmer near Manchester, died on Tuesday morning, in her seventy-seventh year. Her husband, three children, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren survive her.

The Blue Mountain Express train will make its first run for this season this afternoon. It will make the westbound trip to Hagerstown, returning on Monday morning and then continue running daily as during previous summers.

Master David Royer, the six-year-old son of Mr. David Royer, near Uniontown, while gathering eggs at the barn on Saturday last, fell from the haymow and fractured his left arm above the elbow. The fracture was adjusted by Drs. M. L. Bott and Chas. R. Foutz, of this city.

Mrs. Valentine R. Wentz, mother of Mr. Allen H. Wentz, of this city, died at her home in Hanover, Pa., yesterday morning, after an illness of ten days, of pneumonia. Mr. Wentz was notified of her critical illness on Thursday and immediately left for Hanover and was at her bedside when she died.

Rev. A. S. Hartman, of Baltimore, secretary of the Home Mission Board, General Synod, Lutheran Church, will preach in the churches of the Freedom charge to-morrow, 22nd inst., as follows: At Woodbine at 10.30 A. M., at Taylorsville at 3 P. M., and at Messiah at 8.15 P. M.

Wheat harvest is beginning at a remarkably early period this year. Some wheat was harvested in Washington county on Monday and there was some sufficiently ripened for the reaper, at that date, in this county. The grain, as a rule, is very short in the stalk and does not stand very thick, but is well filled and of good quality. In some instances a yield of 30 bushels per acre is anticipated.

Mr. Wm. G. Stocksdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Stocksdale, near Finksburg, died suddenly in Baltimore on Monday, in his thirty-seventh year. He was visiting in the city when attacked by the disease which soon terminated fatally. Deceased was a nephew of Mrs. J. B. Allison, of this city. His remains were interred in the burial ground of the M. E. Church at Reisterstown on Wednesday.

A Royal Arcanum reunion will be held at Pen-Mar on Thursday, 26th inst., at which addresses will be delivered by Rev. E. H. Leisenring, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, Chambersburg, Pa., past grand regent and supreme sentry, and Mr. Alexander H. Robertson, of Baltimore, vice-grand regent of the order. The Westminster Band and the Wayne Band, of Waynesboro, Pa., will furnish music for the occasion.

At the commencement of Pennsylvania College, on Wednesday, the honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred on Rev. Dr. Jeremiah Zimmerman, of Syracuse, N. Y., a son of the late Henry Zimmerman, of Manchester district, this county. The degree of A. M. was conferred on Mr. J. Paul Earnest, of Washington, D. C., son of Rev. John A. Earnest, a former pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, this city. Judge Harry M. Clabaugh, of Washington, D. C., presided at the alumni collation.

Some weeks ago Mr. Winfield Valentine, of Baltimore, met with an accident by which one of his legs was fractured. After the accident he came to the country and has been staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Valentine, near Carrollton. He had sufficiently recovered to be able to walk with the aid of crutches, but while doing so on Saturday last they slipped and he fell, re-fracturing the broken limb. Dr. M. L. Bott, of this city, was summoned and adjusted the fracture.

Mr. E. O. Garner, of Copperville, has been re-elected superintendent of the farm and recorder of experiments at the Maryland Agricultural College, for the ensuing year. Mr. Garner is a thoroughly efficient officer and his retention was without opposition from any quarter. The college and experiment station are in a prosperous condition and, when the appropriations made at the recent session of the Legislature shall be received in October next, will be placed in a very sound and stable condition.

The Benevolent and Aid Society of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, gave the members of the church and other invited guests a reception on the lawn adjoining the parsonage, on Tuesday evening, at which there was a large attendance. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and bananas were served in abundance. The Westminster Orchestra entertained the company with fine music and in general intercourse and social conversation everybody present spent a pleasant evening.

The SENTINEL has received from Mr. F. McC. Brown, of Brunswick, Ga., formerly of Uniontown, this county, a 50-page illustrated pamphlet, issued by the Board of Trade of the former place, which gives a detailed description of the city and of its great advantages to exporters, and importers, investors, manufacturers and merchants, pleasure and health seekers &c. The attractions of the surrounding country to fruit growers, truckers, stock-raisers, dairymen and agriculturists are also set forth in the work, and make interesting reading.

