REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,

WM. TYLER PAGE,

OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH.

Every Republican voter in the county should keep in mind the date of the election for Congressman in this district, and be on hand and cast his ballot for Mr. Wm. Tyler Page on that day. The election will be held Tuesday, November 4th, between the hours of 8 A. M. and 6 P. M. Consult the notice published by the Supervisors of Election, in another column of the Sentinel, naming the location of the polling places in each district and precinct of the county.

The Democrats wrecked the McKinley tariff law and brought disaster and business adversity upon the country. Every adult citizen remembers the serious consequences to the industries and labor of the country, wrought by the tariff tinkering of the Democrats after the election of 1892. They now propose to treat the Dingley tariff in the same manner because some items, on account of changed conditions, require modification. The people of this country should dread Democratic tariff legislation "as the burned child dreads the fire." It has more than once brought financial disaster upon the country and poverty to the masses of the people, and they should not be indifferent to the tremendous risk involved in trifling with it. The Dingley law has brought unexampled prosperity to the country. It is a Republican measure and the Republicans should be given full power to revise such of its schedules as may require it. That is the only way to assure continuance of the marvelous prosperity experienced since its passage. Vote for Wm. Tyler Page.

In an article on Mr. Wm. Tyler Page, the Republican candidate for Congress, the Advocate of last week says, among other things, that "so valuable a man was he in the House his services had been retained by Democrats as well as Republicans." The article from which this quotation is made was intended to be ironical, but, in fact, states a number of real facts in Mr. Page's history, of which the statement quoted is one. He was retained by the Democrats, when they were in a majority in the House of Representatives, for no other reason than that his knowledge of congressional rules and customs, and his efficiency in the discharge of his duties, made him a valuable officer. He has always been a Republican and has rendered efficient service for his party. The Democrats retained him in office because they needed him, and stronger proof of his ability and fidelity in the discharge of a public trust could not be adduced. He voluntarily relinquished the position he was filling when the Democratic Congress began its sessions, and was subsequently called back to it by a telegram when his services became absolutely necessary to straighten out a tangle in which his successor had involved it.

It is urged against Mr. Wm. Tyler Page, the Republican candidate for Congress, by some Democrats, that he is not an extensive tax-payer, and until recently did not pay taxes in the Second Congressional District. The logical deduction from this sort of reasoning is that only men of wealth should be elected to Congress and that money should be preferred to ability. It does not discredit Mr. Page in any respect that he has not accumulated a fortune as an officer of the House of Representatives. The necessities of his father's family imposed the obligation of self-support upon him at a very early age and he began work in a printing office when but nine years old. He was employed in that and other occupations until he was fourteen. He was then appointed a page in the House of Representatives and from that he advanced to positions of responsibility as an officer of that body. For much of the time the support of his aged parents devolved upon him and his salary was largely devoted to that object. He has been a faithful son as well as a faithful officer and deserves the respect and commendation of men of all parties for his manly and upright life. He has struggled manfully against odds, acquiring a practical education at the same time, and fitting himself for the honorable station for which he has been nominated by his party and to which he should be elected by the people.

Republican Meeting at Sparrows Point.

(Correspondence American Sentinel.)

SPARROWS POINT, MD., OCT. 20TH.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held here this evening in the interest of the congressional candidacy of Hon. Wm. Tyler Page. Mr. J. Griffin Hall was the speaker and for over an hour held the attention of the large audience, while he delivered an eloquent and interesting address. He scored Mr. Talbott on his political record, and quoted from the Democratic Advocate, of Westminster, to show that Mr. Talbott was not the choice of the Democratic party. The Sparrows Point Brass Band furnished the music. Mr. J. Fred C. Talbott was also a visitor to the Point to-day, and spent the afternoon presumably looking after his "fences." Rumors were rife that he was endeavoring to make "a deal" with some of the colored voters here. Sparrows Point will give "Page, Protection and Prosperity" a large majority.

The Republicans are making preparations for a barbecue to be held at Foreston, in the Fifth district, of Baltimore county, this Saturday afternoon. Three steers will be roasted. Carroll county will join in the festivities, and will be represented by clubs and speakers. Among those who will speak are Senator McComas, Congressman Capron, of Rhode Island, Collector of Internal Revenue P. L. Goldsborough, Candidate William Tyler Page, Messrs. John S. Ensor and C. Ross Mace.

MR. PAGE IN CARROLL COUNTY.

He, With Other Speakers, Addresses Several Meetings.

Mr. Wm. Tyler Page, the Republican candidate for Congress, is spending this week in Carroll county, and, besides addressing several meetings, has visited as many places as possible in the county. It is not in any respect an exaggeration to say that wherever he has gone he has made a favorable impression, and has received assurances of the united and cordial support of the Republicans of Carroll.

