1773 Nov. 22 Thomas Ringgold to James Tilghman

SIDE ONE

Chester Town 22d Nov.r 1773

Dear Sir

I was more displeased than surprised on the Receipt of your last Favor from Annapolis at Colonel Lloyds demand of the Money for the Corn. The Place & Time of Payment were so particularly ascertained that it cannot be be ~~forgot~~ mistaken by them. You justly observe he is hungry and I wish his appetite may not increase.

Mr. Page has paid me £99 for your Acc.t which I shall send to you by Mr. Carmichael sometime next Week if no safe opportunity offers before, together with £30 for Acc.t of Mr. Richard Tilghman for a Serv.t he had of you.

I hope you have got a Return of Health ere now. We are all well & I am Dear Sir

Y.r most obed Serv.t

Thos Ringgold

Please favor me with your prices Current.