Dr. A. L. Franklin, son of Dr. B. G. Franklin, of this city, who recently graduated at the Maryland University School of Medicine, taking high rank in his class, has located at Uniontown. The people of that place and vicinity are to be congratulated on the fact, as they will find him a courteous and affable gentleman, as well as a skillful physician.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ezra Stem gave their daughter, Miss Marguerite, a pleasant little party on Thursday evening, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of her birthday. Her little guests were generously entertained, were served with nice refreshments and had a very enjoyable time. Those present, constituting a company of ten, besides Mr. and Mrs. Stem, were: Misses Marguerite Stem, May Farrar, Annie Yingling, May Little, Isabel Roop, Alberta Anders, Madge Farrar, Carrie Kennedy, Louise Matthews and Minnie B. Waddell.

J. Milton Reifsnider, Esq., acted as counsel for S. L. V. Young, who was arrested here and detained over night while enroute for Baltimore with Sophia Saum, his wife's sister, about two weeks ago and who was released and proceeded on his way with the girl, whom he placed in an institution in Baltimore, but was afterwards, while returning to Hagerstown, rearrested at Union Bridge at the instance of Aaron Saum, of Halfway, Washington county, Miss Saum's father. He was again released on bail. The girl was taken home by her father.

An interesting children's day service was held at Grace Lutheran Church, this city, on Sunday evening, for the benefit of the Tressler Orphans' Home at Loysville, Pa. The exercises consisted of singing, by the school; recitation, by Miss Lottie Gunther; selections, by children, led by Miss Esther Kauffman; recitation, by Miss Lucille Gernand; reading, by Miss Lollie Weller; recitation by Misses Jeannette Jerome and Elsie Gernand; Meaning of Children's day, 8 girls led by Miss Anna Miller; address, by Harry Chritzman; appeal, by the pastor; solo, by Mrs. B. F. Crouse; offering and benediction. A large audience was present.

Mr. W. Oscar Lamotte, of Lamotte, this county, was one of the six contestants for the prize of $25 given for the best original oration, by a member of the senior class at St. John's College, Annapolis. The contest took place in McDowell Hall on Monday, and a tie for first place occurred between T. Spencer Crane and Vernon S. Bradley. Augustus W. Bradford, a grandson of the late Governor Bradford, is reported to have delivered a splendid address and would probably have won the prize but for a moment's hesitation in the middle of his oration, which considerably lowered his grade. The degree of Bachelor of Science was conferred on Mr. Lamotte.

Mrs. Sarah J. Seymour, wife of Mr. Abel Seymour, near Reisterstown, died Sunday, 15th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Josephine Belt, near Hampstead, of heart trouble and dropsy, with which she suffered for many months. She was a daughter of the late Joshua and Ruth Tipton. Besides her husband she is survived by one brother, Mr. Thomas Tipton, and one sister, Mrs. John W. Gill, both of Hampstead. Her remains were interred in the Hampstead Cemetery on Tuesday, 17th inst., Rev. D. M. Browning officiating. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. George Diehl, Jackson Belt, John M. Bush, J. Adam Armacost, William Buchman and George W. Lamotte.

At the meeting of Washington Camp No. 5, P. O. S. of A., of this city, on Monday evening, representatives of the camp at Taneytown, Pleasant Valley and Gist were present to witness an exemplification of the new work of the order, by Mr. P. B. Englar, of Taneytown, State Secretary of the State Camp. When that feature of the meeting was concluded Mr. Englar delivered an address which, we are informed, contained some advice of a very wholesome character, and which was so well received that he was urged to continue his remarks along the line of thought presented. The meeting was continued till a late hour and the members and visitors were liberally served with ice cream and cake before adjournment.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church gave a very enjoyable lawn social at the residence of Ex-judge Albert Schaeffer, near this city, on Wednesday evening, to which all members of the church were invited, and large numbers of whom were present on the occasion. Conversation and games occupied the attention of the company during the evening and the time was passed very pleasantly by all. Refreshments of ice cream, cake &c., were served in abundance. When the hour for departure arrived all retired to their homes in happy mood and feeling that it was good to have been present.

The will of the late Francis D. Sanford, of this city, who was accidentally killed several weeks ago by falling from a ladder while painting the banking-house of the First National Bank of Westminster, has been admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of this county. It bequeaths to his nephew and niece, Charles M. Sanford, of 2724 M street northwest, and Mrs. Louisa Serries, of 2612 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington D. C., an estate valued at nearly $40,000. The inventory gives the amount as $18,766 in stocks and bonds, $19,081.70 in other personal property and real estate, $550 debts due and $1,179.83 money in bank. Wm. A. Cunningham, Esq., of this city, is constituted sole executor of the will.

