1773 SEPT. 23 STEVENSON & RANDOLPH TO STARK, CHESTER

SIDE TWO

a true state of ye Market, which will be some kind of guide to You in Your purchases, tho' We apprehend You will have few com:
:petitors in that way. We wrote You yesterday respecting ye Isabellas new Ships loads, & again request You will lose no time in dispatch:
:ing ye former for Falmouth with a Cargo of Tobo having declind all thoughts of sending either to Jamaica on Account of ye heavy Expence they must be at laying there, perhaps some Months, add to which £100 - that is expected as a Douceur by ye Person who procures ye load, very little would be left for ye wear & tear of ye Ship.

We remain Dear Sir