Secretary Wm. H. Moody, of the Navy Department, who was billed to speak with Mr. Page at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening, was in the West, and wired at the last minute that he could not reach here in time for the meeting. His place was supplied by Congressman Edward B. Vreeland, of the 34th district of New York, and Ex-Congressman Alexander McDowell, of Pennsylvania, the present Clerk of the House of Representatives. Mr. Charles C. Gorsuch presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers.

Mr. Vreeland, who was the first speaker, discussed the issues of the campaign at considerable length, and strongly urged the maintenance of the Republican policy of protection and sound money, which he claimed were the causes of the unexampled prosperity of the last five and a half years. On the subject of trusts and monopolies he declared the Democrats had defeated the measure introduced in Congress some time ago to confer the power of controlling them by legislation upon that body.

Mr. Page's speech was largely personal. He alluded to the persistent efforts made by the opposition to create the impression that his nomination was not made by the free will of the convention. "I was not nominated," he said, "by one man, or two men, nor by any set of men. I am no man's man, but if elected will be governed in my official conduct by that which will be for the interest of the people."

Mr. McDowell spoke briefly, and though the hour was late when he closed, he kept the audience in a happy mood by frequent sallies of sparkling wit.

William O. Beckenbaugh, of Washington, D. C., sang several songs, and the meeting was closed by the audience joining heartily in the hymn, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

The meeting was well attended, notwithstanding the performance of Sautelle's circus in the town at the same time.

A well attended meeting was held at Winfield, on Tuesday evening, which was addressed by Mr. Page and Mr. Laban Sparks, of Baltimore. Register of Wills Jos. D. Brooks presided, and called the attention of voters to the importance of properly marking their tickets and keeping the mark entirely inside of the square.

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN.

That is what the American Journal, of New York, says is about to occur by the merger of the several railroads of the country now, or about to be, controlled by the Gould interests. Among other things, the Journal says:

"The great Gould Securities Company is about ready to be announced. It will be incorporated in the latter part of December or early in January. Its capital will be about $800,000,000 in bonds, preferred stock and common stock. Missouri Pacific will be the central feature of the new corporation and will get the richest share in the prizes to be distributed.

"Here are the principal companies that will be combined, their bonds being counted as part of their capitalization:

	Capital.	Mileage operated.
Missouri Pacific	$207,214,250	5,350
Wabash	137,081,000	2,367
Texas and Pacific	93,452,883	1,570
St. Louis and Southwestern	66,500,000	1,293
Lake Erie and Western	34,555,000	892
Denver and Rio Grande	125,619,500	1,673
Total	$664,422,643	13,145

"Then there is the Western Maryland, which will give the outlet to the Atlantic ocean at Baltimore. The Pacific Ocean is reached through a traffic agreement with the Southern Pacific. Early in January Mr. Gould will be able to ride from the Atlantic to the Pacific over his own lines.

"Wabash will furnish the outlet to the Atlantic by way of the Wheeling and Lake Erie and the Western Maryland. There is some talk that at the last hour it may be announced that the Wabash will use the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, a lease of those tracks being granted through Vanderbilt influence in return for favors to be granted to the New York Central on the Manhattan Elevated tracks."

The Journal ought to be well informed on the subject about which it treats, but apparently there are connections yet to be made that cannot be completed "early in January." How is the Western Maryland to be reached by any connection with the other roads named at that time? and what part is the West Virginia Central to play in the program? It has generally been understood that that road is to be one of the links in the chain of the Gould system that is to connect the Atlantic and Pacific; but the Journal makes no mention of it whatever. A considerable stretch of road must be built to bring the tracks of this and the W. Md. together and, the popular impression is, that that will be promptly accomplished. Still, if the Journal's statements are reliable the West Virginia Central is "not in it" at all. The magnitude of the new combination is rather bewildering and the Journal may be at fault in its statements. The essential point in relation to this end of the chain, however, remains clear, and that is that the Western Maryland is to become part of a great system, reaching from ocean to ocean, with extensive terminal facilities on tidewater at Baltimore.

6th Md. Thanks the President.

A committee of the survivors of the Sixth Maryland Regiment, consisting of Col. John R. Rouser, Capt. J. H. C. Brewer, and Capt. J. E. Heffner, waited upon the President on Monday and presented the following resolution of thanks:

WHEREAS, We hail with pleasure the recent action of President Roosevelt in his appointment of Comrade Wm. A. McKellip as United States consul at Madgeburg, Germany, and of Comrade John R. King as United States pension agent at Washington, D. C.; therefore,

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to the President of the United States for the distinguished honor he has been pleased to confer upon the survivors of the Sixth Maryland Regiment, and to assure him that this signal appreciation of the loyal sons of Maryland in the appointment of these "two good men and true" will be hailed with pleasure by all survivors, especially of the Second Brigade, Third Division, of the Sixth Army Corps, as it is by our old commander, Gen. J. Warren Keifer, who is with us at this moment and votes aye.

The president received the committee with great cordiality. He said the Border State men who had gone into the war for the Union were entitled to a little more credit than those who had gone from the North and the West, as they had taken the stand they did in the face of an adverse home sentiment, and the records were full of incidents when brother fought against brother.