Thursday was opening day at Pen-Mar Park. Excursions were run from Baltimore, Hagerstown, York, Pa., and Glen Rock, Pa. The excursion from Baltimore was under the auspices of the Grand Army Club, Thursday having been Grand Army Day. The park has been made more attractive than ever before and is the finest resort within reach of Baltimore. During the season there will be a number of special occasions at the park, in addition to the daily excursions, which will probably attract more visitors than ever before. Among these special occasions will be the Royal Arcanum reunion, next Thursday; the Presbyterian Church reunion, July 10; the Reformed Church reunion, July 17; Red Men's Day, July 22, and the Lutheran Church reunion, July 24.

Mrs. Louisa Stewart, of Jacksonville, Fla., died very suddenly at her summer residence, in New Windsor, on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Perry, of Jacksonville, a sister of Mrs. Stewart, owns a house in New Windsor, and their custom for several years past has been to occupy it during the summer months. Mrs. Stewart went to the bathroom sometime during the afternoon, and soon afterwards her lifeless body was found by a little niece of Mrs. Perry. She was not undressed, but had fallen partially into the bathtub, with one hand in the water. It is supposed her death was caused by disease of the heart, with which she was attacked as she was leaning over the bathtub to ascertain if the water was of the proper temperament for a bath. Mrs. Stewart's husband, John Stewart, died immediately after the great fire at Jacksonville from the shock caused by that catastrophe. Her age is said to have been about 65 years. Her remains were taken to Jacksonville for interment.

A memorial service was held by Charity Lodge No. 58, K. of P., of this city, at the lodge room in the Odd Fellows' Hall building, on Sunday afternoon, at which the following program was rendered: Singing by the male quartette, Messrs. Reininger, Price, Crouse and Geiselman; opening address, Mr. Theodore A. Kauffman; prayer, Rev. Dr. P. H. Miller; duet, Misses Julia and Lulu Yingling; address, Guy W. Steele, Esq; solo, Miss Elva Reininger; reading of Scripture selections in memory of deceased knights, by the chaplain, Mr. Guy L. Fowler; singing, by male quartet; prayer and closing exercise. The members of the lodge then marched to Westminster Cemetery where the graves of eight of their deceased brethren were decorated with beautiful flowers and the Pythian flag, according to the ritual of the order, which was impressively rendered. Notwithstanding the extreme heat of the day the service was largely attended by members of the lodge.

In this latitude the sun will rise to-morrow at 4.34 A. M., and set at 7.26 P. M., making it the longest day of the year.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Centenary M. E. Church, of this city, held its monthly meeting at the country residence of Mr. Jos. D. Brooks on Thursday evening. A company of forty-two young people enjoyed a straw ride upon a wagon provided for them by Mr. Joshua Gist. Others went by various kinds of conveyances, the company in all numbering over one hundred. After a business meeting an excellent literary and musical program was rendered by the young people and thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd. Mrs. Brooks concluded the entertainment with refreshments, so ample in quantity and rich in quality, that all the participants pronounced the affair a decided success. After many congratulations and good wishes for the host and hostess, the delighted company returned to their homes with happy remembrances of a very enjoyable occasion.

A reunion of the Sharretts family was a very pleasant event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Sharretts, near Bruceville, on the 11th inst. The gathering numbered upward of twenty persons, who spent the day in conversation which held much of personal interest for them all. An elegant dinner was served and during the afternoon drives and strolls about the place added to the pleasure and interest of the occasion. Before the guests separated to their homes, as the afternoon advanced, refreshments in abundance were served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Sharretts, the host and hostess; Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Britt, of Taneytown; Dr. and Mrs. Sharretts, of Frederick; Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Ritter, of Keysville; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Sharretts, of Woodsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weybright and daughter, of Emmittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cromer, Mr. Luther Kelly, of Gettysburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sharretts, Mr. Frank Sharretts, of Bruceville; Mrs. Lavina Mehring, son and daughters, of York road.

