1773 AUGUST 2 WILLIAM RANDOLPH TO JAMES CAMPBELL MS.1994

Dear Sir — Bristol 2 August 1773

I duly recd your favor of the 19th Feby ~~but it may not be expedient to find~~ the steps taken by me in Novr last met with your approbation I assure you they proceeded from real friendship & the duty our present connections leave me indebted to you, however I cant find since that Mr Jennings has been even thought of or mentioned by the Company to ~~[illegible] that~~ body I before hinted at, had that been the case you may perfectly assure yourself I should immediately have demanded an explanation of the matter nor should he have stirr'd from hence untill all partnership matters were set Rect as there is articles between him & my self drawn up in Octob.r 1768 for 7 years which having upwards of two years to run would have given sufficient time for us both to have seen our way
