1773 July 17 William Randolph to James Cunningham

SIDE TWO

I left very well in Bristol on a Visit to I had like to have omitted saying the remainder of the Snow loaf must be on our own acct & the live in Tobacco unless Flour should get very low with you, as the crop for all sorts of grain seems to promise great abundence, I make no doubt the free importation will be discon tinued — the 1000 bush.l of Indian Corn & the Taser who is not yet arrived we have sold at 3/6 ₩ bush.l & are hope to obtain the same price for some Mr Smith writes us he has shipt which advice we received the day I left Bristol by the Hibernia via Milford — the Snow Corn does not turn out so much by 200 bush.ls as it was shipt for however it hap pens I know not as it was all measured out by a sworn measurer — Mrs Randolph joins in sincere good wishes to your self & Mrs D. with me who am Dear Sir

Your very aff.t hble.d serv.t

William Randolph