The regular communication of Door to Virtue Lodge No. 46, A. F. and A. M., on Thursday evening, marked the close of its meetings for the summer months. The occasion was rendered very pleasant and enjoyable by two events—the conferring of the third degree and a banquet. Visiting Masons were present from Unionville, Reisterstown, Union Bridge, Freedom and Manchester. After the work at the lodge room was closed the members and their guests, to the number of 112 in all, marched in a body to The Westminster, where the banquet was given and all were seated at tables loaded with a feast to tempt the most fastidious appetite. The menu consisted of spring chicken, soft crabs, clams, ham, salads, tomatoes, green peas, potato chips, ice cream, cake, bananas and coffee. The free use of fine cigars completed and crowned the feast. It was past the midnight hour when the affair ended. It is scarcely necessary to say that it was greatly enjoyed. All were loud in their praises of the admirable manner in which the banquet was prepared and served under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Crout, the host and hostess of The Westminster.

The time of the trains at stations other than those mentioned can be closely approximated by the figures given, and next week the schedule will be given more in detail.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

The Court of Appeals of Maryland filed opinions on Tuesday in two cases of much public interest, taken up from the Circuit Court for this county. These were what are known as the alms house road case and the New Windsor alley case, the title of the first named being Elizabeth Gist and others against Wm. H. Owings and others, and of the other The Burgess and Commissioners of New Windsor against Mrs. Eliza J. Stocksdale, by her husband and next friend, George L. Stocksdale.

Judge Boyd delivered the opinion in the alms house road case.

The appellees in this case applied in the regular way to the County Commissioners of Carroll county that a road be opened through certain property. A part of this property was the farm upon which was situated the county almshouse. The appellants objected to the construction of the road upon various grounds, chief of which was the fact that it was sought to take property already dedicated to public use, namely, the almshouse property. The Circuit Court for Carroll County issued an order directing the County Commissioners to proceed with the construction of the road, but the Court of Appeals holds that in this they exceeded their powers, as the statute under which land is condemned for roads could not apply to property already in use for a public purpose.

In the New Windsor case the opinion was delivered by Chief Judge McSherry. The appellee in this case owns a house in the town of New Windsor, and constructed steps, a bow-window and other improvements upon the same, which projected into an alley to the side of the house. The authorities of the town removed these, and the appellee instituted suit for trespass, and recovered damages in the lower court. The decision of the Court of Appeals discusses numerous questions of admissibility of evidence, and decides on the main question—that the improvements did not obstruct the free use of the alley, that the town authorities had committed trespass in removing them, and that therefore damages were properly awarded.

Gamber Items.

Mr. Thurman Shipley, who had been spending some time with friends in Baltimore, has returned home.

Baker-Weybright.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in that neighborhood, at high noon on Wednesday, 18th inst. The contracting parties were Mr. and Mrs. Weybright's second daughter, Miss Martha L. Weybright, and Mr. Challice W. Baker, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed on the beautiful lawn and under the shade of a large catawba tree, planted by the bride's grandmother fifty years ago and now in full bloom and filling the air with the perfume of its flowers, a fact which gave picturesqueness and rare beauty to the nuptials. Two little nephews and two nieces of the bride—Masters Saylor and Roger Weybright, Misses Mary Royer and Jennie Weybright—led the bridal procession from the house to the lawn, the maids of honor—Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and Miss Jessie Hann, of Ridley, Pa.,—following in advance of the bride and groom, who were met at the marriage altar by Elders T. J. Kolb and John S. Weybright, the former of whom performed the ceremony, the contracting parties being prominent members of the German Baptist Brethren's Church. The bride wore a very becoming gown of cream silk mull and carried a boquet of Bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black with boutonniere of white carnations. The bride's nieces, who led the marriage procession, and her maids of honor wore gowns of white organdy. After the hearty congratulations which were showered upon the newly wedded couple, the guests were invited to the dining room, where an elaborate and elegant wedding dinner was served. After a short bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home in Philadelphia. Among those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weybright, parents of the bride; Elder and Mrs. D. M. Baker, of Waynesboro, Pa., parente of the groom: Elder and Mrs. J. S. Weybright, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Weybright, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weybright, Jr., Miss Mary Weybright, Elder and Mrs. T. J. Kolb, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Diller and daughter, of Double Pipe Creek; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shank, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Miller, of Waynesboro, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dotterer, and daughter, Mrs. Sarah Dotterer, of York, Pa.; Prof. and Mrs John Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Snader, Mr. and Mrs. S. David Whitmore and family, of Westminster; Miss Jessie Hann, of Ridley, Pa.; Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown; Miss Maud Stoner, of Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Snader and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Snader, of New Windsor; Messrs. John and Edmund Zeeter, of Florida; Ursa M. Diller, of West Point Military Academy; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frock, Mrs. Mary Myers and daughter, Misses Louise and Elizabeth Rinehart, Lilly Wampler, Lottie, Florence and Ida Englar, Marion and Naomi Troxell, Margaret Englar, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Shildt and family, Messrs. Herbert Englar, Howard Myers and others. The bridal presents were very numerous and elegant and included many pieces of silver, china and crystal, linen &c.

