SIDE ONE

Swanscombe Octr. 28th 1773

Dear Sir

Inclosed you have the Copy of my acct. with your house in Bristol agreable to the one I sent home — when my other Goods comes, you'll please send them by Hodges Boat or some Craft that will bring them Cheapest as you shall judge Best, and if you should have any more salt fish please send me 200 lbs. with them —

I Wrote you some days since about Mr. Bradsha's Loosing his Servant man, he died this fall, and he begs as his Loss is great that you would be pleased to let him have another and that you would choose it for him, let his age be abt. 18 [redacted] if any of that age, you think will [redacted] and bread & Tapper it, if none [redacted], any age under 30 years, I was to have spoke to you about it when I was over but in my hurry forgot it. if you will let him have one and stay untill he can get his Tobo. ready I will see you paid, and you'll oblige —

Dr. Sir
Your Most Humble Servt.
John Page
