SIDE ONE

Dear Sir

Charles Town Dec.r the 3.d 1773

I am favoured with yrs of the 28 Ult.o and just after I had wrote by Capt. Tillett I received yrs of the 28 Ult.o covering the Black Smiths Indentures which I return you herewith, if he had been willing to have come over it would have suited me very well but as he is not I would not be concerned with him,

Smyth & Ringgold finding from your Letters that it was very uncertain whether you would load the Isabella with Tob.o determined to ship what they lead to London to Mr Mollesons Address-

I hope your Ship is safe arrived before this time and that you'll have a good house Carpenter among the Servants I would chuse one from the Country and am Dr Sir your most Obed.t