Reported for the Sentinel.

Death of Dr. Thos. J. Shreeve.

The very many friends and patrons of Dr. Thos. J. Shreeve were shocked and saddened by his sudden and unexpected death, which occurred last Saturday morning, between the hours of four and six o'clock, at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where he had gone for treatment on the preceeding Thursday morning. About ten days previous he had submitted to an operation, which was quite a relief, but on Wednesday began feeling worse and again consulted his physician, Dr. Mathias, of Westminster. Growing worse during the night Drs. Weaver, Buffington and Kemp were called and decided to remove him to the hospital. He rallied from the attack and seemed better, but his heart failed and he died on Saturday morning. His funeral took place on Monday afternoon and was one of the largest ever occurring here. Rev. G. W. Baughman, of the Lutheran Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. D. Clark, of the Church of God, and Rev. C. E. McCullough of the M. P. Church, where the services were held. The church was crowded. The I. O. Mechanics, Wyoming Tribe, I. O. R. M., and Modern Woodmen attended as organized bodies and conducted the services of these orders at the burial. Interment was in a family lot in M. P. cemetery. A widow and one sister, Mrs. Stevens, of Kent county, survive him. Dr. Shreeve was in the 38th year of his age. About twenty months ago his mother was buried and in March last his father, Rev. Jesse Shreeve, died and they are now followed by the death of their son. The many floral offerings at the funeral and the many tears that were shed were a strong proof of the high esteem his patrons cherished for him. He practised medicine in our village for about seventeen years and had won many warm friends by his kind, sympathetic and courteous manner and his professional ability. Rev. G. W. Baughman, pastor of Mrs. Shreeve, delivered the sermon, Rev. J. D. Clark offered prayer, Rev. C. E. McCullough read Scripture lesson and sang "Lead Kindly Light." The honorary pall-bearers were: Messrs. Marshall G. Shaw, Harry H. Brough, J. Hamilton Singer, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., Franklin Bowersox, John Stoner; active, Dr. Luther Kemp, Messrs. Milton A. Zollickoffer, E. Lee Erb, Ezra Caylor, William Philip Englar and Guy Cookson.

An account of the death of Dr. Shreeve, from another source, states that he went to the hospital for treatment for tetanus or lockjaw. This account also states that he was born at Pocomoke City, February 2nd, 1865, and was the only son of Rev. Jesse Shreeve, of the Methodist Protestant Church. He was educated at Western Maryland College and graduated from the Maryland University School of Medicine, beginning his professional life at Uniontown immediately after graduation, and soon acquiring an extensive practice, to which he gave himself assiduously, responding cheerfully to the calls of rich and poor alike. In October, 1888, he married Miss Irene Cover, daughter of Mr. Henry Cover, of Uniontown, who survives him. He held a high place in the affection and esteem of the people of Uniontown and vicinity.

Mr. Howard Dandy is visiting his parents near here.

Patapsco Items.

The remains of Mr. John Taylor of T. were brought here from Baltimore, on the 13th inst., and interred in the burial ground of the Bethel, Church of God, after funeral services, conducted by Rev. Fultz, of Baltimore, and Revs. Tyler and Evans. Mr. Taylor died at the age of 84 years, 18 days. He was born in this vicinity and lived here until four years ago when he removed to Baltimore and made his home with his children, spending most of the subsequent time there until his death. He was twice married and leaves 3 sons, 2 daughters and a number of grandchildren. His grandsons were his pall-bearers. Mr. Taylor was a devoted member of the Church of God for over 50 years and was a trustee and elder of the Bethel up to the time of his death. He was much afflicted in his old age but bore his sufferings with christian fortitude and resignation.