Chief Judge James McSherry, of the Court of Appeals; Associate Judge James D. Watters, of the Third Judicial Circuit, and Judge J. Upshur Dennis, of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, whose terms expire this fall, have been appointed their own successors by Governor Smith, until the election of 1903.

The Strike at an End.

The coal miners' strike, thanks to the efforts of President Roosevelt, chiefly, supplemented by the action of Governor Odell, of New York, backed by general public sentiment, is at an end and work has been resumed in the anthracite coal region. The miners' convention, at Wilkesbarre, Pa., after having been in session two days, finally voted unanimously, on Tuesday, to accept the arbitration proposition of the operators, and it was resolved to go to work immediately. Wednesday was spent in making repairs and putting the mines in condition for working. The lower levels in some of them are flooded with water and only the upper levels can be immediately operated. Mining began on Thursday, and, it is understood, the work will now be rushed. Some time, however, must necessarily elapse before the public demand for coal can be met. The supply will probably only be partial up to the close of the year, but an extreme fuel famine and much suffering will be avoided.

President Mitchell, of the Mine-Workers' Union, promptly notified President Roosevelt of the action of the convention and expressed his own sincere pleasure that the strike was at an end. The latter was very happy over the consummation of his efforts to accomplish that result and at once summoned the arbitration committee to meet yesterday and begin its labors. The commissioners are: Brigadier General John M. Wilson, U. S. Army; E. W. Parker, of Washington, D. C., an expert mining engineer; Hon. George Gray, of Delaware, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; Thomas H. Watkins, of Scranton, Pa.; Bishop John L. Spalding, of Peoria, Ills. Hon. Carroll D. Wright is recorder of the commission.

It will be fortunate for all concerned, miners and operators and the public generally, if the commission shall be able to adjust the matter on a permanent and lasting basis. This, however, is improbable, and it is possible that only a temporary truce between the mine owners and their employees will result, notwithstanding the terms of the agreement require that it shall be in effect for three years. The arrogance of the operators will foment future trouble. But consumers are thankful for even temporary relief from an intolerable situation, a situation that will not bear repetition without serious trouble to the monopolists whose oppression of their employees provoked it.

Only about 60 per cent. of the miners went to work on Thursday and some collieries were not at work at all. There was considerable friction for various reasons, but it is believed all difficulties will be satisfactorily adjusted in a short time and mining go on with an augmented force. President Baer, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, representing the operators, announced that a 50 cent per ton advance will be made on ante-strike prices, until January 1st, by which time it is hoped nominal conditions will be reached. The coal being mined is to be distributed to retailers who agree not to exact excessive prices from consumers.

THE PARTY HAD LITTLE TO SAY.

That's what the Advocate says about the result of the Democratic congressional primaries in Baltimore county. Read the following:

From the Baltimore County Democrat.

The candidacy of Mr. Talbott should, therefore, appeal to the Democracy of the district, as he is the choice of the organization in this county.

From the Democratic Advocate, August 16th, 1902.

That is what is objected to—he is the choice of the organization—a machine built up and dominated by Mr. Talbott, and the party had very little to say in the matter. The Democrat will not deny that there are hundreds of Democrats in the county opposed to Mr. Talbott and will not vote for him, and the same condition exists all over the district. In 1899 Governor Smith carried that part of Baltimore county then in the second congressional district by 1550 majority, and the next year Mr. Talbott had but 341, less than one-fourth. In 1901 Comptroller Hering carried the county by 1141. These figures show Mr. Talbott's popularity at home, and he is weaker today in Baltimore county and all over the district, than two years ago. These facts will not be disputed by any one familiar with public sentiment in the party, and we ask, then, what is the sense in endeavoring to force upon the party a man who cannot poll the party vote—a man that the party has tired of?

Jim Wesley and Reddick Barton, two colored men, were hanged by a mob at Hempstead, Texas, on Tuesday, Barton for criminal assault and murder, and Wesley for murder. Barton had been tried during the day, and confessed that on Sunday, 12th inst., he had assaulted and murdered Mrs. Susan Lewis, aged 63. He was convicted and taken to jail and Wesley was then placed on trial. Wesley also pleaded guilty and his prompt conviction followed, but before he could be removed to the jail the mob broke into the courtroom and overpowered the officers. The mob also broke into the jail and the convicted men were hustled to the public square and hanged to the arm of the same telegraph-pole on which another colored man was hanged by a mob, for murder, a month ago.

Dr. Charles H. Ohr, of Cumberland, the oldest past grand master of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons in the world, celebrated the 92nd anniversary of his birthday on Sunday last. He was Grand Master of Masons of Maryland sixty-two years ago, at the age of thirty years.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Reindollar's Opera House, Taneytown, on Thursday night, at which the speakers were Congressman Thaddens M. Mahon, of Chambersburg, Pa.; Mr. Wm. Tyler Page and Mr. Jos. D. Brooks.

This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty.
