1773 OCT. 21 SMYTH & RUTLEDGE TO

SIDE ONE

Chester Town Oct 21st 1773

Dear Sir

Your favr of the 14th Instant came to hand Sunday last covering Letters from your house in Bristol informing us of the safe Arrivall of our Brig whom we now expect every Day. Our Schooner & Nicholson's Boat are now both Loading with Corn and we hope will be with you by the first of next Week at farthest weather Boat we make no doubt will be over by Sunday as indeed our Schooner but she has for a Sq different People to receive her Load off.

We will charter our Brig again to Bristol to carry the Load you mention and she may be expected every hour as our Mr is just returned from Philadelphia where he saw one of the Hands that went out in her who told him that the Brig had got her Lading on board

Hues