Mr. John A. Chew has built a large hoghouse on his farm and a woodhouse and smokehouse at the residence of his son Arthur.

Mr. Nimrod Green has built a porch and pantry to his dwelling house.

Mr. George W. Pickett has had his residence repainted.

Your correspondent attended children's day service on Sunday last, at St. John's (Leister's) Church, when a fine program was rendered. The music, which was of a high order, was under the direction of Mr. George A. Leister. The attendance was very large, scarcely more than half those present having been able to get into the spacious church.

We had a light shower of rain on Monday afternoon. The hay and all other summer crops in this neighborhood are short.

For the Sentinel.

Children's Day Service.

The Children's day service was rendered in St. Paul's M. E. Church, New Windsor, on the 8th inst., and reflected great credit upon members of that school. The program used on that occasion was "Heralds of Summer." The choruses were beautifully rendered by the school and were beyond criticism, showing careful training. The cornetists, Messrs. Devilbill and Smith, accompanied by Mrs. John T. Smelser, organist, made the great auditorium swell with melody. The program was as follows: Opening chorus, Hark the Sound; responsive reading; prayer, by pastor; chorus, Summer Comes Rejoicing; exercise, Children's Day, by 12 boys; recitation, Swing Little Bird, W. Harman; solo, Growing Up for Jesus, Anna Bankard; greeting, Vira Fowler; The Sweetest Thing, Helen Petry; chorus, Beautiful Summer; recitation, What Little Things Can Do, L. Lovell; recitation, God Knows Best, Myrl Barnes; motion song, Come Away; recitation, Why We are Glad on Christmas Day, E. Gosnell; exercise, What They Say To Us, by 5 boys; chorus, Heralds of Summer; A Happy Secret, by 3 boys; recitation, Little Rain Drops, Smith Lambend; solo, Calling Me, Earl Harman; recitation, How We Grow, Bessie Brown; exercise, Steps Heavenward, 7 boys; chorus, Bless the Lord; recitation, Fine Clothes, Blanche Lovell; recitation, The Child of Nazareth, Stouffer Lovell; duet, I Am Jesus' Little Lamb, W. and E. Harman; recitation, Praise God, Mabel Dickson; recitation, Have You Seen the Sunbeam, Anna Durbin; exercise, The Rose Garland, by 8 girls; solo, Roses for God's House, Lawrence Myers; recitation, Orient King, Ivy Fowler; solo, God is Love, Celia Kolb; exercise, The Battle of the Books, 4 boys and 4 girls; solo, Rejoice, Bird Hare; address, by Dr. Williams; closing dialogue, Song of Praise, 6 girls; benediction.

Every available space in the church was taken and many went away. No such an audience has been in New Windsor, since the day of the dedication.

Taneytown Items.

The commencement exercises of Milton Academy took place on Monday evening, when the following students, in the presence of a large audience, were graduated: Misses Eliza Birnie and Vallie Garner, in the English commercial course; Messrs. Clarence Naill, Harry Reindollar and Willie Newman in the commercial course. Mr. Daniel Bowersox had the salutatory address, and Miss Vallie Garner was valedictorian. Mr. H. Clay Englar gave an address on "The Resources of Our State;" Clarence Naill and Charles Witherow debated on the question, Resolved, That we are Justified in Subduing the Filipinos; Harry Reindollar read an essay on How Can I make the World Better." A German recitation, Der Sangers Fluch, was given by Miss Vallie Garner, and the English translation was recited by Miss Eliza Birnie. The gold medal for scholarship was awarded to Miss Nellie Birnie, and the gold medal for scholarship and application was given to Miss Nellie Fringer. 5 medals were also awarded for attendance and deportment. School will reopen the second Monday in September.

A reunion of the former and present students of Milton Academy was held at the school-building on Tuesday evening. About 75 persons were present. The evening was enjoyably spent in playing games and dancing. A short program was rendered, and pleasant reminiscences of former school-days were given. About 10 o'clock refreshments were served. At a somewhat later hour all departed for their homes feeling very happy in having met their former friends and schoolmates once more.

At 7 o'clock Wednesday morning a very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Lutheran Church, the Rev. C. A Britt officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret Currens, of Taneytown, and Mr. M. D. Reid, of New Windsor. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Forrest and Stanley Reaver, cousins of the bride, and Messrs. Jas. and Curtis Reid, brothers of the groom. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown cloth, with gloves and hat to match, and carried a large boquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Reid left immediately after the ceremony for Atlantic City. Upon their return, they will reside in New Windsor.

Gaithers Items.

Farmers are rejoicing about the nice rains here during the past week. They are making hay this week which is less than half a crop on account of the drouth. The fields were well set but the grass was short and consequently there will be but little hay in this section. Corn planted after the middle of May is not coming up very well, but early corn is doing well, considering the weather.

The farmers are busy setting out tomato plants for the canning factories in Howard county, but it is feared the tomato crop will be short.

Mr. Launan Sellman is visiting his mother, Mrs. Wm. Sellman, near Gaithers.

Mrs. Wm. D. Selby and daughter, Miss Elva, are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Gray Harpell, of Baltimore, has returned home after visiting friends here.

Miss Edna Glennan paid a flying visit to friends near Gaithers the past week.

Mrs. May Sellman and son, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mrs. Sellman's sister-in-law, Mrs. William Sellman, the past week.

Wheat is ripening slowly but harvest will soon be at hand.

A Family Reunion.

For the Sentinel.

Mrs. Belinda Wantz gave a family reunion to her children and grandchildren, at her home at Marston, on Sunday, 8th inst., which was greatly enjoyed by all. It goes without saying that Mrs. Wantz's guests were entertained with generous hospitality. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lang, of Baltimore; Mrs. Belinda Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Mumford, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lambert, Misses Cora and Carrie Wantz, Emma Lambert, Addie Wantz, Messrs. Howard Wantz, Prescus Lambert, Peter Brown.

Carrollton Items.

Sunday last was children's day at Wesley M. E. Church, at which there was a large attendance of bright smiling faces. The girls, as well as many of the ladies, were attired in white dresses and carried pretty bunches of flowers, while the little boys looked as though they had just emerged from some great big bandbox. The services began at 10 o'clock, and were in charge of Mr. Zepp, the newly elected superintendent. The exercises began with singing, by the school, and were followed with responsive reading, recitations, duets and solos. Mrs. Thomas Buchman opened the services with an organ voluntary. Rev. D. M. Browning, the pastor, delivered a short, but very interesting address, in which he took the liberty of complimenting the children and also the ladies on the manner in which they had rendered the program and especially paid compliments to the ladies regarding their neat dresses and how well they looked. After the address the usual children's day collection was taken up, the congregation and Sunday School responding very liberally. Mr. Simpson Ebaugh and bride were among those present on the occasion.

A very large gathering of the friends of the temperance cause took place in Union Bethel, Church of God, on Sunday evening last, at which representatives from Patapsco, Pleasant Grove and Wesley M. E. Churches, and Sandyville M. P. Church were in attendance. After the singing of several appropriate hymns the audience was entertained with very interesting addresses bearing upon the temperance cause, by Mr. Joel Ebaugh, of Wesley Church; Calvin R. Chew, of Patapsco; Revs. Tyler and Evans, of the Church of God, and others.

Mr. Granville W. Brown, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Mr. Jacob Richards, near Carrollton.

Mr. John F. Snyder is improving the appearance of his barn, by rebuilding and putting up an addition to it. Mr. Snyder's little son, Johnnie, who had his leg broken sometime ago, is in an improved condition under the care of Dr. Bush, of Hampstead.

The welcome shower of rain which fell upon the parched ground on Monday did a great amount of good to growing crops and vegetables. More of the same kind of showers would be acceptable.

Watersville Items.

The Watersville Sabbath School was organized on last Sabbath by electing Mr. Jacob L. Naill, Supt.; Mr. W. A. Shipley, Sr., assistant; Mr. John Fleming, secretary; Mr. Boyd Gosnell, assistant.

Mr. Eugene Roach, employed on the B. & O. Railroad, fell through Alberton bridge and was badly hurt, but is doing well under treatment of Doctor Gaver, the company physician.

On last Sunday 107 trains passed over the B. & O. Railroad. Great quantities of brick and sand are coming daily for the tunnel at Ridgeville.

There was quite a scare in this neighborhood caused by a mad dog passing our place last Sunday night and biting a large number of dogs. The dogs known to have been bitten have been killed.

Children's day will be observed at Watersville next Sabbath evening.

Hay making is about over and we have a short crop of hay. Wheat harvest will begin the first of the coming week.

Children's Missionary Service.

A very interesting children's missionary service was held by the Methodist Protestant Sunday School of this city, under the supervison of Dr. J. W. Hering, the superintendent, on Sunday evening last, 15th inst. A platform was erected and the church was very beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, ferns, &c. The program was as follows: Song, We Come with Garlands;" responsive reading, led by Dr. Chas. Billingslea, followed with prayer, by Rev. A. W. Mather; greeting, Riley Williamson; song, In the Lands Beyond the Seas; recitation, The Rosebud Band, by 7 girls; song, Happy and Singing; recitation, Maggie's Mite, Blanche Williamson; song, Infant Class; recitation, What Can We Do, Katharine Lynch; song, Marching Orders; recitation, Our Holidays, Isabel Roop; recitation, On the Program, Anna Gehr; song, Raise the Cross; recitation, What Will You Do; Katie Seiler; recitation, Children's Offerings, Mildred Warner; song, Cheerfully Give; recitation, A Penny a Week and a Prayer, Ward Lewis; address, Rev. L. F. Warner, pastor; offering; song, The Victor's Song We'll Sing; benediction.

Winfield Items.

The people of this section were delighted by the recent copious showers, the farmers especially. Corn, potatoes and garden stuff are looking fine. Hay will be a very short crop. Mr. Edward Stem and Mr. J. T. Farver are contending for the best field of corn, neither of which we think can be beat in the county.

Mr. H. M. Zile attended the banquet at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, last Monday a week, 9th inst., at which time the maps and charts of the Baltimore & Frederick Electric R. R. were exhibited to the different committees of solicitors for rights of way. In some cases they met with opposition, but with some explanation from the officials several of the opposers fell into line. It is hoped that all may see the great importance of the road to the section of country through which it is located, in the way of increasing the value of property and in bringing the markets of the world to the people along the road. The officials said they were ready to go to work on the road as soon as the rights of way were secured and would complete it in two years.

Children's day service was held at Ebenezer last Sunday. The program was most excellent. The church was filled to overflowing; collection $5.00.

The following were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zile the last week: Rev. A. F. Campbell, Mr. Samuel Moore, Rev. J. E. Mettee, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mercer, all of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lowman, of Mt. Airy; Miss Deborah Place, of Arkansas; Misses Lula and Mary Brandenburg, of Berrett, and Prof. Leonard Stevens, of Union Bridge.

Cranberry Items.

Our farmers are all about done making hay. It is said to be the shortest crop ever known in this section for many years.

While a cow belonging to Mr. Denton Warehime was passing over an old road leading from the stone quarry, the ground, within a diameter of six or eight feet, gave way and went down with the cow, to a depth of about six feet. Many a perch of limestone was wagoned over the road and this dangerous spot was never before discovered. The cow died before Mr. Warehime could rescue her.

A Bachman's Valley correspondent of the Hanover Weekly Record has an injudicious report in regard to a visit of two young couples of that locality to Gettysburg, Saturday, May 31st, last. It is not read by persons who know both, the former and latter, as a joke, but as a "fob" on behalf of the writer. If the writer is so ignorant, or does not know the difference between Miss and Mrs., we presume he should not report to a paper that comes into his immediate neighborhood about things that he knows not to be true, or are not fully understood by him.

Sunday School tomorrow, Sunday, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Melrose Items.

Mr. J. Albert Zepp recently received a postal card of the small size with 298 words plainly written on it.

Wentz's Union Sunday School will hold a festival for the benefit of the school on Saturday evening, June 28th.

The oldest inhabitant in our neighborhood passed away last week. He was Mr. John Geiman, who was in his 90th year. He had quite a number of great-grandchildren. He was familiarly known as "Grandpa" Geiman and his was a life of activity and thrift.

Verily these are days of strange things. We have heard of locust pie and locusts fried, but a man from Pleasant Valley told us on Saturday that he drives a horse that eats locusts and relishes them.

On Thursday evening Horace, a son of Mr. Israel Geiman, had an accident near Black Rock. A horse ran away for him, breaking a part of the buggy, and injuring him so severely that he remained unconscious until next day. He is now convalescing under the skilful care of Dr. J. S. Zeigler.

Mr. James P. Zepp, of Pleasant Valley, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. Geo. Zepp, Sr., got over 5 bushels of cherries from two trees.

Do you want Job Printing? If so give us a call. We can print anything you want from a small Card to a large Poster.
